

nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, and by his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Christ Church Dunston, being : -

“All that part of the parish of Whickham, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the county of Northumberland, or, in other words, by the river Tyne; on the east, partly by the district of Saint Paul, Low Team, and partly by the new parish of Saint Cuthbert, Gateshead, commonly called Saint Cuthbert, Bensham, Gateshead, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, or in other words, by the river Team, on the south, by the parish or parochial chapelry of Lamesley, in the same county and diocese, or in other words, by the Black Burn; and on all other sides, that is to say on the south-west and on the west, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Lamesley from the parish of Whickham aforesaid, at a point in the middle of Watergate-bridge, which carries the Gateshead and Wolsingham Turnpike-road, over the Black Burn aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of fifty-two chains or thereabouts, first eastward and then north-eastward, along the middle of the said turnpike-road, to its junction at the farm house, called or known as Lobley Hill, with the Gateshead and Hexham Turnpike-road; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of fifty-three chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named turnpike-road, to its junction with the road called or known as Dunston Bank; and extending thence, first north-eastward, and then northward, along the middle of the last-named road, to its junction with the Gateshead and Swalwell Turnpike-road; and extending thence, generally westward, for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named turnpike-road, to the point where it crosses the watercourse issuing from Duck Pool-lane, and in some part called or known as the High Gut; and extending thence, first northward, then westward, and then again northward, along the middle of the said watercourse, thereby crossing the line of the Redheugh Branch of the Newcastle and Carlisle Railway, to the junction of the same watercourse with the river Tyne aforesaid, and continuing thence still northward, and in a direct line to the boundary in the middle of the same river which divides the said county of Durham, from the county of Northumberland aforesaid.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly-mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron, and to the incumbent of the cure out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of May, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road, sometime part of the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular portion of the said new parish of Saint James, Curtain-road, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such portion not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein-mentioned Acts, and we have, in respect of such hereditaments and premises, agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act, to the minister of the district herein-
