AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of April, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Kingston-upon-Hull.'

"And with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Kingston-upon-Hull, being:—

"All that part of the parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, in the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, and in the diocese of York, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within, and is bounded by, an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of the Holy Trinity, Kingston-upon-Hull, from the new parish of Saint Stephen, Hull, in the town, county, and diocese aforesaid, at the point where Anlaby-road is joined by the street or road called or known as South-parade; and extending thence southward from the said boundary, along the middle of the last-named street or road, to a point near the gate or wicket called or known as Halfpenny Hatch, at the southern end of the said street or road, and opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'K. St. M. D. C., 1872, No. 1,' placed on the western side of the same street, at the north-eastern end of the wall forming the southern boundary of the garden attached to Elm Tree Cottage; and extending thence south-westward, for a distance of forty-one yards or thereabouts, to such boundary stone, and along the said wall to its
