Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MAY 2, 1873.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 24th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 3, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Thursday, the 8th of May next, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,

Lord Chamberlain.

April 28, 1873.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 26th of May next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

(No. 37.)—NOVA SCOTIA—SOUTH-EAST COAST.

Fixed Light on Sable Island.

THE Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, that a light is now exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on the east end of Sable Island, Nova Scotia.

The light is a fixed white light, elevated 128 feet above the level of high water, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 17 miles.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric or by lenses, of the second order.

The tower is an octagonal wooden building, 86 feet high, with its sides painted alternately white and brown; it is situated one and a half miles from the end of the island, in lat. 43° 58' 30" N., long. 59° 46' W.

A steam fog-whistle has been erected 50 yards south of the lighthouse, which in thick and foggy weather and snow-storms will be sounded three times in each minute, as follows:—First, a blast of three seconds, then an interval of three seconds; then another blast and interval of the same duration and then a blast of three seconds, with an interval of forty-five seconds, thus completing the minute.

The whistle will probably be heard:—

In calm weather or with the wind, 10 to 15 miles;

In stormy weather or against the wind, 3 to 6 miles.

By command of their Lordships,
Geo. Henry Richards, Hydrographer.

A fixed red light will be exhibited from a square tower, painted in white and red bands, north of Royan, and bearing N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. from Chay Lighthouse, it will be elevated 177 feet above the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 12 miles. Position, lat. $45^{\circ} 38' N.$, long. $1^{\circ} 1' 40'' W.$

The three lights will be visible only through an arc of 10 to 12 degrees on either side of the line of direction.

Directions. Vessels entering the Gironde by the southern channel should keep the green light of St. Nicolas in line with the flashing light of Pointe de Grave, until the red lights of Chay and St. Pierre de Royan are in line, and with these lights in line proceed to the point where the floating lights of Talais and Richard are in line, and from thence the instructions for navigating the river beyond this point, may be followed.

[All bearings are magnetic. Variation $18\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Westward in 1873.]

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, April 28, 1873.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the amount due to the Officers and crew of Her Majesty's ship "Rinaldo," out of the proceeds of certain stores captured at Salangore, between the 3rd and 6th July, 1871.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisement in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Croxdale, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one capital sum of sixty-seven pounds seventeen shillings and seven pence, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said rectory (formerly a vicarage), which was effected by a deed, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of Croxdale.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-fourth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Meldon, in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, one capital sum of four hundred and eighty-eight pounds fifteen shillings and one penny, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amount payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under a subsisting mortgage of the said rectory, which was effected by a deed, bearing date the fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said rectory of Meldon.

Hull South and West Junction Railway.
(Alteration or Deviation of southern part of proposed Railway No. 1. Petition for Additional Provision.)

APPPLICATION is intended to be made to the House of Commons, by petition, for additional provision in this Bill for leave to substitute for a portion of Railway No. 1, shown upon the plans of the said railway deposited in the month of November last with the Clerks of the Peace and parish clerks, a new or deviated line commencing between the 11th and 12th mile, marked on the said plans, in a field belonging to the Earl of Yarborough, and in the occupation of Joseph Swallow, numbered 12, in the parish of Horkstow, on the east side of the land drain, thence to cross the said drain and run in a southerly direction, parallel with and immediately adjoining the west bank of the said drain until it reaches the Trent, Ancholme, and Grimsby Railway, thence diverging in a south-westerly direction to, and again uniting with, the said Railway No. 1, in a field belonging to Valentine Dudley Henry Carey Elwes, and now or late in the occupation of the executor of the late Charles Wharton, numbered 26, in the parish of Wrawby, between the 18th and 19th mile marked on the plans aforesaid. The said substituted line of railway will pass through the parishes of Horkstow, Saxby, Bonby, Worlabby, Elsham, and Wrawby, all in the parts of Lindsey, in the county of Lincolnshire.

Duplicate plans and sections describing the lines, situation, and levels of the proposed new or deviated line, and the lands, houses, and other property in or through which it will be made, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property; also an ordnance map with the line of the proposed new or deviated railway delineated thereon, so as to show its general course and direction, and a copy of this notice were deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the parts of Lindsey, in Lincolnshire, at his office at Spilsby, on or before the 30th April last; and within the same time a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, with a copy of this notice were deposited with the parish clerks, at their respective places of abode, of the several parishes of Horkstow, Saxby, Bonby, Worlabby, Elsham, and Wrawby, through which the said proposed new or deviated line of railway will be made, or in which any lands, houses, or other property are intended to be taken for the purposes thereof.

Dated this 1st day of May, 1873.

And to Alfred Russell Ecroyd, of Owlerton, near Sheffield, in the county of York, Steel Manufacturer, and John Wass, of Owlerton, near Sheffield, in the county of York, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in furnaces for steam boilers for manufacturing iron and other metals for glass works and potteries."

On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 9th day of April, 1873.

1342. To William Smith, of 27, Waterloo-road, in the county of Dublin, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of peat fuel."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 12th day of April, 1873.

1347. To Evariste Vignier, of Great Tower-street, in the city of London, Merchant, for the invention of "improvements in aerated beverages, and in the apparatus to be employed in their manufacture."

On his petition recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 14th day of April, 1873.

On their petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 15th day of April, 1873.

1366. To Benjamin Giles, of Blackheath, in the county of Kent, Gas Engineer, for the invention of "an improved cooking apparatus."

1368. To Thomas Black, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."

1370. To Alexander Melville Clark, of 53, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Patent Agent, for the invention of "improvements in the preservation of alimentary substances and in apparatus for the same."—A communication to him from abroad by the firm of Bernard Delrieu and Jean Marie Pernoud and Company, of Lyons, France.

1372. To George Johnson, of Wheatley, in the parish of Halifax, in the county of York, Cotton Spinner, and James Shaw, of Brighthouse, in the county aforesaid, Cotton Spinner, for the invention of "improvements in steam engines."
1376. To Frank Smith, of Derby, in the county of Derby, for the invention of "an improved method of, and apparatus for, working railway signal bells."
1378. To Alphonse Pierre Fleury Desmares, of Boulevard de Strasbourg, No. 23, Paris, Manufacturer, for the invention of "an improved process of, and machinery for, producing relief designs or patterns on wcolen fabrics."
1379. To Thomas Aldridge Weston, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and of Ridgewood, New Jersey, in the United States of America, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for raising, lowering, and suspending weights or heavy bodies."
1382. To William Hockley, of 26, Bloomsbury-square, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "a new or improved composition for treating, impregnating, and coating wood, so as to preserve and render it impervious to water and other fluids."
1384. And to Edward Lyon Berthon, of Romsey, in the county of Hants, Master of Arts, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus connected with collapsible boats, and also in apparatus for facilitating the lowering and detaching of the same and other boats."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 16th day of April, 1873.
1385. To Michael Wheelwright Ivison, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "an improved sleep dip, which is also applicable to animals other than sheep."
1386. To Edward Ward of Wells-street, Oxford-street, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in sewing machines."
1387. To Martin Benson, of No. 9, Southampton-buildings, London, for the invention of "improvements in constructing, arranging, and working steam pumping machinery."—A communication to him from abroad by Ezra Cope and James Riley Maxwell, of Hamilton, Ohio, United States of North America.
1388. To John Fowler and George Mackay, both of Harrogate, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in carriages and waggons with folding heads or coverings."
1389. To Leonard Jennett Todd, of Leith, in the county of Mid Lothian, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in and connected with steam tramway and other locomotives."
1390. To John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in pullies and pulley blocks."—A communication to him from abroad by the firm of Damien and Kister, of Paris, in the Republic of France.
1392. To Jonathan Hurn Faulkner, of Brixton, in the county of Surrey, and William Tatters, of 35, Patmore-street, Battersea, in the said county, for the invention of "improvements in measuring or meter taps and valves."
1393. To George Cubitt, of North Walsham, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in double furrow ploughs."
1395. To Robert Coddington, of No. 3, Bedford-place, Russell-square, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in telegraphic apparatus."—A communication to him from abroad by Merritt Gally, of Rochester, New York, United States of America.
1396. To Thomas Nicklin, Potter's Manager, of 2, Villiers-street, and James Frost, Potter's Fireman, of 2, Belgrave-road, both of Dresden, in the county of Stafford, for the invention of "improvements in ovens for firing pottery-ware, viz., china, earthenware, bricks, and such like materials."
1398. To James Theodore Griffin, of 77, Upper Thames-street, in the city of London, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus or appliances for facilitating the cutting of screw threads upon or in tubes, bolts, stems, rods, pins, and nuts."—A communication to him from abroad by Patrick Hickey, of Auburn, Cayuga, State of New York, United States of America.
1399. And to James Bateson Rickards, of the Green, Kilburn, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improved compounds or combinations of ingredients for cleansing and bleaching vegetable fibres, such as jute, hemp, flax, and cottons."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 17th day of April, 1873.
1400. To Alfred Albert Dixon, of Sheffield, in the county of York, for the invention of "an improved injector for steam boilers."
1401. To George Malcolm, Manager at the Cordale Print Works, in the county of Dumbarton, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for printing ornamental fabrics."
1402. To Richard High, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, School Furnisher, for the invention of "improvements in desks adapted for use in schools."
1404. To William Harvie, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, for the invention of "an improvement in lamps."
1405. To Edward Casper, of Finsbury-circus, in the city of London, for the invention of "an improved packing for the stuffing boxes of steam engines, pumps, and other like machinery."—A communication to him from abroad by Jules Farinaux, of Lille, France.
1406. To James Arnold, of the firm of Arnold and Sons, of 35 and 36, West Smithfield, in the city of London, Surgical Instrument Makers, for the invention of "a new or improved instrument or instruments for vaccinating."
1407. To the Reverend Granville Hamilton Forbes, of Broughton Rectory, in the county of Northampton, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of cements, artificial stone, and plaster of Paris."
1408. To Henry Sumners, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Architect, and Hugh Fraser, of Bridge Town, Nova Scotia, but at present residing in Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Master Mariner, for the invention of "an improved danger warning and fog-signalling apparatus."

1410. To Bristow Hunt, of Serle-street, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "an improved method and apparatus, or means to be employed in connection therewith, for firing ceramic and other articles."—A communication to him from abroad by George Mendheim, of Berlin, Prussia, Engineer.
1411. To John Bragg, of Aston, near Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Farmer, for the invention of "improvements in obtaining motive power from running water."
1412. To Thomas Cadett, of Rosherville, in the county of Kent, for the invention of "improvements in the production of gas for lighting and heating purposes."
1413. To Edward Alfred Cowper, of No. 6, Great George-street, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in moulds for casting steel ingots."
1414. To William Henry Tooth, of Sewardstone-road, in the county of Middlesex, Engineer and Chemist, and William Henry Tooth, the younger, of the same place, for the invention of "improvements in fire bricks and other articles intended to resist the action of fire, the said improvements including compositions to be used in the manufacture of the same."
1415. And to Alfred Vincent Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Draughtsman, for the invention of "improvements in the mode of and apparatus for manufacturing metal tubing."—A communication to him from abroad by Samuel Russel Wilmot, of Bridgeport, in the State of Connecticut, United States of America.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 18th day of April, 1873.
1416. To George Pearson, of Stockport, in the county of Chester, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of doubling frames for cotton and other fibrous materials."
1417. To Thomas Carr, of the city and county of Bristol, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in disintegrators."
1419. To Theodore Frederic Sandbach Tinne, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in and connected with motive power engines."
1420. To Edward Rayner, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Timber Merchant, for the invention of "an improved bung cutting machine."
1421. To Bristow Hunt, of Serle-street, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in the preparation of wood, or other ligneous or vegetable matter, for the manufacture of paper, cardboard, and other analogous products."—A communication to him from abroad by Oswald Meyh and Heinrich Voelter, of Paris, France.
1422. To John Deeley, of Yardley, in the county of Worcester, Manager of Works, and James Simeon Edge the younger, of Yardley aforesaid, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in breech loading small arms, part of which improvements may also be applied to muzzle loading small arms."
1423. To William Morgan-Brown, of the firm of Brandon and Morgan-Brown, Engineers and Patent Agents, of 38, Southampton-buildings, London, and 13, Rue Gaillon, Paris, for the invention of "improvements in aneroid barometers."—A communication to him from abroad by Lucien Ripamonti and Daniel Ripamonti, Opticians, of Caudéran, near Bordeaux, France.
1424. To Robert Asquith, of Meanwood-road Foundry, Leeds, in the county of York, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in expansion gear for working and regulating the expansion or cut off valves of steam engines."
1425. To George Wightwick Rendel, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, for the invention of "improvements in the mode of mounting and working ordnance."
1426. To Gustave Poirier, of Trafalgar-road, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of boots and shoes, or other like coverings for the feet."
1429. To Percy Albert Blake, of Highbury, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improved automatic means for indicating the presence of fire in buildings."
1430. And to John William Gray, of the Offices for Patenting and Introducing Inventions, 16, Southampton-buildings, in the county of Middlesex, Consulting Engineer, for the invention of "a new or improved reservoir for storing petroleum or other inflammable oils or spirits."—A communication to him from abroad by Guiseppe Bianchini, of Paris, in the Republic of France.
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 19th day of April, 1873.
1431. To Homan Price Fenby, of 13, Queens-square, Leeds, in the county of York, Mechanical Engineer, for the invention of "an improved method of obtaining circular motion in one direction from circular motion acting in one or alternate directions, the same being applicable as a clutch or brake."
1432. To William Dewar, of Kellas, in the county of Forfar, North Britain, Agricultural Implement Maker, for the invention of "improvements in implements for planting potatoes."
1435. To George Spencer, Civil Engineer, of 77, Cannon-street, London, and Walter Mackersie Smith, Engineer, of Henniker Cottage, Chandos-road, Stratford, Essex, for the invention of "improvements in parts of carriages and trucks for railways and tramways."
1436. To Joseph Rhodes, Enoch Rhodes, Cotton Warp Sizers and Dressers, and William Frankland, Manager, all of Bradford, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for consuming smoke and economizing fuel for steam generators and fire grates."
1437. To Constantine De Negri, Engineer, of the Hornsey Iron Works, Hornsey-road, Upper Holloway, London, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in engines."
1438. To John Taylor, of No. 6, White Hall, in the city of Westminster, for the invention of "improvements in the construction of walls and roofs."
1439. To John Taylor, of No. 6, White Hall, in the city of Westminster, for the invention of "improvements in roofing tiles."

1441. To Heinrich Adolf Hülsenberg, of Tyne-mouth-terrace, Victoria Park, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improvements in working slide valves by steam pressure and apparatus therefor."
1442. To James Henderson, of Leith, in the county of Edinburgh, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the propulsion of steam or other ships or vessels, and in the construction and arrangement of machinery or apparatus therefor."
1443. To Henry Bernoulli Barlow, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Patent Agent, for the invention of "an improved mode of and apparatus for cooling fluids and liquids."—A communication to him from abroad by Nicholas Joseph Galland, of Paris, France, Engineer.
1445. And to Henry Young Darracott Scott, of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, Major-General, C.B., for the invention of "improvements in the treatment of night soil and sewage matters, and in the manufacture of manures therefrom."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 21st day of April, 1873.
1449. To Jonathan Edwin Billups and Edwin Palmer Lee, both of Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, for the invention of "improvements in producing permanent colored and other photographic pictures, delineations, or devices on porcelain and other fictile ware."
1450. To Robert Henelade Courtenay, of 4, Meyrick-road, Clapham Junction, for the invention of "an improved magneto-electric induction machine."
1451. To Axel Johan Amnéus, M.D., of Upsala, in the Kingdom of Sweden, but at present of 3 and 4, Great Winchester-street-buildings, in the city of London, for the invention of "new or improved modes and means for preparing medicines."—A communication to him from abroad by August Almen, M.D., and Professor of Upsala, in the Kingdom of Sweden.
1452. To Charles Walker Torr, of Aston, near Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Manager of Works, and John Johnstone, of Birmingham aforesaid, Chemist, for the invention of "improvements in furnaces for steam boilers, which improvements are also applicable to furnaces for various other purposes."
1453. To Frederick John Cheesbrough, of the Office for Patents, 15, Water-street, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Consulting Engineer, for the invention of "an improved machine for fitting the elastic gores in gaiter shoes."—A communication to him from abroad by Joseph Walden, of the city of Newark, in the county of Essex, State of New Jersey, United States of America.
1455. To John Grey Cranston, of No. 75, The Side, in the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for drilling or boring rock, stone, and other minerals, and for boring or cutting coal."
1456. To George Edmund Donisthorpe, junior, of No. 13, Queen's-square, Leeds, in the county of York, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for registering the number of passengers carried in public carriages and the distance each has travelled."
1457. To Frederick Savage, of Saint Nicholas Iron Works, King's Lynn, in the county of

- Norfolk, for the invention of "improvements in traction engines and road locomotives."
1458. To Joseph Potts the younger, of Sunderland, in the county of Durham, Architect, for the invention of "improvements in the permanent way of railways."
1459. To Florentin Delmas, of Duke-street, in the city of Westminster, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of sun-shades."—The result partly of a communication to him from abroad by Joseph Piquemal, of Paris, in the Republic of France, and partly of invention and discovery made by himself.
1460. And to James Bateson Rickards, of The Green, Kilburn, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "improved combinations of ingredients for cleansing and bleaching wools and other suitable fibres and fabrics."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 22nd day of April, 1873.

1462. To Arthur Ruscombe Poole, of the Inner Temple, in the city of London, Barrister-at-Law, for the invention of "improvements in machinery or apparatus for actuating and setting in motion locking, interlocking, and controlling railway points and signals."
1463. To Robert Mackie, of Stewarton, in the county of Ayr, North Britain, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of caps or bonnets and in the means employed therefor."
1465. To Samuel Remington, of Iliou, New York, United States of America, now of Princes-square, in the county of Middlesex, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in breech-loading fire-arms."—A communication to him from abroad by E. Remington and Sons, of Iliou aforesaid, Gun Manufacturers.
1466. To Robert Stenson, Engineer, and Arthur St. George Cuff, Gentleman, both of Printing House-square, in the city of London, for the invention of "an improved pulping and compressing machine for the treatment of peat and the manufacture of the same into fuel."
1467. To Edward Thomas Hughes, of the firm of Hughes and Son, Patent Agents, 123, Chancery-lane, London, for the invention of "improvements in magazine fire arms."—A communication to him from abroad by Louis Cléophas Rodier and Francis Gordon Bates, both of Springfield, in the county of Hampden, in the State of Massachusetts, United States of America.
1468. To Andrew James Derney, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, for the invention of "improvements in apparatus for raising sunken ships, and in the method of fastening, attaching, and placing such apparatus."
1469. To Frederick William Colls, of Erith, in the county of Kent, for the invention of "improvements in treating rosin oil, to obtain therefrom a neutral oil suitable for lubricating machinery, and for other uses."
1470. To Charles Abdank De Laskarzewski, of Camden Town, and Thomas Herbert Noyes, of the United University Club, Pall Mall East, both in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "a new or improved musical instrument."
1471. To Isham Baggs, of High Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, Practical Chemist, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of gas for illuminating and other purposes, and in apparatus connected therewith."

1472. To Peter Buchan Watson, of High Wycombe, in the county of Bucks, for the invention of "improvements in or connected with gas burners."
1473. To Simpertus Klüh, of Stoke-upon-Trent, in the county of Staffordshire, for the invention of "an improved stamp for printing on china, earthenware, metal, wood, or other substances."
1474. To George Augustus Huddart, of Brynkir, in the county of Carnarvon, Gentleman, for the invention of "an improved construction of fish for railways."
1475. And to Bernard Birnbaum, of New Broadstreet, in the city of London, Manufacturer, for the invention of "an improved garment for the use of persons when driving, travelling, camping, and campaigning."
- On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 23rd day of April, 1873.

PATENTS WHICH HAVE BECOME VOID.

- A LIST of the Letters Patent for Inventions which have become void by reason of the non-payment of the additional Stamp Duty of £50, before the expiration of the third year from the date of such Patents, pursuant to the Act of the 16th Vic., c. 5, sec. 2, for the week ending the 26th day of April, 1873.
1148. Edward Barnard Sampson, of Hope Mills, near Stroud, in the county of Gloucester, for an invention of "improvements in means or apparatus for feeding machinery employed in carding or preparing wool and other fibrous substances."—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1149. Jonathan Green, of Brymbo Iron Works, near Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, Furnace Manager, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of coke and the apparatus connected therewith."—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1150. William Smith, of Heywood, in the county of Lancaster, Machine Maker, for an invention of "certain improvements in looms for weaving."—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1151. William Catt and Charles Shorten Catt, of the firm of Catt and Son, of Ipswich, Carriage Builders, for an invention of "improvements in wheels for carriages."—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1152. William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in condensers for marine steam engines."—Communicated to him from abroad by John Houpt, of Springtown, Pennsylvania, United States of America.—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1153. Robert Sinclair, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in apparatus to promote circulation in locomotive steam boilers."—Communicated to him from abroad by William Blane Mack, residing in Detroit, Michigan, United States.—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1154. William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," Southampton-buildings, London, Consulting Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in reversible butt hinges."—Communicated to him from abroad by George Albert Lloyd and Joseph Wesley Stow, both of San Francisco, California, United States of America.—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1155. John Henry Johnson, of 47, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for an invention of "a new or improved hardening composition, and its employment with india

- rubber gums and oils."—Communicated to him from abroad by John Ballou Newbrough, of the city and State of New York, in the United States of America.—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1156. William Batchelor, of Winchester, in the county of Hants, Iron and Brass Founder, for an invention of "improvements in fire-bars."—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1159. George William Ley, of St. John's-road, Croydon, in the county of Surrey, for an invention of "improvements in the production of raised and sunken designs, in imitation of carving, in wood, ivory, bone, and other materials."—Dated 20th April, 1870.
1161. William Arundell Oatey, of Wadebridge, in the county of Cornwall, for an invention of "improvements in the construction of reaping and mowing machines."—Dated 21st April, 1870.
1164. Alfred Vincent Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Draughtsman, for an invention of "an improved adjustable bedstead."—Communicated to him from abroad by William Orr Reid, of Vienna, in the State of North Carolina, United States of America.—Dated 21st April, 1870.
1167. Thomas Bell, of Walker Iron Works, in the county of Northumberland, Ironmaster, for an invention of "improvements in treating calcined pyrites, for the better utilization thereof in the processes of manufacturing pig and bar iron, and in the means or apparatus adopted for such treating."—Dated 21st April, 1870.
1169. John Gray, of Uddingston, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in ploughs."—Dated 22nd April, 1870.
1170. George Tomlinson Bousfield, of Loughborough Park, Brixton, in the county of Surrey, for an invention of "certain new and useful improvements in mowing and reaping machines."—Communicated to him from abroad by Rudolf Eickemeyer, of Yonkers, in the county of Westchester, and State of New York, United States of America.—Dated 22nd April, 1870.
1171. James Rand Clark, of Maine, of the United States of America, for an invention of "machinery for knitting stockings or various other articles."—That he is the first and true inventor of such invention in part, the remainder having been communicated to him by George M. Patten, of Maine aforesaid.—Dated 22nd April, 1870.
1172. Charles Bardy and Lucien Dusart, of Boulevard de Strasbourg, No. 23, Paris, Chemists, for an invention of "an improved mode of preparing certain organic bases, for producing colouring matters."—Dated 22nd April, 1870.
1173. Joseph Armytage Wade, of the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, and of Hornsea, in the East Riding of the county of York, Timber Merchant, Ship Owner, and Brick Manufacturer, and John Cherry, of Hornsea aforesaid, Brickyard Manager, for an invention of "improvements in roofing tiles, and in the method of locking or fastening them together when being formed into a roof, and in the ridging for tile roofs, and in the apparatus used in the manufacture of such tiles, fastenings, and ridges, and also of articles used for similar purposes, and for bricks."—Dated 22nd April, 1870.
1175. Henry Shaw, of Newport, State of Kentucky, one of the United States of America, for an invention of "improvements in machinery for hulling cotton seeds, and separating their kernels from the hulls and fibres."—Dated 22nd April, 1870.

1177. George Little, of Oldham, in the county of Lancaster, Mechanical Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in machinery for combing cotton, wool, and other fibrous materials."—Dated 22nd April, 1870.
1180. Charles Lungley, of Greenwich, in the county of Kent, Hydraulic Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture and in the securing of tubes, taps, and plugs in boilers and other vessels, also in certain modes of regulating and stopping the flow of liquids, gases, or air into or from such vessels."—Dated 22nd April, 1870.
1185. Levi Chase Schermerhorn and Cornelius Schermerhorn, both of Derby, in the county of Derby, Cheesemakers, for an invention of "improvements in the mode of and apparatus for manufacturing of cheese."—Dated 23rd April, 1870.
1189. Walkden Thompson and Thomas Stather, of the town and county of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, carrying on business there as Engineers, under the style or firm of Thompson and Stather, for an invention of "improvements in mills for grinding cattle food and other materials, and in apparatus connected therewith."—Dated 23rd April, 1870.
1192. George Fenwick, of Gateshead-on-Tyne, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of ropes or cables, to be used for telegraphic or other purposes, and in machinery for producing such cables or ropes."—Dated 25th April, 1870.
1194. Edward Lawley Parker, trading under the style or firm of Brent and Parker, of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, Manufacturers, for an invention of "improvements in buckles or fastenings for braces, belts, bands, and other articles."—Dated 25th April, 1870.
1197. George Jordan Firmin, of No. 19, Lorn-road, North Brixton, in the county of Surrey, for an invention of "improvements in self registering water or liquid gauges."—Dated 25th April, 1870.
1198. Leonard Wray, of Ramsgate, in the county of Kent, Gentleman, for an invention of "improvements in the means of and apparatus for crushing ores and other mineral substances, and separating therefrom the metals which they contain, part of which improvements is applicable to the bearings of machinery generally."—Dated 25th April, 1870.
1199. Thomas Wright and Isaac Fox, both of the town and county of the town of Nottingham, Lace Manufacturers, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of lace made on bobbin, net, or twist lace machines."—Dated 26th April, 1870.
1201. Richard Birkin, Junr., of Newdigate-street, Alfreton-road, Nottingham, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of ornamented net or lace."—Dated 26th April, 1870.
1204. Henry Young Darracott Scott, of Ealing, in the county of Middlesex, Lieutenant-Colonel Royal Engineers, for an invention of "an improved mode of manufacturing cement."—Dated 26th April, 1870.
1206. John Palmer, of the firm of Palmer Brothers, No. 10, Royal-promenade, Queen's-road, Bristol, Ironmongers, for an invention of "improvements in gas cooking stoves."—Dated 26th April, 1870.
- £100, before the expiration of the seventh year from the date of such Patents, pursuant to the Act of the 16th Vict., c. 5, sec. 2, for the week ending the 26th day of April, 1873.
1112. Charles Hastings and James Briggs, of the firm of Messieurs Charles Hastings and Company, of Bradford, in the county of York, Manufacturers, and James Law and Hiram Mitchell, of the same place, Managers, for an invention of "improvements in machinery for spinning and doubling."—Dated 26th April, 1866.
