The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

Notice of Dividend Meetings.

Meetings of the Creditors of the Bankrupts hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the time and place hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the County Court of Lancashire, holden at the Court house, 80, Lime-street, Liverpool, before a Registrar:

Pembroke Gibson and Robert Innes, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, trading under the style or firm of Gibson, Innes, and Co., adjudicated bankrupts on the 10th day of May, 1867. A Final Dividend Meeting of the separate estate and effects of Pembroke Gibson will be held on the 18th day of August instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the County Court of Durham, holden at Durham, before H. Greenwell, Esq., Registrar:

Robert Wallace Farthing, late of Hallgarth Mill, in the county of Durham, Miller, adjudicated bankrupt on the 19th day of November, 1869. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 14th day of August instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the County Court of Northumberland, holden at the Court house, Westgate-road, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, before William Brook Mortimer, Esq., Registrar:

Joseph Mitchell, of Hollin's Farm, Lamplough, near Whitehaven, in the county of Cumberland, Farmer, adjudicated bankrupt on the 11th day of May, 1869. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 13th day of August instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the said Meetings the Assignees will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupts' estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said respective meetings will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what Dividend shall be made, and whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupts respectively. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Herbert Sharpe, late of No. 88, Edgware-road, in the county of Middlesex, China and Glass Dealer, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Murray.

UPON reading a report of the Trustees of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 8th day of July, 1873, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt had been realized for the benefit of the creditors and a dividend to the amount of one shilling and six pence in the pound paid, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee and upon hearing Mr. William James Scott, the Solicitor for the Trustees, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt had been realized for the benefit of the creditors, and a dividend to the amount of one shilling and six pence in the pound paid, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Herbert Sharpe has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 15th day of July, 1873.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Manchester. In the Matter of John Clegg, late of Blackley, in the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Labourer, and late a Prisoner in the Manchester City Gaol, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 28th day of May, 1873, reporting that the above named John Clegg was adjudicated a bankrupt on the 28th day of September, 1871, and that he, the trustee, was appointed trustee of this estate on the 19th day of October, 1871; that the said bankrupt had not filed any statement of his affairs, and that the said trustee had not been able to discover any property, money, or effects belonging to him or available for his creditors, consequently the trustee had received nothing whatever on account of this estate, and he believing there was nothing in it, and that it was useless to protract this bankruptcy, the Court being satisfied that the said bankrupt has not filed any statement of his affairs, and that the said trustee has not been able to discover any property, money, or effects belonging to the bankrupt or available for his creditors, and that the said trustee has received nothing whatever on account of this estate, and that there is nothing in it, and that it is useless to protract this bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John Clegg has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 30th day of July, 1873.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Sussex, holden at Brighton.

In the Matter of Richard John Chapman, of 64, North-street, Brighton, Stonemason, a Bankrupt.

The 4th day of July, 1873.

THE Trustee of the above-named bankrupt not having applied for the bankruptcy to be closed, upon motion this day made by the above-named bankrupt, by his Solicitor, Mr. Charles Lamb, of No. 14, Ship-street, Brighton, for the said bankruptcy to be closed, and it appearing to the Court that all the creditors of the estate who have come in and proved their debts have been paid such debts in full, the Court doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Richard John Chapman has closed.
