

In the churchyards of Saint Mary and Saint Cuthbert, and in the Independent Burial-ground Pateley Bridge, all in the parish of Ripon, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz. :—

WALTHAMSTOW.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Walthamstow, in the county of Essex, and also in the original part of the churchyard of the said parish, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, each coffin buried in which shall be separately entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and also in the remainder of the said churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, and in such as can be constructed in ground not previously buried in, which shall not exceed thirty in number, and except in earthen family graves, to be used only for the burial of the widowers, widows or parents of those already buried therein.

WESTON, NEAR BATH.—On and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the churchyard of the parish of Weston, near Bath, in the county of Somerset, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, or in such as can be constructed without the disturbance of soil that has been buried in, and except in earthen graves to be used only for the burial of widowers, widows, or parents of those already buried therein.

ST. COLUMB MINOR.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of St. Columb Minor, in the county of Cornwall, and also with the following exceptions on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the churchyard of the said parish; namely, except for the burial of the widowers or widows of those previously interred in the said churchyard.

LEWISHAM, CHRIST CHURCH, FOREST HILL.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Christ Church, Forest Hill, in the parish of Lewisham, and that any coffin buried in the burial-ground of the above church shall be entombed by concrete not less than six inches thick, and that no water shall be baled out of any grave.

FRESHFORD.—Forthwith wholly in the church of the parish of Freshford, and forthwith in the churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, each coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stone or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves, to be used for the burial of the widowers or widows of those already buried therein.

PENRITH.—Forthwith wholly in Christ Church, Penrith, and in the churchyard, except in existing vaults and walled graves, in which every coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

STAFFORD.—Forthwith wholly in Christ Churchyard, Stafford, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal, and separately entombed by stone or brickwork property cemented.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eleventh day of August next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said eleventh day of August.

Arthur Helps.

Council Office, June 26, 1873.

WHEREAS the Governing Body of Winchester School, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by "The Public Schools Act, 1868," and of every other power enabling them in that behalf, did, on the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, make certain Statutes for the Government of that School.

And whereas the said Statutes have been submitted to and approved by the Special Commissioners appointed by the said Act, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in the London Gazette, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act.

And notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons authorized so to do, in that Act, within two months from the date of the publication of this notification, to petition Her Majesty in Council to withhold Her approval from the whole or any part of such Statutes.

Arthur Helps.

STATUTES made by the Governing Body of Winchester School, otherwise called Winchester College.

Whereas by "The Public Schools Act, 1868," and the Acts amending or affecting the same, the Governing Body of any School to which the Acts apply may make Statutes as therein mentioned, and may consolidate and amend any existing Statutes or Regulations relating to such School, and may repeal any Statutes or Regulations which have in the opinion of that Body become obsolete or incapable of observance:
