

Cádiz, Sept. 13. The 5th Instant sailed out of this Bay 4 Spanish Men of War and a Fireship, under the Orders of Don Matheo Olaya, to meet the New-Spain Fleet that's expected home. The same day arrived here the Vice-Admiral Papachin with 2 Men of War from Gibraltar; And so soon as they have taken in the Provisions they want, will sail again to joyn with Don Matheo, who Commands in Chief.

Vienna, September 23. The 18th Instant arrived here the Marquis de la Puebla, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Spain, to Complement the Emperor on the Subject of the King of Hungary's Coronation; And the next day he had Audience of his Imperial Majesty with the accustomed Ceremonies. Their Electoral Highnesses of Bavaria will part from hence the beginning of the next Week for Munick. We have Advice from Bosnia, that the Turks had sent some Troops to attack Novi, situated on the River Drina, above Castanovizza, which hindered their Incurfions on that side, but that they were repulsed by the Croats in Garrison there, with considerable loss. The Letters from the Polish Camp near Caminiec, of the 29th past, tell us, that part of the Army had been engaged with the Tartars, and had put them to flight. The 21th Instant Te Deum was sung here for the late great Victory in Bosnia. The Advice of Yeghen's retreat from Nissa is confirmed.

Ratisbonne, Septemb. 27. We hear from Hungary that the Imperial Army is separated; several Regiments being sent to reinforce Prince Louis of Baden in Bosnia; and General Veterani on the Frontiers of Valachia; and the rest going to their Winter Quarters. The 20th Instant Te Deum was sung here with the Solemnity usual on the like occasions, for the taking of Belgrade, the Capital City of Serbia, considerable for its largeness, and situation on a Hill, near the Danube and Sava, which renders it very strong, and convenient for Trade. Amurat II. and Mahomet II. besieged it in the years 1442, and 1456, but unsuccessfully; Soymin II. at last took it in 1521. and it has ever since continued in the hands of the Turks, notwithstanding all the Efforts of the Christians to recover it, till now, that it has pleased God to Crown the Imperial Arms with this important Conquest.

Frankfort, Sept. 30. The French Troops under the Command of Monsieur de Monclar have invested Philipsburg; and the Marquis de Boufflers is with another Body of Men before Keyserlauter. The City of Spire having, upon the approach of the French Forces, sent Deputies to the Marschal Duras, it was agreed, that they should receive a Garrison of 2000 Men. We hear from Mentz, that they had broke down their Bridge over the Rhine.

Hamburg, Octob. 1. We are told from Berlin, that the Elector of Brandenburg had ordered three Regiments more to march towards Cleves. They write, from Copenhagen, that the Danish Fleet lay ready to sail.

Cologne, October 1. The French Minister here continues to press these Magistrates to embrace a Neutrality; but they are so far from accepting of it, that they have resolved to take in 2000 Men more of the Troops of the Circle. The General Rendezvous of the Confederate Forces is, it's said, appointed to be between this Place and Duisburg. The Bridge at Bonne is finished.

Linant, October 2. The French Troops which assembled to the number of about 10000 Men between the Sambre and the Meuse, are now on their march, under the Command of the Marschal d'Humieres, with a design to pass the Meuse at Charlemont: The Detachments that have been drawn out of the French Garrisons in Luxemburg, are marching towards the Electorate of Cologne.

Whitehall, October 3. The 30th past Count Hamilton, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector Palatin, had his Audience of Leave of their Majesties, being Conducted by Sir Charles Costrel Master of the Ceremonies.

The same day the Count de Rovers, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, had his first Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Anne, and the 1st Instant of his Royal Highness Prince George, of Denmark, Conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

This day the Sieur de Neville, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, to make the Complement of Congratulation upon the Birth of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, had his first Audience of the King, Conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, Octob. 2.

The Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs, with several other eminent Citizens of London, attending the King this evening, His Majesty was pleased to tell them, That out of His Concern for the Peace and Welfare of the City, And as a Mark of the great Confidence He had in them at this time that the Kingdom is threatned with an Invasion; He had resolved to restore to them their Ancient Charter and Priviledges, and to put them into the same Condition they were at the time of the Judgment pronounced against them upon the Quo Warranto, that so they might be the better enabled to serve him with that Duty and Loyalty which they had given the King his Brother and Himself so many Testimonies of: And upon which His Majesty does depend: And His Majesty was pleased to give express Commands to the Right Honorable the Lord Chancellor of England, and His Attorney-General, to prepare such Grant or Instrument of Restoration and Confirmation as should be requisite; and that the same be forthwith dispatched. This great Grace of His Majesty was received by the City with all Humble and Dutiful Acknowledgments, which they have expressed by Ringing of Bells and other publick Rejoycings.

Whitehall, Octob. 3. Several of the Nobility and Gentry do daily offer their Service to the King, and to raile Men. His Majesty has been pleased to give a Commission to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle to raise a Regiment of Foot; to the Lord Brandon and the Marquis de Miremont, Nephew to the Earl of Feverham, each a Regiment of Horse; to Colonel Henry Gage and Colonel Solomon Richards, Regiments of Foot; and many Independent Troops and Companies to several of the Nobility and Gentry.

The Mails from France, Holland, and Flanders, are not yet come in.

Advertisements.

Colloquia Maritima: or Sea-Dialogues. Treating, I. of the Office of Commanders in Chief. II. The Duty of Inferiour Officers and Mariners, &c. III. The Victualling of Ships. IV. A Dictionary, or Explanation of the Names of all the Parts of a Ship; Sea Phrases, or Words of Art used at Sea. V. Of the best Ships of War, and Ceremonies of Entertainment, Salutes, Hailing, and Striking. VI. The Ordering of Fleets in Sailing, Chafes, Boardings, and Sea-fights. By N. Boteler Esq; Sold by William and Richard Mount at the Postern on Tower-hill.

These are to give notice that there have been several Houses belonging to the Members of the Friendly Society burnt and damaged, and that the Rate for every Hundred Pound secured is sixpence haltpeny for Brick, and double for Timber, which is by Covenant to be paid before the 9th day of October next at the Office, under the Penalty of a Fourth part more, and if not paid in 3 Months after that, they are to lose the Benefit of their Insurance. In February next, by Permission and Order of His Majesty, the Friendly Society may proceed in Enforcing Houses as formerly. Persons concerned may presently receive their Money at the Office.

STolen out of a Gentleman's House in the Country, the 23d of September last, a large Pocket Gold Clock, made by Edward Earl, with Motions for Alarm, day of the Month, Age of the Moon, &c. There were fastened to it by a Gold Chain two Seals, one of Silver, with blessed Homers Head cut upon a red Stone, the other Gold, with a Greyhound cut on a blew Stone leaping at a Fly: Whoever gives notice to Mr. Briggs at the Fleet shall be well rewarded.

A Silver Tankard, about 3 Pints, supported with 3 Lyons at the bottom, and one on the Lid, with a Coat of Arms of Mr. William Whartons of Linn, Holen by a middle sized man, with short black hair, much Pock-broken, a Scar in his Face, left behind him a brown Nag, 14 hands high, with a mark on the near shoulder like an R. Whoever gives Notice to Mr. Benjamin Page Goldsmith in Little Moor-fields, or to Mr. Faige at the Role-Tavern in Cambridge, shall have 2 Guineas Reward.

On the 24th past a Gentleman was robbed near Basing-stoke of several Guineas, and a white Gelding, 15 hands, Wall-eye'd, about 8 or 9 years old; the person that robb'd him is a swarthy man, aged about 24: with brown short curled hair, long Visage, full of Pock-holes, full Chested, in a brown Serge close Coat and white Waistcoat. Whoever gives notice of Man or Horse to Doctor Crompton at Basing-stoke in Hampshire, or to Mr. Tho. Robinson Barber in Curstons Alley, London, shall have 3 Guineas reward.