THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

OWERMOIGNE FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Reverend John Robert Cree, Rector of the parish of Owermoigne, in the county of Dorset, as owner of the hereinafter mentioned Fair, that a Fair has been annually held on the 11th day of October, in the said parish, in the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 11th day of October, in the parish of Owermoigne, in the county of Dorset, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 5th day of September, 1872.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE TOWNSHIP OF ROTHWELL WITH ROTHWELL HAIGH AND ROYD'S GREEN, YORKSHIRE.

WHEREAS a resolution for the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, was passed on the 16th day of May, 1872, by the owners and ratepayers of the township of Rothwell with Rothwell Haigh and Royd's Green, in the county of York; and notice of such adoption has been given, in writing, to the Local Government Board, by the persons required to give the same.

And whereas a petition has been presented to the Local Government Board by certain owners and ratepayers of the said township, praying that the whole of the said township be excluded from the operation of the said Act.

And whereas inquiry has been directed, in pursuance of the said Act, into the matters alleged in such petition, and such inquiry has been duly held and report made thereon by John Thornhill Harrison, Esquire, the Inspector appointed for that purpose.

Now therefore we, the said Local Government Board, do hereby approve of the adoption of said Local Government Act by the township of Rothwell with Rothwell Haigh and Royd's Green, and do hereby make order that the said petition against the said adoption be dismissed.

And we give notice, that the aforesaid Local Government Act shall come into force within the said township at the expiration of fourteen days from the date of this Order.

Given under our Seal of Office this 2nd day of September, 1872.

(Signed) James Stansfeld,
President.

John Lambert, Secretary.
