*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 30, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Saturday, the 22nd of June next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 48.)—TASMANIA—WEST COAST.

Sunken Rock off Cape Grim and West Point.

INFORMATION has been received through the Colonial Government at Melbourne, that the Master of the Schooner Hally Bayley has reported the existence of a sunken rock having about 3 fathoms water on it, about 13 miles off the west coast of Tasmania, between Cape Grim and West Point, on the following bearings, Cape Grim N.E.

$\frac{1}{2}$ E. 15 miles, and West Point S.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. 14 miles. These bearings place the rock in lat. $40^{\circ} 48' 30''$ S., long. $144^{\circ} 23'$ E. In bad weather the sea breaks heavily over the rock.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA—SPENCER GULF.

Shoal Patch in Wallaroo Bay.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 6, dated 18th January, 1872, on the existence of a shoal patch lying about a mile to the southward of Riley Shoal Buoy, in Wallaroo Bay:—

The Colonial Government of South Australia has given notice, that a red perch buoy has been placed on the patch in 16 feet at low water, with the following bearings:—Extreme of Riley Point N.E. by N. (northerly), the Smelting Chimney at Wallaroo S.E. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E.

NOTE.—Vessels beating up to the anchorage with S.E. winds, are recommended not to bring the jetty to bear to the southward of E.S.E. until Point Riley is brought to the northward of N.N.E. [All bearings are magnetic. Variation, Cape Grim 9° , Wallaroo Bay 5° , Easterly in 1872.]

(No. 50.)—MEDITERRANEAN—ADRIATIC.

Alteration in Lights at Ancona.

THE Italian Government has given notice, that from the 1st June, 1872, the following alterations will be made in the lights at Ancona:—

The green light at the extremity of the northern mole will be replaced by a red light.

The white light at the extremity of the southern mole will be replaced by a green light.

The red light on the battery of the northern mole (which is only exhibited when it is not possible to light the one at the extremity of the mole) will be changed to a white light.

Time Ball at Pola.

The Austrian Government has given notice, that mean time at noon for the meridian of the Observatory at Pola, will be signalled daily, from the S.W. bastion of the Harbour Castle, by the dropping of a time ball at the instant of mean noon.

If one or more vessels should desire to know the mean noon time of Greenwich ($0^h 56^m 23.5^s$ after mean noon of Pola), it should be communicated in time to the Hydrographic Department, and it will then be signalled in the same manner as the mean noon time of Pola.

If the ball does not drop at the correct time it will be again hoisted half way up 5 minutes after, and after an interval of 15 minutes slowly lowered.

Should anything occur to prevent the use of the apparatus, the time of mean noon will be signalled from the Hydrographic Department, as formerly, by lowering a blue flag at the exact time.

The longitude of the Observatory at Pola in time is $0^h 56^m 23.5^s$ East of Greenwich.

By command of their Lordships,

Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

This notice affects the Admiralty Chart of Ancona, No. 1880.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 51.)—NEW ZEALAND—MIDDLE ISLAND—EAST COAST.

Sunden Rock, Waikouaiti Bay.

INFORMATION has been received of the existence of a sunken rock near Waikouaiti Bay, northward of Otago Harbour, on the east coast of the Middle Island, on which the Steam Ship Ahuriri lately struck.

The rock, Ahuriri Rock, lies about three-quarters of a mile from the shore, and has 5 feet water on it at low-water, with from 2 to 4 fathoms immediately around. From the rock Remarkable Cliff, near Tairoa Head, bears S. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E., Vulcan Point N. by E., and Harris Bluff S.S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. These bearings place the rock in lat. $45^{\circ} 36' 50''$ S., long. $170^{\circ} 45' 40''$ E., and two miles northward from Jones Head, Waikouaiti Bay.

Vessels are cautioned not to make free with this part of the coast, which has not been examined near the shore, and is considered foul.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, June 10, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty awarded for a slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 22nd March, 1871, by Her Majesty's ship "Columbine."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said bounty, &c., are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisement in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, June 10, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given, to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the tonnage bounty and proceeds for a slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 11th February, 1869, by Her Majesty's ship "Peterel," will commence on Friday, the 21st instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Personal applications by persons entitled to share, and by agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor serving in the above-named ship, are to be made at the Prize Branch of the Admiralty, Somerset House.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W.," (enclosing his certificate of service, or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of commissioned officers,)—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Preston Candover, with the chapelry of Nutley annexed, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Preston Candover, with the chapelry of Nutley annexed.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Christ Church, Herne Bay, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us, to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the second day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, comprising one thousand seven hundred and sixty-seven square yards, or thereabouts; situate in the parish of Christ Church, Herne Bay, in the county of Kent, bounded on the north by the road heretofore called the "Terrace," but now known as the "Marine Parade," on the south by Charles-street, and on the east and west by property belonging to William Randell and George Evans, which said piece or parcel of land is delineated and coloured green upon the plan hereunto annexed.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of the Venerable Bede, Monkwearmouth, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Heskett in the Forest, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days, in each and every year, of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, that an Assistant Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Heskett in the Forest aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of three thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the district of Stillington, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Minister or Incumbent of the same district and to his successors, a yearly sum of one hundred pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Minister or Incumbent of the said district of Stillington, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said district, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Llandilo Graban - with - Llanstephan, in the county of Radnor, and in the diocese of Saint David's, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty-one pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund, to the vicarage of River with Guston, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of River with Guston.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of one hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Carmarthen, in the county of Carmarthen, and in the diocese of Saint David's, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Carmarthen, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of effecting certain improvements in or about the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage, according to a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Carmarthen.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

Official Notice.—Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

I, HUGH McEWAN, of Ayr, hereby give notice, that in consequence of my system of naming the ships in which I am interested, after the rivers of Scotland, it is my intention to apply to the Board of Trade under Section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect of my ship "Drydens," of North Shields, official number 53,548, of register tonnage 425, heretofore owned by Joseph Wheeler, of Queenstown, in the county of Cork, for permission to change her name to "Lugar," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of Ayr, as owned by me.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at Ayr, this 13th day of June, 1872.

Board of Trade—Session 1872.

“The Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864,” and “The Railways (Powers and Construction) Acts, 1864, Amendment Act, 1870.”

NOTICE.

Cornwall Mineral Railways.

(Application to Board of Trade; Incorporation of Company; Construction of Railways in connection with existing Railways near Newquay, Newlyn, St. Dennis, Luxullion, Par, and Fowey, in the county of Cornwall.)

It is intended to apply to the Board of Trade to grant their certificate under the provisions of “The Railways Construction Facilities Act, 1864” (hereinafter called the Act of 1864); and “The Railways (Powers and Construction) Acts, 1864, Amendment Act, 1870,” for the following, or some of the following, amongst other purposes:—

1. To incorporate a Company (herein referred to as the Company), and to enable them to make and maintain the railways hereinafter mentioned, or some or one of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, with all needful works, stations, and approaches and conveniences connected therewith respectively, all which railways and works will be in the county of Cornwall, that is to say:—

Railway No. 1.—A railway, about 4 miles 1 furlong in length, commencing in the parish of Fowey by a junction with the Lostwithiel and Fowey Railway at a point sixty yards or thereabouts from the termination of the said last-mentioned railway, and terminating by a junction with the existing tramway from Par to Bugle at a point opposite the chimney-stack of the Par Lead Smelting Works in the parish of St. Blazey;

Railway No. 2.—A railway, about 2 miles 5 furlongs in length, commencing in the parish of Luxullion, at a point 490 yards, or thereabouts, to the north of a bridge known as St. Blazey bridge, by a junction with the aforesaid tramway from Par to Bugle, and terminating in the same parish by a junction with the same tramway at a point where it crosses a parish road from Luxullion to Tregorrick, at or near a place known as Bridges;

Railway No. 3.—A railway, about 6 miles 1 furlong in length, commencing in the parish of St. Austell, by a junction with the said tramway from Par to Bugle, at or near the point of termination thereof, and terminating in the parish of St. Columb Major, by a junction with the existing tramway from Newquay to St. Dennis, at or near the point where the said tramway crosses the turnpike road from Bodmin to Mitchell, alias St. Michael;

Railway No. 4.—A railway, about 4 miles 7 furlongs in length, commencing in the parish of Newlyn by a junction with the aforesaid tramway from Newquay to East Wheal Rose Mine, about 800 yards or thereabouts from the termination thereof, and terminating in a field in the parish of Peranzuloe, at a point 160 yards or thereabouts to the southward of a mill known as Treamble Mill;

Railway No. 5.—A deviation railway, about 1 mile in length, wholly in the parish of St. Columb Major, commencing by a junction with the aforesaid tramway from Newquay to St. Dennis, about 750 yards to the north-west of the point where that tramway crosses the aforesaid turnpike-road from Bodmin to Mitchell, alias St. Michael, and terminating by a junction with the same tramway at a point about 1170 yards (measured along the centre of the tramway) to the west of the said point of commencement ;

 Railway No. 6.—A junction railway, about 4 furlongs 6 chains in length, wholly in the parish of St. Columb Minor, commencing by a junction with the existing tramway from Newquay to East Wheal Rose Mine where the said tramway crosses the parish road at Trevethick, and terminating by a junction with the aforesaid tramway from Newquay to St. Dennis, at a place called Trencreek ;

The said Railways or some of them will pass from, through, or into the parishes, townships, and extra parochial or other places following, that is to say :—Fowey, Tywardreath, St. Blazey, Luxullion, Lanlivery, St. Austell, Roche, Withiel, Newlyn, Peranzabuloe, St. Columb Major, and St. Columb Minor.

2. To authorise the Company to purchase and acquire by agreement, and to hold and dispose of lands and other property for the purposes of the said intended railways and works, or any of them, and also additional lands for the extraordinary purposes specified in "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and to enable the Company (subject to the conditions and restrictions contained in the Act of 1864) to break up, cross, alter, divert, or stop, permanently or temporarily, as the case may require, all roads, public highways, footpaths, railways, tramways, drains, sewers, pipes, navigations, streams, rivers, and water-courses, so far as may be necessary for the construction, maintenance, and use of the said intended railways and works, or any of them; to deviate from the lines of railway to any extent, within the limits of deviation shown on the deposited plans; to raise capital by shares and loan, and to levy tolls, rates, and charges in respect of the said intended railways and works.

It is intended to incorporate with the certificate in manner and with the exceptions in the Act of 1864 provided, the necessary provisions of "The Companies' Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies' Clauses Act, 1863," "The Lands' Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869," "The Railways' Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Railways' Clauses Act, 1863," and to vary the tolls, charges, and regulations contained in the Schedule to the Act of 1864, or some of them.

Duplicate plans and sections, describing the lines, situation, and levels of the said intended railways and works, and the lands, houses, and other property in or through which they will be made, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and houses, together with an ordnance map, with the line of the intended railways delineated thereon, so as to show their general course and direction, have been deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall, at his office at Bodmin, and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections, and book of reference as relates to the several parishes and places in or through which the intended railways and works are proposed to be made, or in which the lands, houses, and property proposed to be taken are situate, has been deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence, and in the case of any extra parochial place, with the clerk of some parish immediately adjoining such extra parochial place at his place of abode.

Copies of the said maps, plans, sections, and book of reference have also been deposited at the Board of Trade.

North Staffordshire Railway Company.

(Application to Board of Trade for Certificate to raise Additional Capital).

NOTICE is hereby given, that, pursuant to the provisions of the Railway Companies Act, 1864, application will be made by the North Staffordshire Railway Company (herein called the Company) to the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, herein called the Board of Trade, to make and issue a certificate, pursuant to the terms of the aforesaid Act, with the following powers and provisions, or some of them (that is to say):

To authorize the Company to raise further or additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock in the capital of the Company, either ordinary or preference, or partly in that mode and partly by borrowing on mortgage, at the option of the Company, or as may be prescribed in the certificate, with power to create and issue debenture stock, with and under such provisions as the said certificate may prescribe.

And, so far as may be necessary, to alter and amend the several Acts relating to the North Staffordshire Railway Company, and to vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with the raising of such additional capital.

And notice is hereby further given, that copies of the draft of the certificate, as proposed by the Company, will be furnished to all persons applying for the same, at the price of sixpence each, on application at the office of Messrs. Burchell, No. 5, Broad Sanctuary, Westminster.

And notice is hereby further given, that all persons desirous of making to the Board of Trade any representation, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the said application, may do so by letter addressed to the Secretary of the Board of Trade, on or before the 1st day of August next.

And notice is hereby also given, that after the Board of Trade have settled the said certificate, copies thereof can be obtained at the before-mentioned office, at a charge of sixpence for each copy, or of such other sum as the Board of Trade may direct.

Dated this 13th day of June, 1872.

In Chancery.—Pennington v. Dalbinc.

Sale No. 10.

Walworth.—The important freehold property, so well known as the Royal Surrey Gardens, lately occupied by St. Thomas's Hospital, let for a term expiring at Michaelmas, 1882, at the nominal rent of £550 per annum, and the sum of £2,250 payable at Midsummer, 1878, as additional rent, and underlet at a rent of £3,000 per annum to Mr. Strange, who has lately expended a very large sum in alterations and improvements. There are extensive buildings upon the property, including a spacious theatre, containing accommodation for 5,000 people, refreshment rooms, kitchens, cellars, &c., entrance lodges, and numerous other buildings commensurate with the requirements of a popular place of public resort. The property contains about thirteen acres of land, and is particularly eligible for the investment of capital, having the prospective advantage of building value, the whole space being convertible for building in streets and terraces, which, at a moderate estimate, will produce a rent roll in ground rents of about £3,000 per annum.

CHINNOCK, GALSWORTHY, and CHINNOCK will sell by auction (by Order of the High Court of Chancery, with the approbation of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, to whose Court this cause is attached), at the Auction Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, City, on Tuesday, July 16th, 1872, at two precisely, in one lot, the above valuable freehold estate.

A Dividend is intended to be declared in the matter of David McKean, of 56, Frederick-street, Sunderland, in the county of Durham, adjudicated a bankrupt on the 14th day of July, 1871. Creditors who have not proved their debts by the 20th day of June, 1872, will be excluded.—Dated this 6th day of June, 1872.

Robert Hannah, Trustee.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

Notice of Dividend Meetings.

Meetings of the Creditors of the Bankrupts hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, before William Hazlitt, Esq., Registrar:

Jane Matilda Frith, Widow, late of 48, Oxford-street, Southampton, out of business, formerly a Vicualler, at Romsey, in the county of Hants, adjudicated bankrupt on the 23rd day of March, 1868. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 26th day of June, 1872, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

Pizzey Vincent, of No. 1, Stratford Green, Stratford, in the county of Essex; and of No. 19, Great Saint Helen's, in the city of London, Printer, adjudicated bankrupt on the 22nd day of June, 1864. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 2nd day of July, 1872, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Huddersfield, before Frederick R. Jones, jun., Esq., Registrar:

Thomas Stancliffe, of Huddersfield, in the county of York, Cab Proprietor, adjudicated bankrupt on the 19th day of December, 1866. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 26th day of June instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the County Court of Nottinghamshire, holden at the County Court-house, Peter-gate, Nottingham, before Edwin Patchitt, Esq., Registrar:

Ewen Baillie Harrold, of Loughborough, in the county of Leicester, Gentleman, adjudicated bankrupt on the 20th day of February, 1866. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 13th day of August next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely.

At the said Meetings the Assignees will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupt's estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said respective meetings will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what Dividend shall be made, and whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupts respectively. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Wardle Eastland Evans, of No. 40, Welbeck-street, Marylebone, in the county of Middlesex, Harmonium Manufacturer, a Bankrupt.

AN Order of Discharge was granted to Wardle Eastland Evans, of No. 40, Welbeck-street, in the county of Middlesex, Harmonium Manufacturer, who was adjudicated bankrupt on the 30th day of May, 1870.—8th day of June, 1872.

THE Honorable William Cecil Spring Rice, one of the Registrars of Her Majesty's London Bankruptcy Court, authorised to act under a Petition for adjudication of bankruptcy, filed on the 27th day April, 1859, against Miles Beale, of Saint Leonards Iron Works, Gray-street, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, Iron and Brass Founder and Engineer, carrying on that business there in partnership with Captain Julius Roberts, under the firm of Roberts and Co., also carrying on business as a Navy Agent, at No. 15, Surrey-street, Strand, in the same county, in partnership with Francis William Bishop, under the firm of Goode and Co., and under a Petition for adjudication of bankruptcy filed on the 3rd day of October, 1859, against Francis William Bishop, of No. 15, Surrey-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Navy Agent, trading under the style or firm of Goode and Co, which two Petitions, and the proceedings thereunder, have since been amalgamated, will sit on the 11th day of July, 1872, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to make a dividend of the joint estate and effects of the said bankrupts, when and where the creditors who have not already proved their debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend, and all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy was awarded and issued forth on the 21st day of August, 1846, against Joseph Harvey, of King William-street, in the city of London, Lamp Manufacturer, under which said fiat he was duly adjudicated bankrupt, this is to give notice, that a sitting of the Court will be held on the 11th day of July, 1872, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, London, before the Honourable William Cecil Spring Rice, one of Her Majesty's Registrars of the said Court, in order to make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, when and where the creditors, who have not already proved their debts, are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend, and all claims not then proved will be disallowed.
