

Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate at Hatcham Park, in the new parish of Saint James, Hatcham, which said new parish is situate partly in the county of Surrey, and partly in the county of Kent, and wholly in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate at Hatcham Park, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint James, Hatcham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints, situate at Hatcham Park as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Hatcham Park.'

"And with the like consent of the said Thomas Legh, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Hatcham Park, being:

"All that part of the new parish of Saint James, Hatcham, situate partly in the county of Surrey, and partly in the county of Kent, and wholly in the diocese of Rochester, which is bounded on the south by the parish of Lewisham, in the said county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester aforesaid, on the west, partly by the district parish of Saint Mary Magdalene, Peckham, and partly by the particular district of Christ Church, Camberwell, both in the said county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, on the north, by the new parish of Christ Church, Rotherhithe, in the last-named county and diocese, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the east, by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Rotherhithe, from the new parish of Saint James, Hatcham aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the main line of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway, a little to the south-east of the point where such line of railway ceases to run parallel to the line of the Greenwich Branch of the South Eastern Railway; and extending thence, generally southward, for a distance of two miles or thereabouts, along the middle of the first-described line of railway (thereby passing through the New Cross Railway Station), to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Hatcham, from the parish of Lewisham aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.
