Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1872.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 26, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 1st of June.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day John George Dodson, Esquire, was, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint Mark James Barrington-Ward, Esquire, B.A., of Magdalen Hall, Oxford, to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 333rd section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that, subject to the provisions contained in the fifth part of that Act, it shall be lawful for every Pilotage Authority, by Bye-law, made with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, from time to time, to do within its district all or any of the things specified in that behalf in the said section :

And whereas the Corporation of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots Seamen of the Trinity House in Kingston-upon-Hull, being a

Pilotage Authority within the aforesaid provision, has submitted, for the consent of Her Majesty in Council, certain Bye-laws for the district within their jurisdiction, as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed :

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said new Bye-laws are reasonable and proper :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve of, and doth hereby approve of and signify Her consent to the said new Bye-laws with respect to the Pilotage of the district within the jurisdiction of the Hull Trinity House.

Edmund Harrison.

SCHEDULE.

I. That the present rates of pilotage from the Humber to, the several places mentioned in the annexed Schedule be varied by the addition of the following rule, that is to say,—

"For every vessel which shall be propelled by steam, or towed by a steam vessel under the direction of the pilot, three-fourths only of the said rates are to be demanded and paid."

The Schedule above referred to.

II. That in lieu of Bye-law No. 7 of the Bye-laws and Regulations fixing the terms and conditions of granting pilotage certificates to masters and mates of ships by this Corporation, sanctioned by Her Majesty by Orders in Council, dated the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and the twelfth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, the following Bye-law be substituted :—

“Every application for a transfer from one ship to another of any certificate granted by the said Corporation shall be made in writing, and signed by or on behalf of the person requiring such transfer, and shall specify the name and tonnage of the ship to which such certificate is required to be transferred, and the port to which such ship belongs, and the name or names of her owner or owners; and in case such last-mentioned ship shall not belong to the same owner as the ship in respect of which the former certificate was granted, every such application shall, if required by the said Corporation, be accompanied by a testimonial from the owner of the ship, in respect of which the former certificate was granted, of the sobriety and good conduct of the master or mate applying for the transfer.

III. Every applicant for examination by the said Corporation as a Pilot, and every master or mate applying to the said Corporation to be examined as to his capacity to pilot the ship of which he is master or mate, shall pay to the said Corporation a fee not exceeding two pounds.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following, that is to say :

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, to comprise a part of the parish of Whickham, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Whickham, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas it is enacted by the thirdly hereinbefore mentioned Act that, as soon as the tithe or tenth of lead ore or ure in the parish of Stanhope, in the said county of Durham, shall have come into our possession, as in the said Act is contemplated, the common fund under our control created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, shall be charged with a gross annual charge of four thousand five hundred pounds, to be appropriated towards permanently augmenting or endowing certain benefices and churches therein specified, and such other benefices with cure of souls within the county of Durham, and in the patronage or alternate patronage of the Bishop of Durham for the time being, as shall be selected by the said Bishop and approved by us the said Commissioners.

“And whereas the said tithe or tenth of lead ore or ure of the said parish of Stanhope has come into our possession.

“And whereas, with a view to the permanent endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, it has been proposed to us by the Right Reverend Charles, now Bishop of Durham, and it appears to us to be expedient, that out of the said annual sum of four thousand five hundred pounds, so charged upon the common fund under our control as aforesaid, a sum of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum should be appropriated towards the endowment of the said district, so soon as the same shall have been constituted, and shall be payable to the minister thereof, so soon as one shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and to his successors; and also, that so soon as such district shall have become a new parish, under the provisions of the lastly-mentioned Act, a further sum of fifty pounds per annum shall be appropriated out of the said sum of four thousand five hundred pounds towards the further endowment of the said new parish.

“And whereas such grants of one hundred and fifty pounds, and of fifty pounds respectively, will be made and secured by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

“And whereas it has also been proposed to, and stipulated with us by the said Charles, Bishop of Durham, and it appears to us to be desirable, and we have accordingly agreed and undertaken to recommend to your Majesty in Council, that in consideration of the concurrence of the said bishop in the appropriation of the annual sums aforesaid, towards the permanent endowment of the said district or new parish, the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, should be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in the said Charles, Bishop of Durham, and his successors, bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose, that all that part of the said parish of Whickham which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Christ Church, Dunston.’

“And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid, then of such new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Christ Church Dunston, being : -

“All that part of the parish of Whickham, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the county of Northumberland, or, in other words, by the river Tyne; on the east, partly by the district of Saint Paul, Low Team, and partly by the new parish of Saint Cuthbert, Gateshead, commonly called Saint Cuthbert, Bensham, Gateshead, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, or in other words, by the river Team, on the south, by the parish or parochial chapelry of Lamesley, in the same county and diocese, or in other words, by the Black Burn; and on all other sides, that is to say on the south-west and on the west, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Lamesley from the parish of Whickham aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Watergate-bridge, which carries the Gateshead and Wolsingham Turnpike-road, over the Black Burn aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts, first eastward and then north-eastward, along the middle of the said turnpike-road, to its junction at the farm house, called or known as Lobley Hill, with the Gateshead and Hexham Turnpike-road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of fifty-three chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named turnpike-road, to its junction with the road called or known as Dunston Bank; and extending thence, first north-eastward, and then northward, along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction with the Gateshead and Swalwell Turnpike-road; and extending thence, generally westward, for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named turnpike-road, to the point where it crosses the watercourse issuing from Duck Pool-lane, and in some part called or known as the High Gut; and extending thence, first northward, then westward, and then again northward, along the middle of the said watercourse, thereby crossing the line of the Redheugh Branch of the Newcastle and Carlisle Railway, to the junction of the same watercourse with the river Tyne aforesaid, and continuing thence still northward, and in a direct line to the boundary in the middle of the same river which divides the said county of Durham, from the county of Northumberland aforesaid.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron, and to the incumbent of the cure out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road, sometime part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular portion of the said new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such portion not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts, and we have, in respect of such hereditaments and premises, agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act, to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when he shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein-mentioned Act, and to his successors, a grant of two hundred pounds per annum, and also so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district, and shall have been approved by us, and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district, and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly hereinbefore-mentioned Act, to make such further grant from the said fund as will suffice to raise the income of the incumbent of such new parish to three hundred pounds per annum, and such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road, which is mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written, and which is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Agatha, Shoreditch.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Agatha, Shoreditch, being:—

"All that portion of the new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road, sometime part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is bounded on the south-east by the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate, in the city of London, and in the diocese of London aforesaid, on the south by the parish of Saint Stephen, Coleman-street, in the said city and diocese, on the west by the new parish of Saint Paul, Finsbury, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the north, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road aforesaid, at a point on the western side of Wilson-street, opposite to the middle of the western end of Earl-street; and extending thence, eastward, to and along the middle of the last-named street, to its eastern end, where it is joined by the passage leading through King's Head-court; and extending thence, first south-eastward to, and then eastward along, the said passage, passing through the middle of the said court, to the street called or known, as Long-alley; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street to its junction with Skinner-street; and extending thence eastward, for a distance of twenty-seven yards or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street to the boundary under the line of the City Extension of the North London Railway, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road, from the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Bishopsgate aforesaid."

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas one calendar month has expired since the date of the transmission of drafts of the said Scheme as aforesaid, and no objections have been made to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, situate at Upper Bentham, in the parish of Bentham, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Margaret, situate at Upper Bentham, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Bentham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Margaret, situate at Upper Bentham as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Bentham.'

"And with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Bentham, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Bentham, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-west by the county of Lancaster, on the south-east, and on the east by the parish of Clapham, in the said county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon aforesaid, on the north by the ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton, in the said parish of Bentham, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the west, by an imaginary line commencing at a boundary stone, inscribed 'B. St. M. D. C., 1872, No. 1,' and placed upon the boundary which divides the said ancient parochial chapelry of Ingleton from the parish of Bentham aforesaid, at the point where Parkfoot-lane is joined by the road leading to Raygill House; and extending thence, westward, for a distance of six chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said Parkfoot-lane to its junction at or near to Fourlanes Inn, with Bentham Moor-road, and with the road leading over Gill Head Brow to Upper Bentham; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of fifty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described road to a point at or near to Gill Head Brow aforesaid, opposite to a boundary stone, inscribed 'B. St. M. D. C., 1872, No. 2,' and placed on the western side of the same road, at or near to its junction with the road leading to the house, called or known as Gill Head; and extending thence, first westward to such boundary stone, and then south-westward, and in a direct line, for a distance of fifty-one chains, or thereabouts (thereby passing to the north-west of the Moons Acre House) to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. M. D. C., 1872, No. 3,' and placed at the point where the High-road leading from Upper Bentham to Lower Bentham is joined by Fushett's-lane; and extending thence, southward, and in a direct line, for a distance of seventeen and a half chains, or thereabouts, to the mile post indicating a distance of twenty-five and a half miles from Skipton, and placed on the northern side of the line of the Lancaster Branch of the North Western Railway; and extending thence, south-eastward, and in a direct line for a distance of forty-nine chains, or thereabouts (crossing the said line of railway and crossing also the River Wenning, and passing close to the south-west of the buildings and premises called or known as Moulterbeck Farm), to a boundary stone inscribed 'B. St. M. D. C., 1872, No. 4,' and placed at the south-eastern end of the bridge on the western side of Thickrash Farm-house, which bridge carries the occupation road and footpath leading from Oak Bank to the said farm-house, over the stream called or known as Moulter Beck; and extending thence north-eastward, along the middle of the said occupation-road and footpath, to its junction on the northern side of the said Thickrash Farm-house with Green's Smithy-lane; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of half a mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to its junction at or near to the house called or known as Green's Smithy, with Mewith-lane and with Slaidburn-road; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of three quarters of a mile, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary on Loftshaw Moss, near to the Great Stone of Fourstones, which boundary divides the said parish of Bentham from the county of Lancaster aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke the Evangelist, situate at Beeston Hill, in the chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, and of the new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, also within the original limits of the said parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such chapelry and new parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke the Evangelist, situate at Beeston Hill as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, and with the consent of the Reverend James Russell Woodford, Doctor in Divinity, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, and as such vicar or incumbent, the patron of the perpetual curacy of the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Luke the Evangelist, situate at Beeston Hill as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke the Evangelist, Beeston Hill.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke the Evangelist, Beeston Hill, being:—

"All that portion of the chapelry of Saint Matthew Holbeck, within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, together with all those contiguous portions of the new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, also within the original limits of the said parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, which said portions of such chapelry, and of such new parish, are together comprised within, and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing, upon the boundary which divides the district chapelry of Saint Peter, Hunslet Moor, also within the original limits of the said parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, from the chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Leeds and Elland-road, at or near to Holbeck-lane End; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of thirty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said Leeds and Elland-road, to the point at Little Town, where the same road is crossed by the boundary which divides the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, from a certain detached portion of the new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet aforesaid; and extending thence, westward, along the last-described boundary to its junction with the boundary which divides the said detached portion of the last-named new parish from the chapelry of Beeston, within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds aforesaid; and extending thence, first south-westward, and then south-eastward along the last-described boundary (thereby crossing the Leeds and Elland-road aforesaid) to its junction to the north of Beggar Hill Close, with the boundary which divides the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, from the chapelry of Beeston aforesaid, and continuing thence, still south-eastward, along the last-described boundary to its junction in the middle of Carr Beck, with the boundary which divides the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, from the new parish of Middleton, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, from the said Carr Beck, along the last-described boundary to its junction near Odd Run, with the boundary which divides the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, from the new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet aforesaid; and extending thence, alternately, north-westward and south-westward, along the last-described boundary to a point in the middle of the Dewsbury and Leeds-road; and extending thence, from the said boundary, north-eastward, for a distance of seventeen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to the boundary near to the Mile Stone, which indicates one mile from Leeds, and seven miles from Dewsbury, which said boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Hunslet, from the district chapelry of Saint Peter, Hunslet Moor aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward along the last-described boundary (following thereby the course of Lady Pit-lane) to its junction on the southern side of Holbeck Moor, with the boundary which divides the said chapelry of Saint Matthew, Holbeck, from the district chapelry of Saint Peter, Hunslet Moor as aforesaid; and extending thence, in a direction generally northward, along the last-described boundary to the first-described point in the middle of the said Leeds and Elland-road, at or near to Holbeck-lane End as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEENS'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Armley Hall, in the new parish of New Wortley, within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Armley Hall as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of New Wortley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of the Holy Trinity, situate at Armley Hall as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Armley Hall.'

"And with the like consent of the said Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Armley Hall, being:

"All that part of the new parish of New Wortley, within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, which is bounded on the north-west by the township and parochial chapelry of Armley, within the original limits of the said parish of Saint Peter, Leeds; on the north-east by the new parish of Burley, by the new parish of Saint Simon, Leeds, by the new parish of Saint Andrew, Leeds, and by the new parish of Saint Philip, Leeds, all within the original limits of the parish of Saint Peter, Leeds aforesaid; and on the remaining sides, that is to say, on the south-east and on the south-west by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Philip, Leeds, from the new parish of New Wortley aforesaid, at a point in the centre of Wellington Bridge, which carries Wellington-road across the River Aire; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of twenty-eight chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said Wellington-road (crossing the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, and passing under the line of the Leeds and Bradford Railway), to the junction of the same road with Prince's-street; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the said street for a distance of eighteen chains, or thereabouts, to its junction with Oak-road; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of four chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction with Armley Hall-lane; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of nine and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named lane to the boundary on the southern side of the Leeds Borough Gaol which divides the said new parish of New Wortley from the township and parochial chapelry of Armley aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate within the limits of the parish of Saint Werburgh, Derby, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate within the limits of the parish of Saint Werburgh, Derby, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Werburgh, Derby, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Derby.'

"And, with the like consent of the said George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Luke, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Thomas Berry, the Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Werburgh, Derby, shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Luke, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Thomas Berry: And provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in, or approve the taking of, any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Derby, being:

"All that part of the parish of Saint Werburgh, Derby, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield; wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the east by the new parish of Christ Church, Derby, on the south partly by the said new parish of Christ Church, Derby, and partly by the chapelry of Littleover, in the parish of Mickleover, on the west by the parish of Mackworth, all in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the north, partly by the new parish of Saint John, Derby, in the same county and diocese, and partly by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Derby, from the parish of Saint Werburgh, Derby aforesaid, at a point at or near to the centre of the bridge which carries the Old Uttoxeter-road over Bramble Brook, and extending thence south-westward for a distance of one hundred and forty-six yards or thereabouts along the middle of the said road, to the point where it is joined by Junction-street, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said street to the point where it joins the New Uttoxeter-road, and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of thirty yards or thereabouts along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Boundary-road, and extending thence for a distance of one hundred and sixty-eight yards or thereabouts, first southward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Drewry-lane, and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane, thereby passing along the southern side of the Uttoxeter Road Cemetery, and crossing Peet-street, to the boundary in the centre of the bridge which crosses Littleover Brook, and which connects the said Drewry-lane with Watery-lane, which boundary divides the said parish of Saint Werburgh, Derby, from the new parish of Christ Church, Derby aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

Edmund Harrison.

A T the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of your Majesty, chapter forty-one, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for setting out and constituting a district for spiritual purposes, and annexing such district to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill (sometime part of the original parish of Manchester), in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district for spiritual purposes should be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate within the limits of the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be severed and disannexed from the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, and shall be set out and constituted for and annexed to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate as aforesaid, and shall become and be a district for spiritual purposes, and shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Cheetham.'

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the herein-named Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint John the Evangelist, Cheetham, being :—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill (sometime part of the original parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester), which is bounded on the north-west by the new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill (also sometime part of the said original parish), on the west by the new parish of Saint John, Broughton (also sometime part of the same original parish), on the south-west, by that portion of the said original parish of Manchester now remaining attached to the cathedral and parish church of Manchester, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-described portion of the said original parish of Manchester from the new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill aforesaid, at the point where Elizabeth-street joins Cheetham Hill-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of one and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with Heywood-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street to the point where it rejoins the said Cheetham Hill-road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of nine and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary, at the junction of the same road with Waterloo-road and with Halliwell-lane, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, from the new parish of Saint Mark, Cheetham Hill aforesaid."

No. 23857.

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the said firstly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Cheetham Hill, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, and of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for providing the Bishop of the diocese of Manchester with a more convenient house of residence.

"Whereas the messuage known as Mauldeth Hall, with the freehold and leasehold lands and hereditaments thereto belonging, and hereinafter described, situate in the county of Lancaster, and in the new parish of Saint John, Heaton Mersey, within the limits of the original parish of Manchester, are at present the episcopal residence of the Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said messuage, lands, and hereditaments have become inconvenient and undesirable to be used as such episcopal residence, and that for the following reasons, namely, that the said messuage, and the offices and gardens thereto belonging, are found by the bishop to require an annual expenditure greater than the income of the see of Manchester can properly afford; that the said messuage does not possess certain convenient appurtenances to an episcopal residence, such as proper accommodation for clergy and for candidates for the ministry, and that these conveniences can be with greater facility provided elsewhere; and that in the opinion of the present,

Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and of the clergy and laity of the same diocese, in public meeting lately assembled, the said messuage, lands, and hereditaments are inconveniently situated with respect to the present circumstances of that diocese at large, and of the cathedral city of Manchester in particular.

"And whereas Murray Gladstone, of Broughton House, in the new parish of Saint Paul, Kersal Moor, within the limits of the original parish of Manchester, Esquire, is now seized in fee simple in possession, without incumbrance (but subject to an annual chief rent of one hundred pounds five shillings and nine pence), of the messuage known as Broughton House, with the lands and hereditaments thereto belonging, and hereinafter described, which said last-mentioned premises are distant two miles, or thereabouts, from the central part of the said city of Manchester, and are accessible from such parts of the city by a direct and frequented public road.

"And whereas the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, is desirous, for the reasons aforesaid, that the said messuage known as Mauldeth Hall, with the lands and hereditaments thereto belonging, should be sold, and is further desirous that the said other messuage known as Broughton House, with the lands and hereditaments thereto belonging, should be purchased and acquired as and for, and should become and be, the episcopal residence of the Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, in lieu of the said firstly-mentioned premises.

"And whereas we have satisfied ourselves, by the report of a competent architect, made after actual survey by him effected, that the said messuage known as Broughton House is conveniently situated with respect to the said diocese of Manchester at large, and to the said cathedral city of Manchester in particular, and would be convenient and sufficient (after certain alterations and additions should have been made therein and thereto), as and for the episcopal residence of the Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester.

"And whereas the said Murray Gladstone has, by agreement in writing under his hand, and subject to the passing of an Order of your Majesty in Council for the sale of the said episcopal residence known as Mauldeth Hall, and to the sale thereof being actually effected before the twenty-ninth day of September next, undertaken to sell and convey to the said bishop and his successors the said messuage known as Broughton House, with the lands and hereditaments thereto belonging, for the sum of eight thousand pounds, but reserving to himself the liberty, by writing under his hand or under the hand of his Solicitors, or one of them, to cancel the said agreement at any time after the said twenty-ninth day of September, in case the sale of Broughton House to the said Bishop shall not have been completed.

"And whereas the sum of five hundred and twenty pounds nine shillings and sixpence has been paid to and received by the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, in respect of dilapidations upon the said messuage known as Mauldeth Hall, and the same sum has been deposited with us by him the said Bishop, in order that it may be applied by us as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, has moreover undertaken that if (as however appears to us to be improbable) the sale of Mauldeth Hall, as hereinafter recommended and proposed, should not produce an amount sufficient, together with the sum so paid over to us by the said Bishop on account of dilapidations, to provide the means of effecting the purchase and improvement of Broughton House as aforesaid; and of relieving the said Bishop and his successors from liability in respect of the said chief rent charged upon the same, he, the said bishop, being then incumbent of the said see of Manchester, will concur with us in seeking for the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council for the raising by way of mortgage of the revenues of the said see, of such a further sum of money as will be in our opinion requisite for completing the improvement, as aforesaid; of the said house and premises called Broughton House.

"And whereas, under the circumstances hereinbefore set forth, it appears to us to have become and to be now expedient, and to be conducive to the permanent benefit of the see of Manchester aforesaid, that the sale and purchase hereinafter recommended and proposed should be effected in the manner hereinafter in that behalf recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore; with the consent of the said James, Bishop of Manchester, (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we humbly recommend and propose as follows, that is to say:—

"That the said bishop be authorized and empowered to sell by private contract, or by tender, or by public auction, as to him, the said Bishop, with our consent, shall seem expedient (or if it shall so seem expedient in one of the said three ways after the others, or any of them, shall have been attempted) for such price or prices in all, and at such time or times as shall be approved by us, and to transfer and convey to any purchaser or purchasers by an assurance or assurances to be made in manner and form approved by us under our common seal, the whole estate, right, title, and interest, of him, the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and of his successors, of, in, and to the said messuage known as Mauldeth Hall, with the lands and hereditaments thereto belonging, as the same are now vested in him and them, under and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, dated the eleventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the twelfth day of September following; which said messuage, lands, and hereditaments, comprise in extent thirty-four acres and nineteen perches (statute measure) of freehold tenure, little more or less, subject to an annual chief rent of thirty-six pounds thirteen shillings and sixpence, and comprise also five acres one rood and thirty perches of leasehold tenure, held under a lease granted by Edmund Wright, Esquire, for a term of forty years, from the second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, at an annual rent of twenty pounds six shillings and nine pence, and are situated in the said county of Lancaster, and new parish of Saint John, Heaton Mersey, within the limits of the original parish of Manchester; and that the said Bishop be authorized and empowered, with our consent, to purchase and acquire from the said Murray Gladstone, or other the owner or owners thereof, at and for any price not exceeding eight thousand pounds, subject to the annual chief rent of one hundred pounds five shillings and nine pence aforesaid, and to take to himself and his successors in the see of Manchester an assurance or assurances (in manner and form to be approved by us under our common seal) of the absolute fee simple and inheritance in possession (subject to the said annual chief rent of one hundred pounds five shillings and nine pence) of the said messuage, known as Broughton House, with the lands and hereditaments thereto belonging, which said premises comprise fifteen thousand three hundred and sixty-two square yards, or thereabouts, of freehold tenure, and are situate in the said county of Lancaster, and new parish of Saint Paul, Kersal Moor, within the limits of the original parish of Manchester; and that all monies received by, or on account of the said bishop, upon or in respect of any sale or sales of the said messuage known as Mauldeth Hall, and the lands and hereditaments thereto belonging, or of any part thereof, shall be by him, the said bishop, paid over to us, and shall be held by us, and together with the dilapidation monies aforesaid, amounting to the sum of five hundred and twenty pounds nine shillings and sixpence, be applied for the purposes and in manner next hereinafter mentioned by the said bishop (but with and subject to our approval and at such times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient): Firstly, in defraying all costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the sale of Mauldeth Hall as aforesaid, and to the purchase by the said bishop of the messuage known as Broughton House, and the lands and hereditaments thereto belonging as aforesaid, and the relief of the said bishop and his successors, either by way of redemption or annual allowance, from liability in respect of the chief rent charged upon the same house as aforesaid, or so much of such costs, charges, expenses, and relief, as the same monies may be sufficient to defray; and secondly, in defraying, if there be any surplus of the said monies, the costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to any additions and alterations, which, having regard to the recitals in this scheme contained, may from time to time appear to the said bishop, and to us, to be necessary or desirable in order to make the said messuage and premises known as Broughton House, into a convenient and sufficient episcopal residence for the bishop of the said diocese of Manchester.

“And we further recommend and propose that if, and when the said proposed purchase of Broughton House shall have been effected, as hereinbefore mentioned, then he, the said bishop, or other the bishop of the said diocese of Manchester for the time being, shall, at his personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured from loss or damage by fire that messuage or residence with its outbuildings and appurtenances, and any alterations and improvements in the same, such insurance to be effected in one of the public offices of assurance, in London or Westminster, for a sum of not less than eight thousand pounds, and that such bishop shall, within fourteen days after any premium for such insurance shall have become payable, deliver to us the receipt for the same, and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said house, any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance, shall become, and be payable, and be paid to, and deposited with us in trust to be applied as hereinafter mentioned.

“And we further recommend and propose that the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied by us towards the rebuilding, or repairing, and reinstating of the said messuage or residence, and the outbuildings and appurtenances thereto belonging, or of any part thereof, which may have so suffered loss and damage, in such manner as shall be determined on by us, with the concurrence of the Bishop of Manchester for the time being.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the parish of Hammersmith, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London:

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of the parish of Hammersmith, as aforesaid:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hammersmith, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Matthew, situate within the limits of such parish, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Hammersmith.’

“And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Hammersmith, being:

"All that part of the parish of Hammersmith, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, wherein the present Incumbent, of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-west, by the new parish of Saint John, Hammersmith, on the north, partly by the district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, and partly by the new parish of Saint Clement, Kensington; on the east, by the new parish of Saint Barnabas, Kensington; on the south by the new parish of Saint Mary, North End, all in the county and diocese aforesaid; and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, North End, from the parish of Hammersmith aforesaid, at the point where Hammersmith-road is joined by the road which leads through and along Brook Green to the Shepherd's Bush-road; and extending thence, north-westward, along the middle of the last-described-road (thereby passing through and along Brook Green aforesaid), to the boundary at the junction of the same road with Shepherd's Bush-road aforesaid, which boundary divides the said parish of Hammersmith from the new parish of Saint John, Hammersmith aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Coleford, in the parish of Newland, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, situate at Coleford as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Newland, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John, situate at Coleford as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Coleford.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John, Coleford, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Newland, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the main portion of the tithing or chapelry of Coleford, and which is bounded on the south by the new parish of Clearwell, in the said county and diocese, on the east partly by the district parish of Saint Paul, Dean Forest, and partly by the district parish of Christ Church, Dean Forest, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the north-east by the last-named district parish, on the north by the parish of English Bicknor, in the said county and diocese, on the west partly by the parish of Staunton, in the same county and diocese, and partly by the tithing of Newland, in the parish of Newland aforesaid, or in other words by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Staunton from the parish of Newland aforesaid, at a point at or near to High Meadow, in the middle of the old road which leads from Staunton past Whitecliff to Scatterford; and extending thence, for a distance of one mile or thereabouts, first south-eastward and then south-westward, along the middle of the said road to the boundary at Millend-lane, which divides the said parish of Newland from the new parish of Clearwell aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the two several registries of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Gloucester and at Bristol.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Burslem Local Board of Health, in the county of Stafford, have, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the said Board is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all the burial-grounds within the said district, and praying that the said Local Board of Health may be the Burial Board for the said district:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Local Board aforesaid, one month at least before the said twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burials ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued in them with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the nineteenth day of March last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows ; viz. :—

HORNSEY.—From and after the thirty-first of December; one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the churchyard of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex, in ground previously buried in, except in then existing family vaults and graves.

LLANGOLLEN.—Forthwith wholly in the Church of Llangollen, in the county of Denbigh; and in the old churchyard, except in now existing vaults, each coffin buried in which shall be embedded in charcoal, and be separately entombed in an air-tight manner.

BOLTON-PERCY, YORKS.—Forthwith wholly in the Parish Church, and in the old churchyard of Bolton-Percy.

SHERBORNE, GLOUCESTERSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Sherborne, in the county of Gloucester; and in the old churchyard of the said parish, except in the now existing vault and walled graves.

WALTON-ON-THE-HILL.—Forthwith in the Necropolis Cemetery, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Lancaster, except in graves in which every coffin buried shall be separately entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, or by concrete not less than six inches in thickness; that no earthen grave that has been buried in shall be re-opened, unless it be a private family grave, in which case the soil within a foot above the previously buried coffin shall be left undisturbed; and that no grave shall be opened less than four feet deep.

EPSOM.—Forthwith in the churchyard of the parish of Epsom, except in now completely walled graves and vaults, every coffin buried in which shall be separately entombed, i.e., enclosed in stonework or brickwork properly cemented, or in concrete not less than four inches thick.

ECCLESHALL.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Eccleshall, in the county of Stafford.

WALTON-ON-THE-HILL.—Forthwith in the St. Mary's Cemetery, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the county of Lancaster, except in graves in which every coffin buried shall be separately entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, or by concrete not less than six inches in thickness: that no earthen grave that has been buried in, in that part of the said cemetery which is north of a line drawn from a point seventy yards south of the east end of the northern wall to another point fifty yards south of the west end of the northern wall, shall be re-opened, unless it be a private family grave, in which case the soil within a foot above the previously buried coffin shall be left undisturbed: and that no grave shall be opened less than four feet deep.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament, held in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Burial Acts," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and that every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and that such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish: Provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates;

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation having been duly given to the churchwardens or other persons having the charge of the churchyard of Eaton Bray, in the county of Bedford, has made a representation, stating that he is of opinion that, for the protection of the public health, and for the purpose of preventing the said churchyard from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health, an Order should be made for the adoption of the measures which are hereinafter set forth;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the churchwardens or other persons having the charge of the said churchyard do adopt, or cause to be adopted, the following measures, viz. :—

That the north part of the churchyard of Eaton Bray, in the county of Bedford, be drained.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CI.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT, 1870.

Borough of Wrexham.

BYE-LAWS OF THE WREXHAM SCHOOL BOARD.

At an adjourned meeting of the School Board of the said borough, held in the Council Chamber, Guildhall, Brynnyffynnon, of and in the said borough, on Wednesday, the 15th day of November, 1871, at which meeting a quorum of the members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the 74th section of the Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

Requiring Parents to cause Children to attend School.

1. The parent or guardian of every child not less than six years of age or more than thirteen years of age residing within the municipal boundary of Wrexham, shall, in default of reasonable excuse as hereinafter mentioned, cause such child to attend a Public Elementary School.

Defining Reasonable Excuse for Non-Attendance.

2. Any of the following shall be a reasonable excuse:—

- (a.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any other unavoidable cause.
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within two miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

Determining Time during which Children shall attend School.

3. The time during which every child shall attend school shall be the whole time for which the school is open for the instruction of children of similar age.

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal by the parent or guardian of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required:—

- a. To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent or guardian belongs.
- b. To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart as a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving.
- c. To attend school on any day fixed for the examination of the scholars therein in religious subjects.

Provided also that any requirement herein contained shall not be held or construed to apply to any child employed in labour and receiving instruction in conformity with the provisions of the Factory Acts, or of the Workshops Regulation Act, 1867.

Proviso for Total or Partial Exemption from Attendance if Child has reached certain Standards.

4. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fifth standard of education set out in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department, such child shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school; and any child who has been so certified to have reached the third standard of education set out in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than ten hours in any one week.

Visiting Officer to be appointed.

5. The School Board shall appoint a Visiting Officer to enforce the observance of these Bye-laws.

Requiring Notice to Parent or Guardian to cause Child to attend School.

6. The duty of such Officer shall be to visit the parent or guardian of any child who may absent himself or herself from school, and to report the results of such visits to the Board; and he shall, by the authority of the Board, serve on the parent or guardian of any such child a notice in the form or to the effect prescribed in the Schedule to these Bye-laws; and the Officer shall, unless the parent or guardian object, read over and explain to such parent or guardian the notice, and the consequence of neglecting to comply therewith.

Requiring Particulars of Notices to be recorded.

7. The particulars of such notice served upon parents or guardians shall be recorded by the officer serving the same in a book to be provided by the Board, which shall be laid before the Board at each ordinary meeting.

Prohibiting Officers from Disclosing Information.

8. An officer shall not disclose the fact of service of any such notice, or any information relating thereto, to any person not a member or officer of the Board, or a manager or principal teacher of a school.

Providing that no Proceedings be taken till after the third Saturday after Service.

9. No proceedings shall be taken against any parent or guardian for breach of these Bye-laws until after the third Saturday which shall happen after the service of such notice, nor until the parent or guardian has had an opportunity of attending the Board or a Committee thereof.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

10. Any person committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, provided that no penalty shall exceed such amount as, with the costs, will amount to five shillings for each offence.

Date at which Bye-laws shall come into Operation.

11. These Bye-laws shall take effect upon and after the fifteenth day from the date on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty's Order in Council.

which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age, provided—

1. That nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal by the parent of any child from any religious observance, or instruction, or inspection in religious subjects.
2. That no child shall be required to attend school (a) at any time or in any manner contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour; (b) or on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

Notices to be given to Parents requiring them to send Children to School.—Officers to explain Notice.

4. An officer may visit the parent of any child who, according to his information and belief, is not attending school or under efficient instruction, and may then, or at a subsequent time, serve upon such parent a notice in the form or to the effect prescribed in the Schedule to these Bye-laws, such notice to remain in force during the whole time such child is liable, under these Bye-laws, to attend school; and, unless the parent object, the officer shall read over and explain such notice, and the consequences of neglecting to comply therewith, to the parent at the time of service.

Providing that no Proceeding be taken until after Fourteen Days from Service.

5. No proceeding in the first instance against a parent for any breach of these Bye-laws, shall be taken until after the expiration of fourteen days from the service of the notice prescribed by Bye-law No. 4, nor until such parent has had an opportunity of attending a meeting of the Board, or of a Committee thereof, or of the managers of a school, to state his or her reasons for not complying with the said notice.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

6. Any parent who, after the expiration of the period mentioned in Bye-law No. 5, shall, without some reasonable excuse, neglect to cause any child to attend a school as required by Bye-law No. 2, or who shall neglect to cause any child to attend a school during the time required by Bye-law No. 3, shall, for every such offence, be subject to a penalty, including costs, not exceeding five shillings.

7. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Wombwell, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws bearing date the seventh of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, numbered 103.

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Edmund Harrison.

Bye-Laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CIII.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

School District of Wombwell.

BYE-LAWS.

THE School Board of the township of Wombwell, in pursuance of the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, do make the following Bye-laws, for the purposes therein mentioned:—

Interpretation of Terms.

(1). The term "Education Department" means "The Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education."

(2). The term "Her Majesty's Inspectors," means "The Inspectors of Schools appointed by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Education Department."

(3). The term "School Board," or "Board," means "The School Board of the District comprising the township of Wombwell."

(4). The term "School," or "Public Elementary School," means a Public Elementary School as defined by the said Act.

(5). The term "Managers" includes all persons who have the management of any Public Elementary School.

(6). The term "Officer" means an officer appointed by the Board, pursuant to the 36th section of the said Act.

(7). The term "Parent" shall include the guardian, and every person having the actual custody of or liable to maintain any child; and such other terms as are defined by the 3rd section of the Education Act, 1870, shall have the meanings which are attached to them in the said Act.

(8.) Any terms importing the word "Males" in these Bye-laws include Females.

Requiring Parents to cause Children to Attend School.

1. The parent of every child not less than five nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the Wombwell School District, shall cause such child, unless there is some reasonable excuse, to attend School.

Determining Time during which such Children shall attend School.

2. The time during which every child shall attend school, shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, and that no child shall be required—

- (a.) To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.
- (b.) To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or on Saturday after twelve o'clock at noon.
- (c.) To attend school on any day fixed for the examination of the scholars therein, in respect of religious subjects.

Provided also that no requirement herein contained shall apply to any child employed in labour, and who is receiving instruction in conformity with the provisions of the Factory Acts, the Workshops Regulation Act, 1867, and the Mines Inspection Act.

Exemption from Attendance if the Child has reached a certain Standard.

3. If one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fifth standard of education mentioned in the revised Code of February, 1871, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school; and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than fifteen hours in any one week.

Reasonable Excuses for Non-attendance.

4. Any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse for a child not being required to attend School, viz :—

- (a). That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b). That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
- (c). That there is no Public Elementary School open which such child can attend within one mile, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

Remission of School Fees in case of Poverty.

5. Whenever the parent of any child shall satisfy the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the whole or some part of the school fees of such child, the School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board, will remit the whole or such part of the fees as in the opinion of the Board the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period not exceeding six calendar months: Provided that such fees shall not in any case exceed the following scale; viz :—

SCALE OF FEES.

Boys' Schools	4d. per week.
Girls' and all mixed Schools	3d. per week.
Infants' Schools and all children under six years of age	2d. per week.

Notice to be served upon Parent.

6. The Board may cause the parent of any child not attending school or under efficient instruction to be served with a notice to the effect prescribed in the schedule to these Bye-laws.

Requiring Particulars of Notices to be recorded.

7. The particulars of every notice served upon parents shall be recorded by the officer serving the same, in a book to be provided by the Board, which shall be laid before the Board at each ordinary meeting.

Providing that no Proceeding be taken until after Fourteen Days from Service.

8. No proceeding shall be taken against any parent for breach of these Bye-laws, until after the expiration of fourteen days from the service of the notice referred to in Bye-law No. 6, nor until such parent has had an opportunity of attending a meeting of the Board, or of a committee thereof, to state his or her reasons for not complying with the said notice, and the Board has declined to withdraw such notice.

Penalties for breach of Bye-laws.

9. Every parent who shall commit a breach of these Bye-laws, or any or either of them, shall upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings, including costs, for each offence.

Provision to alter Bye-laws.

10. The Board may from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, and in pursuance of the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, add to, revoke, or alter any of the foregoing or any other Bye-laws that may be hereafter made.

Date on which Bye-laws come into operation.

11. These Bye-laws will come into force immediately after they have been sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council.

Witness the Common Seal of the School Board of the District of Wombwell, this 7th day of November, A.D. 1871.

The term "Officer" means an officer appointed by the Board, pursuant to the 36th section of the said Act.

The term "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain or has the actual custody of any child, but does not include the mother of a child when the father is living, and is residing within the district.

2. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the district of the said parish, shall cause such child to attend school within the said parish, unless there be some reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

3. The time during which every child shall attend school shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of a similar age, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal by the parent of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required—

(a.) To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

- (b.) To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or on Saturday, after twelve o'clock at noon.
- (c.) To attend school during any time fixed for the examination of the scholars therein in religious subjects, if the child has been withdrawn by his or her parent from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects in such school.

Provided also, that any requirement herein contained shall not be held or construed to apply to any child employed in labour, and receiving instruction in conformity with the provisions of the Factory Acts, or of the Workshop Regulation Act, 1867.

4. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child, between ten and thirteen years of age, has reached the fifth standard of education, mentioned in the Revised Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 7th day of February, 1871, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any such child who has been certified to have reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than fifteen hours in any one week.

5. A child shall not be required to attend school—

- (a.) If such child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (b.) If such child has been prevented from attending school by sickness, or any unavoidable cause.
- (c.) If there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road, from the residence of such child.

6. If the parent of any child attending any school, which is not a free school, satisfies the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the whole or some part of the school fees of such child, the School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board will remit, and in the case of any other school will pay, the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months, provided that the amount of fees to be remitted or paid shall not exceed, in any case, sixpence per child per week.

7. An officer may visit the parent of any child, who, according to his information and belief, is not attending school, nor under efficient instruction, and may then, or at a subsequent time, serve upon such parent a notice in the form or to the effect prescribed in the Schedule to these Bye-laws; and, unless the parent object, the officer shall read over and explain such notice, and the consequences of neglecting to comply therewith, to the parent at the time of service.

8. The particulars of each notice served upon parents shall be recorded by the officer serving the same in a book, to be provided by the Board, which shall be laid before the Board at each ordinary meeting.

9. An officer shall not disclose the fact of service of any such notice, or any information relating thereto, to any person not a member or officer of the Board, or a manager or a principal teacher of a school.

10. No proceeding against any parent for breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be taken until after the expiration of fourteen days from the service of the notice prescribed by Bye-law

No. 7, nor until such parent has had an opportunity of attending a meeting of the Board, or of a Committee thereof, or of the managers of a school, to state his or her reasons for not complying with the said notice.

11. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, provided that all breaches of these Bye-laws by a parent, in one and the same week, shall be deemed one offence, and that no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such a sum, as with the costs, will amount to five shillings for each offence.

12. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Order in Council.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Hope, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the thirteenth of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, numbered 105.

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Edmund Harrison.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CV.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
ACT, 1870.

Parish of Hope.

BYE-LAWS OF THE HOPE SCHOOL BOARD.

Recital of 74th Section of Education Act, authorising School Boards to make Bye-laws as to Attendance at School.

WHEREAS, by the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, it is enacted that every School Board may, from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, make Bye-laws for all or any of the following purposes:—

1. Requiring the parents of children of such age, not less than five years nor more than thirteen years, as may be fixed by the Bye-laws, to cause such children (unless there is some reasonable excuse) to attend school.
2. Determining the time during which children are so to attend school, provided that no such Bye-law shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.
3. Providing for the remission or payment of the whole or any part of the fees of any child where the parent satisfies the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the same.
4. Imposing penalties for the breach of any Bye-laws.
5. Revoking or altering any Bye-laws previously made.

Provided that any Bye-law under this section requiring a child between ten and thirteen years of age to attend school, shall provide for the total or partial exemption of such child from the obligation to attend school if one of Her Majesty's Inspectors certifies that such child has reached a standard of education specified in such Bye-law.

Reasonable Excuses for Non-attendance.

And by the said 74th section it is further enacted, that any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, namely:—

1. That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
2. That the child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.
3. That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend, within such distance, not exceeding three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child, as the Bye-laws may prescribe.

Penalties for Breach of Bye-laws.

And by the said 74th section it is further enacted, that any proceeding to enforce any Bye-law may be taken, and any penalty for the breach of any Bye-law may be recovered in a summary manner; but no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such amount as, with the costs, will amount to five shillings for each offence, and such Bye-laws shall not come into operation until they have been sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council.

Recital of Section 17, providing for Payment of School Fees to School Board, and for Remission of Fees in case of Poverty.

And whereas, by the 17th section of the said Act, it is enacted, that every child attending a school provided by any School Board, shall pay such weekly fee as may be prescribed by the School Board, with the consent of the Education Department; but the School Board may, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, remit the whole or any part of such fee in the case of any child when they are of opinion that the parent of such child is unable from poverty to pay the same, but such remission shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

Recital of Section 25, authorising School Board to pay School Fees in case of Poverty.

And whereas, by the 25th section of the said Act, it is enacted, that the School Board may, if they think fit, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, pay the whole or any part of the school fees payable at any Public Elementary School by any child resident in their district, whose parent is, in their opinion, unable from poverty to pay the same; but no such payment shall be made or refused on condition of the child attending any Public Elementary School other than such as may be selected by the parent; and such payment shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

Recital of Section 26, authorising the Establishment of Free Schools in special cases.

And whereas, by the 26th section of the said Act, it is enacted, that if a School Board satisfy the Education Department that, on the ground of the poverty of the inhabitants of any place in their district, it is expedient for the interests of education to provide a school at which no fees shall be required from the scholars, the Board may, subject to such rules and conditions as the Education Department may prescribe, provide such school, and may admit scholars to such school without requiring any fee.

Recital of Section 36, authorising School Board to appoint Officers to enforce Attendance at School.

And whereas, by the 36th section of the said Act, it is enacted, that every School Board may, if they think fit, appoint an officer or officers to enforce any Bye-laws under this Act with reference to the attendance of children at school, and to bring children who are liable under the Industrial Schools Act, 1866, to be sent to a certified Industrial School, before two Justices, in order to their being so sent, and any expenses incurred under this section may be paid out of the school fund.

Recital of Election of School Board.

And whereas, in pursuance of a requisition sent by the Education Department to the Clerk of the Union of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, a School Board for the parish of Hope was duly elected on the 22nd day of March, 1871.

Now, at a meeting of the School Board of the said parish of Hope, held at the Ffrwd Iron-works Offices, in the county of Denbigh, on Monday, 12th day of June, 1871, at which meeting a quorum of the members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid powers, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws :—

Interpretation Terms.

1. The term "Education Department" means the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education.

The term "Her Majesty's Inspectors" means the Inspectors of Schools appointed by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Education Department.

The term "Parish of Hope, or Parish," means "The Parish of Hope."

The term "School Board," or "Board," means the School Board of the district comprising the parish of Hope.

The term "School," or "Public Elementary School," means a Public Elementary School as defined by the said Act, and includes a free school but not an Industrial School.

The term "School Managers" means a body of Managers appointed by the Board, pursuant to the 15th section of the said Act.

The term "Officer" means an officer appointed by the Board, pursuant to the 36th section of the said Act.

The term "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain or has the actual custody of any child, but does not include the mother of a child when the father is living, and is residing within the parish.

Requiring Parents to cause Children to attend School.

2. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the district of the said parish, shall cause such child to attend school within the said parish.

Determining Time during which Children shall attend School. See Sec. 7, Sub. Sec. 2.

3. The time during which every child shall attend school, shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal by the parent of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required—

- a. To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.
- b. To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or on Saturday after twelve o'clock at noon.

Sec. 76.

- c. To attend school on any day fixed for the inspection of the school, and the examination of the scholars therein, in respect of religious subjects, if the child has been withdrawn by his or her parent from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects in such school.

Provided also, that any requirement herein contained shall not be held or construed to apply to any child employed in labour, and receiving instruction in conformity with the provisions of the Factory Acts, or of the Workshop Regulation Act, 1867.

Proviso for Total or Partial Exemption from Attendance if Child has reached a certain Standard.

4. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fifth standard of education mentioned in the Revised Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 7th day of February, 1871, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school, and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than fifteen hours in any one week.

Defining Reasonable Excuse for Non-attendance.

5. A child shall not be required to attend school :—

- a. If such child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- b. If such child has been prevented from attending school by sickness, or any unavoidable cause.
- c. If there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

Providing for Remission of Payment of School Fees in case of Poverty.

6. If the parent of any child satisfies the School Board that the reason that his or her child does not attend school, is that he or she is unable from poverty to pay the school fees of such child, the School Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board, will remit the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding three calendar months, provided that the amount of fees to be remitted or paid shall not exceed either the ordinary payment at the school selected by the parent or the following scale :—

For any child under eight years of age, 2d. per week.

For any child exceeding eight years of age and under ten, 3d. per week.

For any child exceeding ten years of age, 4d. per week.

Requiring Notice to Parent to cause Child to attend School.

7. An officer may visit the parent of any child who, according to his information and belief, is not attending school, or under efficient instruction, and may then, or at a subsequent time, serve upon such parent a notice in the form or to the effect prescribed in the Schedule to these Bye-laws; and unless the parent object, the officer shall read over and explain such notice, and the consequences of neglecting to comply therewith, to the parent at the time of service.

Requiring Particulars of Notice to be Recorded.

8. The particulars of each notice served upon parents shall be recorded by the officer serving the same, in a book to be provided by the Board, which shall be laid before the Board at each ordinary meeting.

Prohibiting Officers from disclosing Information.

9. An officer shall not disclose the fact of service of any such notice, or any information relating thereto, to any person not a member or officer of the Board, or a manager or principal teacher of a school.

Providing that no Proceeding be taken until after Fourteen Days from Service.

10. No proceeding against any parent for breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be taken until after the expiration of fourteen days from the service of the notice prescribed by Bye-law No. 7, nor until such parent has had an opportunity of attending a meeting of the Board, or of a committee thereof, or of the managers of a school, to state his or her reasons for not complying with the said notice.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

11. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, provided that all breaches of these Bye-laws by a parent in one and the same week shall be deemed one offence, and that no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such a sum as, with the costs, will amount to five shillings for each offence.

Date on which Bye-laws shall come into Operation.

12. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Order in Council.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Bedhampton, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the fourteenth of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, numbered 106.

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Edmund Harrison.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CVI.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION
ACT, 1870.

Parish of Bedhampton.

BYE-LAWS OF THE BEDHAMPTON SCHOOL BOARD.

WHEREAS, by the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, it is enacted that every School Board may, from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, make Bye-laws for all or any of the following purposes:—

1. Requiring the parents of children of such age, not less than five years, nor more than thirteen years, as may be fixed by the Bye-laws, to cause such children (unless there is some reasonable excuse) to attend school.
2. Determining the time during which the children are so to attend school, provided that no such Bye-law shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

3. Providing for the remission or payment of the whole or any part of the fees of any child, where the parent satisfies the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the same.
4. Imposing penalties for the breach of any Bye-laws.

And whereas, in pursuance of a requisition sent by the Education Department to the Clerk to the Guardians of the Havant Union, in the county of Southampton, a School Board for the district of the parish of Bedhampton, in the said county, was duly elected on the 15th day of August, 1871.

Now, at a meeting of the School Board of the said parish of Bedhampton, held at the School Board Office at Bedhampton, in the said parish of Bedhampton, on Thursday, the 14th day of December, 1871, at which meeting all the members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the aforesaid powers, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, and reserving their powers from time to time to alter and amend the same, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

1. The term "Education Department" means "The Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education."

The term "Her Majesty's Inspectors" means "The Inspectors of Schools appointed by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Education Department."

The term "School Board," or "Board," means "The School Board for the parish of Bedhampton."

The term "School," or "Public Elementary School," means a Public Elementary School as defined by the Act.

The term "Officer," means an officer appointed by the Board, pursuant to the 36th section of the said Act.

The term "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child, but does not include the mother of a child when the father is living and is residing within the said parish.

2. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and of these Bye-laws, the parent of every child not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the said parish, shall cause such child to attend school.

3. The time during which such child shall attend School shall be the whole time for which the School shall be open for the instruction of children of similar age on the days respectively hereinafter specified, viz:—

(a.) For boys more than five years old and less than ten, all the days on which the school is open.

(b.) For boys more than ten years old and less than thirteen (1) between the 1st day of January and the 31st day of March, in each year, not less than thirty-five days; (2) between the 1st day of April and the 30th day of September, in each year, not less than thirty days; and (3) between the 1st day of October and the 31st day of December, in each year, not less than thirty-five days.

(c.) For girls more than five years old and less than thirteen, all the days on which the school is open.

(d.) For all children more than five and less than thirteen years old the day of the annual inspection of the school.

Provided that in the case of boys more than ten years old and less than thirteen, if any such boy shall fail to attend school on the number of days so required in any such period of six or three months respectively, at the expiration of such period notice in writing shall be given by direction of the Board to the parent of such boy, stating the number of required days on which he has failed to attend, and further stating that he must attend school during the whole time for which the school is open on every day on which it is open, until such deficient number of attendances has been made up, and every parent whose child has failed to attend on any such day as last above-mentioned shall be held to have committed a breach of these Bye-laws, and in reckoning the said number of thirty-five and thirty days respectively no attendance of any such boy shall be taken into account until the required number of attendances for the next preceding period of three or of six months respectively shall have been completed unless the Board shall otherwise order.

Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal by the parent of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required—

(a.) To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

(b.) To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fasting or Thanksgiving, or on Saturday, after twelve o'clock at noon.

(c.) To attend school on any day fixed for the inspection of the school, and the examination of the scholars therein in respect of religious subjects, if the child has been withdrawn by his or her parent from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects in such school.

4. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors shall certify that any child between the ages of ten and thirteen has reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the Revised Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 7th day of February, 1871, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school.

5. A child shall not be required to attend school under the circumstances following, viz:—

(a.) If such child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.

(b.) If such child has been prevented from attending school by sickness or any unavoidable cause.

(c.) If there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

6. If any parent who has been served with a notice under these Bye-laws requiring him or her to cause his or her child to attend school, satisfies the School Board that he or she is unable from poverty to pay the school fees of such child, the School Board will remit the whole or such part of the fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months.

7. Any officer or member of the Board may visit the parents of any child who, according to his information and belief, is not attending school, or under efficient instruction; and may then, or at a subsequent time, serve upon such parent a notice in one of the forms prescribed in the Schedule to these Bye-laws, or to the same effect; and shall read over and explain such notice, and the consequences of neglecting to comply therewith, to the parent at the time of service.

8. The particulars of each notice served upon parents shall be recorded by the person serving the same in a book to be provided by the Board, which shall be laid before the Board at each ordinary meeting; provided that the notices contained in the Forms 1, 2, and 3 in the Schedule to these Bye-laws shall be held to have been duly served if delivered at, or sent by post to, the residence of any parent.

9. An officer shall not disclose the fact of service of any notice, or any information relating thereto, to any person not a member or officer of the Board, or a manager or principal teacher of a school.

10. No proceedings against any parent for breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be taken until such parent has had an opportunity of attending a meeting of the Board, or of a Committee thereof, to state his or her reasons for not complying with the said notice.

11. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, provided that all breaches of any Bye-laws by a parent in one and the same week, shall be deemed one offence, and that no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-laws shall exceed such a sum as with the costs will amount to five shillings for each offence.

12. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Order in Council.

Board of Trade (Marine Department),
Whitehall, May 11, 1872.

THE Board of Trade have received, through Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, the subjoined extract from the French Official Journal, containing a notice respecting the new stamps on bills of lading.

Direction Générale de l'Enregistrement, des Domaines et du Timbre.

AVIS.

Les dispositions de la Loi du 30 Mars, 1872 (Journal Officiel du 4 Avril), relatives au timbre des connaissances, sont exécutoires à partir du 1er Mai prochain.

Aux termes de l'Article 7 de cette Loi, les formules pour connaissances, que la Loi du 11 Juin, 1842, ne permettait de timbrer à l'extraordinaire qu'à Paris, peuvent recevoir actuellement cette formalité au chef-lieu de chaque département.

Les commerçants qui désireraient faire timbrer à l'avance des formules, dans les conditions prévues par la nouvelle Loi, peuvent les présenter, dès à présent, au bureau du timbre du chef-lieu de leur département. Ils sont autorisés également à déposer ces formules, avec le montant des droits exigibles, au bureau de l'enregistrement de leur domicile, d'où ils les feront retirer dans le délai qui leur aura été fixé par le receveur.

Le commerce pourra, sous peu de jours, s'approvisionner, dans les bureaux de l'enregistrement, des timbres mobiles à 0 f. 50 et à 1 f. en principal, créés pour l'exécution des Articles 4 et 5 de la Loi du 30 Mars.

Des timbres à 2 f. seront ultérieurement mis à sa disposition.

(M. 5203.)

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Proctor Bird, of No. 10, Great James-street, Bedford-row, Gentleman, to be a London Commissioner to administer oaths in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, February 29, 1872.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Charles John Blagg, of Cheadle, in the county of Stafford, Gentleman, to be a Commissioner to administer oaths in the High Court of Chancery in England.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

HACHESTON FAIR, SUFFOLK.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, a representation has been duly made to me by Frederick Corrance, Esq., and the Reverend Charles Thomas Corrance, both of the parish of Hacheston, in the county of Suffolk, as owners of the hereinafter-mentioned Fair, that a Fair has been annually held on the 12th and 13th days of November, in the said parish, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 10th day of June, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, May 10, 1872.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette," and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicants' inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—Dated this 31st day of March, 1872.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,

J. C. W. VIVIAN.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

TOLLESBURY FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows :

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Witham, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the last Thursday and Friday, in the month of June, in the parish of Tollesbury, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 13th day of June, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, May 13, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

BACTON FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows :

1. By Memorial, dated the 9th day of April, 1872, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of Tunstead and Happing, in the county of Norfolk, that a Fair has been annually held on the first Monday in the month of August, in the parish of Bacton, in the said Division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 13th day of June, 1872, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, May 13, 1872.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

STAMBOURNE FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Division of North Hincford, in the county of Essex, that a Fair has been annually held on the 23rd and 24th days of June, in the parish of Stambourne, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof:

Now therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 23rd and 24th days of June, in the parish of Stambourne, in the Petty Sessional Division of Hincford, in the county of Essex, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 13th day of May, 1872.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, May 9, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the slave bounty and proceeds for a slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 12th January, 1871, by Her Majesty's ship "Nymph."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said bounty are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.
