Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 1872.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of August, 1872.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.
Mr. Forster.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as The Markets Order of 1872.

2. This Order extends to Great Britain only.

3. Words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.

4. Every Local Authority is hereby empowered to make from time to time, with the view of preventing the spreading of contagious or infectious disease among animals, regulations for the following purposes, or any of them:—

(1.) For requiring the owners, lessees, or occupiers of places used for the holding of markets, fairs, exhibitions, or sales of animals, or for the lairage of animals, to cleanse those places from time to time at their own expense:

(2.) For requiring the owners, lessees, or occupiers of those places to disinfect the same, or any specified part thereof, from time to time at their own expense, where, in the judgment of the Local Authority, the circumstances are such as to allow of such disinfection being reasonably required:

(3.) For prescribing the mode in which such cleansing and such disinfection shall be effected.

5. Notwithstanding anything in The Animals Order of 1871, Article 39 of that Order shall not apply to the cleansing and disinfecting of any such place as aforesaid.

6. If the owner, lessee, or occupier of any such place as aforesaid does any act in contravention of the regulations of a Local Authority under this Order, or fails in any respect to observe the same, it shall not be lawful for him or any other person at any time thereafter, until further Order of the Privy Council, to hold a market, fair, exhibition, or sale of animals in that place, and the holding therein of any market, fair, exhibition or sale of animals shall be and the same is hereby prohibited accordingly, and if any person holds any market, fair, exhibition, or sale of animals in contravention of this Order, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of August, 1872.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby declare that the following place is free from Cattle Plague (that is to say):—

So much of the Foreign Cattle Market at Deptford in the county of Kent as was declared by the Local Authority on the nineteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, to be an infected place.

And that as from the date of this Order the same shall cease to be an infected place within the meaning of the said Act accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

Privy Council Office, August 9, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to Her Majesty in Council from the Town Council of the Borough of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, praying that Her Majesty in Council, under the Act 22nd Vict., cap. 35, will be pleased to order a redivision of the said borough into Wards; and notice is hereby further given, that Her Majesty has been pleased, by Her Order in Council of this day's date, to order that the said petition be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on Wednesday, the eleventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
