Inland Revenue, London,
August 28, 1872.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, and in consideration of a benefaction of three hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint John the Baptist, Burley Ville, in the county of Southampton, and diocese of Winchester, and of certain other benefactions, consisting respectively of five acres (or thereabouts) of land and of certain rectorial and vicarial tithe commutation rent charges, all of which benefactions have been permanently secured to the said vicarage, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint John the Baptist, Burley Ville, and to his successors, Incumbents thereof, one yearly sum or stipend of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents, in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also, in further consideration of the aforesaid benefactions, hereby grant and appropriate, out of our said common fund, to the said vicarage of Saint John the Baptist, Burley Ville, one capital sum of one thousand and one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint John the Baptist, Burley Ville: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.
