THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

LEIGH FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Tonbridge Division of the county of Kent, that a Fair has been annually held on the 16th day of June, in the parish of Leigh, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 20th day of June, 1873, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, May 20, 1873.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871

BECCLES FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by G. B. Angell, Esq., as owner, that a Fair has been annually held on Whit Monday, in the parish of Beccles, in the county of Suffolk, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871."

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on Whit Monday, in the parish of Beccles, in the county of Suffolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 20th day of May, 1873.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Anne, Derby, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same consolidated chapelry, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of one hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Comberton, in the county of Cambridge, and in the
