

such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fifth day of May last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the seventeenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz.:

WORKINGTON.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Workington, in the county of Cumberland; and, on and after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, also in the churchyard of the said parish, except in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of entire bones, to be used only for the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, or unmarried children, of those already buried therein; and except in vaults and walled graves existing on the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stone-work or brick-work properly cemented.

CODNOR-CUM-LOSCEE.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Codnor-cum-Loscoe, in the county of Derby; and, on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, also in the churchyard of the said parish, except in now existing walled graves, and except also in other graves which can be opened without the disturbance of remains or the exposure of coffins; every coffin to be enclosed by stone-work or brick-work properly cemented, or by concrete not less than six inches in thickness.

WINKLEIGH.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Winkleigh, in the county of Devon, and within three yards of the walls of the said church.

FROME, SOMERSET.—Forthwith in the burial-ground of Christ Church, Frome, in the county of Somerset, except in graves and vaults which can be used without baling out water, every coffin which is not separately enclosed by stone-work to be covered by at least four feet in depth of soil.

BATH.—Forthwith wholly in the Lady Huntingdon Burial-ground, Julian-road, in the parish of Walcot, Bath.

HAILSHAM.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Hailsham, and in the churchyard, except in existing vaults and walled graves.

CHARLTON (BY DOVER).—Forthwith wholly in the church and churchyard of Charlton (by Dover), except in now completed family vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stone-work or brick-work properly cemented; and in earthen graves to be used for the burial of the widowers and widows of those already interred in the churchyard.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-ground hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in such churchyards and burial-ground be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice aforesaid is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-ground be postponed as follows:—

In the churchyard of Monk Frystone to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.
