The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

Notice of Dividend Meeting.

A Meeting of the Creditors of the Bankrupt hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the County Court of Gloucestershire, holden at the County Court Offices, Small-street, Bristol, before the Registrar:

Robert Francois Langley, of No. 6, Park-place, in the town of Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, trading and carrying on business at the Arcade-chambers St. Mary-street, Cardiff aforesaid, as Scrivener and Attorney-at-Law, under the style or firm of J. H. and R. F. Langley, and also being Registrar of the County Court of Glamorgan-shire, at Cardiff, adjudicated bankrupt on the 29th day of July, 1862. A Further Dividend Meeting will be held on the 1st day of July next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignee will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupt's estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupt. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of an adjudication of Bankruptcy, made on the 21st day of December, 1865, against Henry Frees, formerly of 3, Spicer-street, Brick-lane, Spitalfields, in partnership with Jacob Frees (trading as H. and J. Frees Brothers), Machine Clothing Manufacturers, now residing at 11, Nottingham-place, Commercial-road East, both in the county of Middlesex, not in any partnership, business, or employ, did, on the 10th day of April, 1866, grant the Discharge of the said bankrupt; and that such Discharge will be delivered to the bankrupt, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of the Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Oxfordshire, holden at Oxford.

In the Matter of George Jones, of Osney Wharf, in the city of Oxford, Builder, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 28th day of May, 1873, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of the creditors, and has produced sufficient, after payment or satisfaction of all preferential claims and claims of creditors holding security, to pay dividends to the amount of twenty shillings in the pound, of which eighteen shillings and sixpence has been paid, and the remaining one shilling and sixpence has been paid to the larger number of the creditors, and will be paid to the rest on their application; and that the creditors resolved, by special resolution duly carried, not to claim interest, and each creditor who has been paid twenty shillings in the pound, has also individually foregone all claim of interest, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of the creditors, and has produced sufficient, after payment or satisfaction of all preferential claims and claims of creditors holding security, to pay dividends to the amount of twenty shillings in the pound, of which eighteen shillings and sixpence has been paid, and the remaining one shilling and sixpence has been paid to the larger number of creditors, and will be paid to the rest on their application, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Jones has closed.—Given under the Seal of this Court this 14th day of June, 1873.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Manchester, by transfer from the County Court of Cheshire, holden at Stockport.

In the Matter of George Norbury, of High-lane, in the township of Marple, in the county of Chester, Grocer, &c., a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 16th day of June, 1873, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized, and that there was not sufficient to pay a dividend, as shown by the statement thereunto annexed, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized, and that there was not sufficient to pay a dividend, as shown by said statement, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said George Norbury has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 16th day of June, 1873.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Surrey, holden at Croydon.

In the Matter of James Barker, of Reigate, in the county of Surrey, Tailor and Draper, a Bankrupt.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Surrey, holden at Croydon.

In the Matter of Henry Bassett, of Godstone, in the county of Surrey, Butcher, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 14th day of May, 1873, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could, according to his opinion, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy had been realized, as shown by a statement thereunto annexed, and that owing to the extreme poverty of the debtors to the estate, and the estate itself, it was impossible to declare any dividend therein, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could be realized, without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Henry Bassett has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 16th day of June, 1873.

THE estates of Charles Robb and Son, Silversmiths' Electro-platers, and Gilders, South-West Thistle-street-lane, Edinburgh, as a Company, and Thomas Robb, Silversmith, Electro-plater, and Gilder there, and residing at No. 33, Dundas-street, Edinburgh, the only surviving partner of the said Company of Charles Robb and Son, as such partner and as an Individual, were sequestrated on the 16th day of June, 1873, by the Sheriff of Midlothian and Haddington.

The first deliverance is dated the said 16th day of June, 1873.

The meeting to elect the Trustee and Commissioners is to be held at twelve o'clock, noon, on Friday, the 27th day of June, 1873, within the rooms of Lyon and Turnbull, No. 51, George-street, Edinburgh.

A composition may be offered at this meeting; and to entitle creditors to the first dividend, their oaths and grounds of debt must be lodged on or before the 17th day of October, 1873.

All future advertisements relating to this sequestration will be published in the Edinburgh Gazette alone.
