Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, APRIL 19, 1872.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 26, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 1st of June.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 2, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 23rd of April next, and on Monday, the 6th of May, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room on the 23rd of April, it being a Collar-Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 18, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

GREAT BENTLEY FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Tendring, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the Monday after St. Swithin's Day, and usually continued for two or three following days, in the parish of Great Bentley, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 16th day of May, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, April 16, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

COLCHESTER FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices of the borough of Colchester, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the 21st and 22nd days of July, in the said borough, in the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 17th day of May, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, April 17, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

TILLINGHAM FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Dengie, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the 16th day of September, in the parish of Tillingham, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof:

Now therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 16th day of September, in the parish of Tillingham, in the Petty Sessional Division of Dengie, in the county of Essex, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 16th day of April, 1872.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

DISS FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me as Secretary of State for the Home Department by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Diss, in the county of Norfolk, that Fairs have been annually held on the third Friday in the month of September, called "Diss Sessions Fair," and on the 8th day of November, called "Cock-street Fair," in the parish of Diss, in the said division in the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

And whereas Thomas Lambe Taylor, of Starston, in the county of Norfolk, Esq., as lord or owner of the said Fairs, and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fairs should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fairs which have been annually on the third Friday in the month of September, called "Diss Sessions Fair," and on the 8th day of November, called "Cock-street Fair," in the parish and Petty Sessional Division of Diss, in the county of Norfolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 16th day of April, 1872.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

BRADWELL NEAR THE SEA FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Dengie, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the 25th and 26th days of June, in the parish of Bradwell near the Sea, in the said Division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof:

Now therefore I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 25th and 26th days of June, in the parish of Bradwell near the Sea, in the Petty Sessional Division of Dengie, in the county of Essex, shall be abolished, as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 16th day of April, 1872.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of four hundred and sixteen pounds, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Walthamstow, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirteen pounds seventeen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Walthamstow, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of thirteen pounds seventeen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage or benefice of Saint Andrew, Stockwell Green, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage or benefice shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days, in each and every year, of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint Andrew, Stockwell Green aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage or benefice.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Philip, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty-four pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Philip, Heigham, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November, in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate, out of our said common fund, to the said vicarage, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands, at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Saint Cuthbert, Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, one capital sum of seventy pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of repairing and improving the parsonage or house of residence of the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Cuthbert, Carlisle.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of six hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the benefice of the Holy Trinity, Barking-road, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Rochester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, Barking-road, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of six hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, Barking-road.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Raskelfe, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, one capital sum of one hundred pounds, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging an equivalent portion of the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said vicarage of Raskelfe, which was effected by a Deed bearing date the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint George, Poynton, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint George, Poynton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of seven hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the benefice of Saint James, Goffs Oak, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Rochester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint James, Goffs Oak, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of twenty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May, and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

805. And to John Henry Lock, of Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in bed tables and book supports for invalids and others."
- On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 16th day of March, 1872.
817. To George Henry Carne Hedley, Spring Cottage, Merridale-st., Wolverhampton, in the county of Stafford, Engineer, for the invention of "an improved fire-lighter."
- On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 19th day of March, 1872.
846. To François Lebacq, of Laurie-terrace, No. 141, St. George's-road, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, for the invention of "improvements in horse shoes."
- On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 20th day of March, 1872.
898. To Edward Griffith Brewer, of 89, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of studs or buttons."—A communication to him from abroad by Désiré Goubet, of 2, Rue Saint Appoline, Paris, France.
- On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 25th day of March, 1872.
910. To Samuel Moorhouse, of Cheadle Bulkeley, in the county of Chester, Cotton Spinner, and William John Kendall, of Heaton Norris, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, for the invention of "certain improvements in the construction of umbrellas and parasols."
920. And to Charles Robert Mathews, of 52, High-street, Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex, Gas Engineer and Gas Lantern and Lamp Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for safe, speedy, and easy mode in fixing, connecting and disconnecting, gas pendant, bracket, pillar, or ground connections, especially adapted for outside reflecting lamps."
- On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 26th day of March, 1872.
926. To Arthur Charles Henderson, of No. 31, Charing Cross, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the distillation and filtration of fecal, solid, and liquid matters direct from privies, for the manufacture of sulphate of ammonia, together with the apparatus therefor, the said process being equally applicable to the distillation and filtration of liquids of all kinds."—A communication to him from abroad by Felix Chapusot, Chemist, of Pantin, in the Department of the Seine, France.
- On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 27th day of March, 1872.
957. To Nicholas Walker and Benjamin Walker, both of Leeds, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of woollen union and worsted cloth in combination with a felted back."
- On their petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 1st day of April, 1872.
980. To Alfred Robert Davidson Mackenzie, of No. 14, St. James's-square, in the county of Middlesex, a Captain in Her Majesty's Bengal Cavalry, for the invention of "an improved construction of iron steam ships for trading purposes."
- On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 3rd day of April, 1872.
987. To Jean Octave Hanctin, of No. 82, Boulevard Sébastopol, Paris, in the Empire of France, Founder, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for pounding, grinding, and mixing moulding sand and other substances."
989. To John Carrington Sellars, of Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, Manufacturing Chemist, for the invention of "improvements in obtaining hydro-carbon liquids, gas for illuminating and heating purposes, and coke."
993. To William Whittle, of Harborne, in the county of Stafford, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of nails and spikes, and in machinery to be employed in the said manufacture."
995. To William Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in packings for the working parts of steam engines and other machinery and apparatus."—A communication to him from abroad by George Gwynn, of the city and State of New York, and George Gilbert and Chauncey Barnes, of Brooklyn, in the State of New York, United States of America.
997. To Carlos Delattre, of Roubaix, France, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in cotton sizing machines, for the purpose of rendering them applicable for the sizing of woollen or worsted warps."
999. And to John Frederic Warbrick and John Clegg, both of Bolton, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improved apparatus for ascertaining and registering the number of persons entering in or upon a vehicle, or into any place of public entertainment."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 4th day of April, 1872.
1000. To Samuel Edward Asquith, of Leeds, and Frederic Alexander Greenwood, of Bradford, both in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for spinning silk, cotton, wool, and other fibrous substances."
1001. To James Reynolds, of Belfast, in the county of Antrim, Ireland, for the invention of "improvements in roving or slubbing frames, partly applicable for imparting motion in other machinery."
1002. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "an improved method of and machinery for utilizing the butts and other parts of railway rails."—A communication to him from abroad by Henry Chisholm, of Cleveland, Ohio, United States of America.
1003. To Charles Stevenson, of Milngavie, in the county of Dumbarton, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus employed in converting esparto straw, wood, and other similar substances into pulp."
1004. To Bristow Hunt, of No. 1, Serle-street, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "an improved method of and apparatus for indicating the speed of railway trains, applicable also for other similar purposes."—A communication to him from abroad by Albert Scholz, of Berlin, Prussia.
1005. To William Wright, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Plumber, for the invention of "improvements in valves and apparatus for flushing water closets and other purposes."

1007. To George Tidcombe the younger, of the firm of George Tidcombe and Son, Engineers, of Watford, in the county of Herts, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for the cutting of paper, which improvements are also applicable to other apparatus requiring changes of speed."
1008. To William Walton, of Haughton Dale Mills, Denton, near Manchester, Wire Card Manufacturer, and John Thomas Fallows, of the same place, Sub-Manager, for the invention of "improvements in, and machinery for, rolling wire for making wire cards, and for other purposes."
1009. To John Cochran, of Lyonsdown Villa, New Barnet, in the county of Hertford, for the invention of "improvements in valves, applicable to use on the overflow pipes of water and other cisterns or vessels."
1010. To Henry Reeves, of Bratton, near Westbury, in the county of Wilts, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of elevators for stacking hay, corn, and straw."
1011. To Edward Griffith Brewer, of 89, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of railways, in rolling stock for same, and in other apparatus connected therewith."—A communication to him from abroad by Jesse Frye, of the city, county, and State of New York, in the United States of America, Mechanical Engineer.
1013. To Francis Coales, of Chicheley, near Newport Pagnell, in the county of Bucks, Farmer, for the invention of "an improvement in the manufacture of beer."
1014. To William Clay, of Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, Iron Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in tools for cutting and shaping metals, and in the means of keeping the same cool while in use."
1015. To John Richardson Wigham, of Albany House, Monkstown, in the county of Dublin, Ireland, for the invention of "improvements in illuminating lighthouses, beacons, harbour lights, and lightships."
1017. To Robert Samuel Wright, of the Inner Temple, London, Barrister-at-Law, for the invention of "improvements in obtaining motive power, and in the apparatus or means employed therefor."
1018. And to John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in heating, and in apparatus employed therefor."—A communication to him from abroad by La Société Metallurgique pour l'Exploitation des Procédés Ponsard, of Paris, in the Republic of France.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 5th day of April, 1872.
1020. To Egmont Feldtmann, of No. 16, Mark-lane, in the city of London, Merchant, for the invention of "a new or improved universal mandrel."—A communication to him from abroad by Nicolas Bolonin, of St. Petersburg, in the Empire of Russia, a Second Captain of the Horse Artillery of the Imperial Guard of Russia.
1021. To William Newzam Nicholson, of Newark upon Trent, in the county of Nottingham, Agricultural Engineer and Iron Founder, for the invention of "improvements in horse rakes, part of such invention being applicable to other machines."
1023. To Abel Buckley Wimpenny, of Hayfield, in the county of Derby, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of smoothing irons."
1024. To James Worrall, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Dyer, for the invention of "improvements in the process of scouring, dyeing, washing, and drying piece goods, and in apparatus to be employed therein."
1025. To William Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in governors or apparatus for regulating the speed of steam or other motive power engines."—A communication to him from abroad by Jean Armand Callaud, of Paris, France.
1027. To James Webster, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of iron and steel, and in the recovery of certain gases resulting from the operation."
1032. And to Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of illuminating gas, and in apparatus for the same."—A communication to him from abroad by François Marie Rouillé, of 13, Boulevard St. Martin, Paris.
- On their several petitions recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 6th day of April, 1872.
1033. To Henry Alexander Lawrence and Louis Arthur Lawrence, both of Lower Clapton, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of hats, bonnets, and shapes, and in apparatus for such manufacture."
1034. To Alexander Friedmann, of Vienna, in the Empire of Austria, Engineer, for the invention of "a new method of collecting sediments of tubular steam-boilers and apparatus employed therein."
1037. To Frederick Ebenezer Saxby and Joseph Winnington, both of 45, Lorn-street, Chester-road, Hulme, for the invention of "certain improvements in machinery or apparatus to be used for the purpose of regulating the supply of cotton, and other fibrous material, to machinery used in the preparing, manufacturing, or finishing of the same."
1038. To James Henry Mills, of College-street, in the city of London, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for generating heat by the combustion of gas."
1039. To James Henry Mills, of College-street, in the city of London, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."
1042. To Thomas Mitchell, of Cullingworth, near Bingley, in the county of York, Drawing and Spinning Overlooker, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for doubling and twisting two or more yarns or threads of fibrous substances."
1043. And to Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "an improved loom for weaving."—A communication to him from abroad by James Short, of New Brunswick, in the county of Middlesex, and State of New Jersey, United States of America.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 8th day of April, 1872.
1047. To William Edward Gedge, of No. 11, Wellington-street, Strand, in the county of

- Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in feeding-bottles."—A communication to him from abroad by Ernest Louis Antoine Saint-Aubin, of Reims, Marne, France, Chemist.
1048. To Thomas Shann Derham, of Leeds, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for manufacturing bricks."
1049. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in ditching or trenching machines."—A communication to him from abroad by Henry Carter, of Aylmer, Ontario, Canada.
1050. To Samuel Bennett, of Trafford-street, Gaythorn, Manchester, Brassfounder and Copersmith, for the invention of "improvements in construction and fixing of cocks or valves for high or low pressure."
1051. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the treatment of animal and vegetable substances."—A communication to him from abroad by William Adamson, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, United States of America.
1052. To Alexander Browne, of the firm of Browne and Company, Patent Agents, of 85, Gracechurch-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "an improved glove sewing machine."—A communication to him from abroad by Johan Jacob Bergmann and Carl Emil Hüttemeier, both of Copenhagen, in the Kingdom of Denmark.
1053. And to Samuel Danks, of Cincinnati, Ohio, United States of America, now of No. 8, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "an improved method of lining rotary puddling furnaces."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 9th day of April, 1872.
1054. To Edward Sonstadt, of Ramsey, Isle of Man, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of iodide of potassium and of bromide of potassium."
1055. To Edward Griffith Brewer, of 89, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in tuyeres or tuyere pipes."—A communication to him from abroad by Charles Henry Baker, of the city of Philadelphia, in the United States of America.
1056. To John Greene, of the Reform Club, Pall Mall, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of types, logotypes, and phrasotypes, and in apparatus therefor."
1057. To Alfred Salamon Guttman, of 1, Park-road, Holloway, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "a shade or covering for the protection of outside passengers of omnibusses, tramway cars, and such like public vehicles."
1058. To Alfred Vincent Newton, of the office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Draughtsman, for the invention of "an improved spring motive power."—A communication to him from abroad by James Jennings McComb, of New Orleans, in the State of Louisiana, and Frank M. Mahan, of Memphis, in the State of Tennessee, United States of America.
1059. To William Thornton, of the town and county of the town of Nottingham, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for the manufacture of looped or knitted fabrics."
1060. To Alexander Fraser, of Edinburgh, in the county of Mid Lothian, North Britain, Printer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for distributing types."
1061. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "an improved postal or correspondence card."—A communication to him from abroad by Emory McClinck, of Milwaukee, in the county of Milwaukee, and State of Wisconsin, United States of America.
1062. To Henry Larkin, of Theydon Gernon, in the county of Essex, Andrew Leighton, of No. 16, South Castle-street, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, and William White, of No. 30, Thurlow-road, Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the production of iron and steel."
1063. And to Karl Wenzel Zenger, of Prague, Bohemia, in the Empire of Austria, at present residing at the Charing Cross Hotel, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in the purification of iron, copper, and zinc."
- On their several petitions recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 10th day of April, 1872.
1064. To William Robert Lake, of the firm of Haseltine, Lake, & Co., Patent Agents, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of sieves."—A communication to him from abroad by Robert Johnson Mann, of Burlington, Iowa, United States of America.
1065. To Leos Antoine Badin, of Number Nine, New Ormond-street, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "a new or improved method of deodorizing human excrementitious matters, and of its manufacture into farm manure, suitable for all descriptions of agricultural purposes, and to all localities."
1066. To Samuel Cartwright Reed, of Fulham, in the county of Middlesex, Captain in 20th Middlesex Rifle Volunteers, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of portable stretchers and bedsteads for military and other purposes."
1067. To Frederick Render, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Miller and Corn Merchant, for the invention of "improvements in reins for driving and riding."
1068. To George Winram, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Cashier, for the invention of "improvements in spring mattresses and seatings."
1069. To James Worrall, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Dyer, and John Kershaw, of Wadsworth, in the parish of Halifax, and county of York, Spinner, for the invention of "improved apparatus for scouring pile fabrics."
1070. To James Worrall, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Dyer, and John Kershaw, of Wadsworth, in the parish of Halifax, and county of York, Spinner, for the invention of "an improved mode of and apparatus for finishing cotton cords."
1071. To Jacob Heberlein, of Munich, in the Kingdom of Bavaria, but at present of No. 20, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Chief Engineer of the Technical Department of the Royal Bavarian Railways, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for working brakes in railway trains."

1072. To William Cullen, of Belfast, in the county of Antrim, Ireland, Millwright and Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for grinding grain."
1073. To John Bell, junior, and Thomas Bell, both of Wishaw, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineers, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for discharging horizontal retorts."
1074. To Henry Ashworth, of Walsden, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for spinning and doubling cotton and other fibrous substances."
1075. To Gustav Lüttringhaus, of Mulheim on Rhine, in the Kingdom of Prussia, for the invention of "an improvement in machinery or apparatus for cutting out metal plates to pattern."
1077. And to John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in rotatory steam engines."—A communication to him from abroad by Hugo Füngling, Civil Engineer, and Adolf Möller, Manufacturer, both of the city of Hanover, Kingdom of Prussia, and German Empire.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 11th day of April, 1872.
- Erratum in Gazette of Friday, April 12, 1872. No. 736. For "hose, pipes," read, "hose pipe."

PATENTS WHICH HAVE BECOME VOID.

A LIST of the Letters Patent for Inventions which have become void by reason of the non-payment of the additional Stamp Duty of £50, before the expiration of the third year from the date of such Patents, pursuant to the Act of the 16th Vic., c. 5, sec. 2, for the week ending the 13th day of April, 1872.

1042. William Goodreds, of Tipton, in the county of Stafford, Ironfounder, for an invention of "certain improvements in the construction of furnace doors for puddling furnaces."—Dated 7th April, 1869.
1046. George Sidley Chase, of Belfast, in the county of Antrim, in Ireland, Gasfitter, for an invention of "improvements in apparatus for the combustion of gas."—Dated 7th April, 1869.
1048. William Edward Gedge, of the firm of John Gedge and Son, of No. 11, Wellington-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for an invention of "a novel system of self acting ventilating apparatus, applicable also to other purposes, and termed 'aerospines.'"—Communicated to him from abroad by Louis Edouard Gourdon-Fromental, Doctor of Medicine, of Gray (Haute-Saône), France.—Dated 7th April, 1869.
1051. John Menzies the elder and John Menzies the younger, both of the city and county of Perth, North Britain, for an invention of "improvements in shuttles."—Dated 7th April, 1869.
1054. John Robbins, of Tipton, in the county of Stafford, Moulder, and James Allbut, of Tipton aforesaid, Iron Boat Builder, for an invention of "improvements in pumps for raising and forcing liquids."—Dated 7th April, 1869.
1060. Ludwig Mond, of Farnworth within Widnes, in the county of Lancaster, Chemist, for an invention of "improvements in utilizing products arising from soda and potash waste."—Dated 7th April, 1869.
1068. Andrew Stewart and John Wotherspoon, both of Coatbridge, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Tube Manufacturers, for an invention of "improvements in machinery for cutting metal tubes, pipes, cylinders, bars, or similar articles, and for facing the ends or flanges thereof."—Dated 8th April, 1869.
1070. John Pattinson, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, Analytical Chemist, for an invention of "improvements in utilizing the ammoniacal skimmings obtained in galvanizing iron."—Dated 8th April, 1869.
1071. David Hallas and George Hallas, both of Leeds, in the county of York, for an invention of "improved apparatus for regulating the supply and for purifying gas."—Dated 8th April, 1869.
1072. Jules Alfred Chaufourier, of Paris, in the French Empire, Advocate, for an invention of "a new or improved continuous self feeding cotton gin."—Dated 8th April, 1869.
1075. George Douglas Hughes and Alfred Hardy Sellers, both of Nottingham, in the county of Nottingham, for an invention of "improvements in self acting safety valves for steam boilers."—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1077. William Anthony Hunter, of Southport, in the county of Lancaster, for an invention of "improvements in apparatus for lighting street and other lamps."—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1079. Joseph Augustus Miller, of New York, United States of America, but at present of 34, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, for an invention of "improvements in the construction of steam boilers, and in means for removing sediment and impurities therefrom, and in the method of introducing feed water thereto, part of such improvements being applicable to surface condensers."—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1080. Jean Denis, of No. 78, Rue St. Denis en l'Île and No. 37, Boulevard Bonne-Nouvelle, Paris, in the Empire of France, Mechanic, for an invention of "an improved machine for cutting, dividing, and turning straight and conical cogs of wood or of metal, without displacing the cog-wheel."—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1081. Robert Joseph Morison, of No. 75, Mark-lane, in the city of London, Merchant, for an invention of "improvements in presses for compressing and packing cotton, wool, hay, hides, and other fibrous and plastic substances."—Communicated to him from abroad by Messrs. Joseph H. Adams and Coombs, of New York, United States of America.—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1083. James Dewar, residing at Kirkcaldy, in the county of Fife, Doctor of Medicine, for an invention of "improvements in treating certain substances for food and for manure."—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1086. William Williams Hooper, of Bow, in the county of Middlesex, and James Drummond Hooper, of Woodford, in the county of Essex, for an invention of "improvements in the construction of vehicles, and in the means of propelling the same."—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1088. Alfred Vincent Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Draughtsman, for an invention of "improvements in rotary engines, pumps, and meters."—Communicated to him from abroad by Jose Francisco Denavarro, of the city and State of New York, United States of America.—Dated 9th April, 1869.

1090. William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," No. 8, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Consulting Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in paper, woven fabrics, and other porous substances, and in the treatment thereof, whereby the same are rendered waterproof."—Communicated to him from abroad by Charles Toppan, of Wakefield, Massachusetts, United States of America.—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1091. Peter Jensen, of No. 2, Chiswell-street, Finsbury-square, in the city of London, Consulting Engineer and Patent Agent, for an invention of "improvements in centrifugal and other pumps, and in syphons."—Communicated to him from abroad by August Christian Nagel and Reinhold Hermann Kaemp, of the firm of Nagel and Kaemp, Civil Engineers, Hamburg.—Dated 9th April, 1869.
1093. Sylvanus Frederick Van Choate, of Boston, county of Suffolk and State of Massachusetts, United States of America, for an invention of "certain improvements in fire arms."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1094. Edward Brasier, of New Cross, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, and John Eliot Hodgkin, of West Derby, in the county of Lancaster, for an invention of "improvements in machinery for scutching or cleaning flax or other vegetable fibres."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1098. John Hynam, of Deptford, in the county of Kent, Crucible Manufacturer, for an invention of "improvements in apparatus for the manufacture of crucibles and other hollow articles from plastic materials."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1100. John Berger Spence, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Merchant, for an invention of "improvements in the treatment of cast iron for its conversion into malleable iron or steel."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1101. Peter Headridge, of 5, Lime-grove, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for an invention of "improvements in dentistry for expanding the upper and lower maxillary."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1102. David Bruce Peebles, of Edinburgh, in the county of Mid Lothian, North Britain, Engineer and Gas Meter Manufacturer, for an invention of "improvements in gas meters."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1105. Octave Vivier, of Sekforde-street, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, for an invention of "improvements in escapements for watches and other time pieces."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1107. John Farry, Slate Quarry Manager, and Richard Morris, Mechanic, both of Cambrian Slate Works, Llamberis, in the county of Carnarvon, North Wales, for an invention of "improvements in saws for cutting slate, stone, iron, or other metals or materials."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1111. James Wadsworth, of Bromley-street, in the city of Manchester, Machinist, for an invention of "improvements in lighting fires and in economizing fuel, and in apparatus therefor."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1112. David Johnson, of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, Corn Miller, for an invention of "an improved mode of, and machinery for, manufacturing flour."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1113. John Handsley Dales and John Frederick Maygrove, both of Wood-street, in the city of London, for an invention of "improvements in the mode of, and in looms for weaving hair, cloth, and other fabrics."—Dated 10th April, 1869.
1117. John Kirk, of Woolwich, in the county of Kent, Contractor, for an invention of "improvements in cabs, carriages, or other vehicles."—Dated 12th April, 1869.
1119. John Easton, of Taunton, in the county of Somerset, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in the construction of drop drills."—Communicated to him from abroad by John Dunnell Garrett, of Buckan, near Magdeburg, in the Kingdom of Prussia.—Dated 12th April, 1869.
1122. Antonio d'Azambuja, of Joinville-le-Pont, in the French Empire, Merchant, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of of felted fabrics."—Dated 12th April, 1869.
1128. Walter Brock, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in and connected with slide valves."—Dated 13th April, 1869.
1130. Charles Turner, of the town and county of Southampton, Civil Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in cowls for chimneys and shafts."—Dated 13th April, 1869.
1131. Benjamin Joseph Barnard Mills, of 35, Southampton-buildings, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of boots and shoes and in machinery employed therein."—Communicated to him from abroad by Everett Preston Richardson, of Lawrence, in the State of Massachusetts, United States of America, Mechanical Engineer.—Dated 13th April, 1869.
1132. Richard Eede Marshall and Charles Marshall, both of Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, for an invention of "improvements in apparatus for distributing fumigating matter, in order to destroy insects and flies on plants."—Dated 13th April, 1869.
1133. Walter Gillespie, of Coupland-terrace, Plumstead, in the county of Kent, for an invention of "improvements in furnace bars, and in the mode of arranging and using them so as to consume smoke and economize fuel."—Dated 13th April, 1869.
1135. Alfred Vincent Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Draughtsman, for an invention of "an improved construction of fan blower."—Communicated to him from abroad by Patrick Clark and Jacob Randolph Thotwell, both of Rahway, in the State of New Jersey, United States of America.—Dated 13th April, 1869.
