Abandonment of the Kensington Station and North and South London Junction Railways (Act of 1859).

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," "The Railway Companies' Act, 1867," "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1869," and "The Kensington Station and North and South London Junction Railway Act, 1859 (Repayment of Moneys) Act, 1872."

The Liquidators appointed by the High Court of Chancery to wind up the estate of Overend, Gurney, and Company (Limited), have made application, in writing, to the Board of Trade for a warrant for the abandonment of the whole of the undertaking authorized by "The Kensington Station and the North and South London Junction Railway Act, 1859," that is to say:—

"A railway, with all necessary stations, approaches, and works connected therewith, commencing at a point in the parish of Saint Mary Abbots Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, on or adjoining to the east bank of the Kensington Canal, about two chains north of a certain bridge called Lillie Bridge, by which the Richmond-road is crossed over the said canal, thence passing from, through, in, or into the several parishes, townships, extra-parochial, or other places of Kensington, Saint Mary Abbots Kensington, Knightsbridge, Earl's Court, and Little Chelsea, or some or one of them, and terminating at a point in the said parish of Saint Mary Abbots Kensington, in the said county of Middlesex, on the west side of Love-lane, near to the junction thereof with Red Field-lane."

And notice is hereby further given, that any person who may think himself aggrieved by such proposed abandonment of the said railway, and who may desire to object thereto, may bring such objection before the Board of Trade by sending a written statement thereof by post, on or before the 11th day of February next, addressed to the Assistant-Secretary of the Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Dated this 23rd day of December, 1872.
