

of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Dorchester Division of the county of Dorset, that a Fair has been annually held on the 11th day of July, in the parish of Abbotsbury, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 3rd day of July, 1873, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

ST. ALBANS FAIRS.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. A representation has been duly made to me by the Town Council of the borough of St. Albans, as owners, that Fairs have been annually held in the said borough as follows, viz.:—the Statute Fair on the 29th day of September, and Pleasure Fairs on the 26th day of March and on the 11th and 12th days of October, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fairs should be abolished.

2. On the 5th day of July, 1873, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fairs.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, June 5, 1873.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

HORNDON-ON-THE-HILL FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Orsett Division of the county of Essex that a Fair has been annually held on the 29th and 30th days of June, in the parish of Horndon-on-the-Hill, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 29th and 30th days of June, in the parish of Horndon-on-the-Hill, in the Orsett Petty Sessional Division of the county of Essex, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 3rd day of June, 1873.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

THERFIELD FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices sitting in Petty Sessions for the Odsey Division of the county of Hertford, that a Fair has been annually held on the third Monday in July, and the following day, in the parish of Therfield, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the third Monday in July, and the following day, in the parish of Therfield, in the Odsey Petty Sessional Division of the county of Hertford, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 3rd day of June, 1873.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of All Saints, Hereford, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and to be receivable in four equal portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford, that an Assistant Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of All Saints, Hereford aforesaid during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage and parish of All Saints, Hereford.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-ninth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.
