

to be applied, which were exercisable by the Court or a Judge, should and might, with respect to matters in the said Court of Record for the hundred of Salford, be exercised by the Recorder of the said hundred, or, save as aforesaid, by his Deputy duly appointed, and that the powers and duties incident to the above-mentioned provisions which were exercisable by the Master or Registrar should and might, with respect to matters in the said Court of Record, be exercised by the Registrar thereof:

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order in Council should be annulled:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, shall be, and the same is hereby, annulled.

Arthur Helps,

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 2nd day of August, 1873.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr. Forster.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as The Animals (Amendment) Order of 1873.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.

Pleuro-pneumonia.

3. Every Local Authority shall cause all cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia within their district to be slaughtered.

The provisions numbered (1), (2), and (3) of Article 31, and Articles 32, 33, and 34, relating to compensation of The Animals Order of 1871 shall have effect in case of slaughter under this Article of this Order.

Foot-and-Mouth Disease.

4. Foot-and-mouth-disease shall not be deemed to be a contagious or infectious disease within either of the following Articles of The Animals Order of 1871, namely,—Articles 19 and 27.

Any regulations made by a Local Authority under the said Article 27 as far as they relate to foot-and-mouth disease are hereby revoked.

5. Where an animal becomes affected with foot-and-mouth-disease while exposed or placed or being carried, led, or driven, as in section fifty-seven of the Act of 1869 mentioned, it may, notwithstanding anything in that section, be, with a licence of an Inspector of the Local Authority, authorized to issue the same, but not otherwise, moved for purposes of feeding, or watering, or other ordinary purposes connected with the breeding or rearing of animals, to any land or building in the occupation of the owner of the animal, or for slaughter to the nearest slaughter-house or some other slaughter-house approved by the Local Authority.

The form given in the Second Schedule to this Order, or a form to the like effect, with such variations as circumstances require, shall be used.

Revocation.

6. The Orders and part of an Order of Council described in the First Schedule to this Order, and any regulations made by a Local Authority under that part of an Order, are hereby revoked: Provided that nothing in this Order shall invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Orders and part of an Order and regulations, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against or any penalty or forfeiture incurred under the same.

Arthur Helps.
