AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of July, 1872.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :
Lord President.
Mr. Forster.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
2. This Order may be cited as The Carcases of Animals Order of 1872.
3. In this Order—
The Act of 1869 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869 :
Master includes any person having the charge or command of a vessel :
Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.
4. In addition to the powers and duties vested in and imposed on Local Authorities by section sixty of the Act of 1869, and by Articles 36 and 37 of The Animals Order of 1871, every Local Authority is hereby empowered to make, from time to time, with the view of preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious diseases among animals, regulations for the following purpose :—
For securing the burial, in accordance with the directions of Article 36 of The Animals Order of 1871, of the carcases, being within the district of the Local Authority, of animals (including horses) which have died of any contagious or infectious disease, or the destruction thereof, under inspection of the Local Authority, in the mode prescribed by Article 37 of The Animals Order of 1871.
5. If an animal (including a horse) on board a vessel in Great Britain, or within three miles of the shore thereof, dies of or is slaughtered in consequence of being affected with a contagious or infectious disease, the master of the vessel shall, with all practicable speed, cause the carcase thereof to be disinfected on board the vessel in such mode as the Privy Council from time to time direct or approve.

If he fails to do so he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.

6. If any person throws or places, or causes or suffers to be thrown or placed, into or in any river, stream, canal, or other water in Great Britain, or into or in the sea within three miles of the shore of Great Britain, the carcase of an animal (including a horse) which has died of or been slaughtered in consequence of being affected with a contagious or infectious disease, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, unless he shows to the satisfaction of the Justices before whom he is charged that he did not know that the same had so died or been slaughtered, and that he could not with reasonable diligence have obtained that knowledge.

7. It shall not be lawful for any person, except with the licence of the Privy Council, to dig up, or cause to be dug up, the carcase or any part of the carcase of any animal (including a horse) buried under a regulation of a Local Authority or under the direction of a Receiver of Wreck.

If any person acts in contravention of this Article he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.
