THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

CHALFONT SAINT PETER FAIR, BUCKS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Second Division of the hundred of Burnham, in the county of Bucks, that a Fair has been annually held on the 4th and 5th days of September, in the parish of Chalfont Saint Peter, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871."

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:
