And whereas the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury hath duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a report, in writing, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

"We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby report to your Majesty in Council, that the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, has represented unto us (amongst other things): that there is in the county of Norfolk, and diocese of Norwich, the vicarage and parish church of Wymondham, the parish whereof comprises, amongst other places, a district known by the name of Kimberley Hall Park and Gardens, which consists of a territory of two hundred and seventy-eight acres three roods and twenty-three perches of land, according to the tithe apportionment of the said parish, and is distinguished on the tithe commutation map of the said parish with the numbers 541 to 551 both inclusive, including the outer fences thereof, and such part of the lake, together with such parts of the river (if any) adjoining thereto, as are within the said parish. That the said district adjoins the parish of Carleton Forehoe, in the same county and diocese, and is distant from the church of that parish about one mile, and from the parish church of Wymondham about three miles. That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that, under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and six, and of the second and third years of your Majesty's said reign, chapter forty-nine, the district referred to in the said representation may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Wymondham, and be united for ecclesiastical purposes to the parish of Carleton Forehoe. That the said Lord Bishop has drawn up a scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to him the proposed alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent upon such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, which scheme, together with the consents thereto of the patrons and incumbents of the said benefices of Wymondham and Carleton Forehoe, has been transmitted by the said Lord Bishop to us, for our consideration. The representation and scheme of the said Lord Bishop, and the consents before referred to, are hereunto annexed. And we, the said Archbishop, being, on full consideration and enquiry, satisfied with the said scheme, do hereby, pursuant to the said Act of the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, certify the same and such consents as aforesaid, to the intent that your Majesty in Council may, in case your Majesty in Council shall think fit so to do, make and issue an Order for carrying the said scheme into effect. As witness our hand this twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

"A. C. Cantuar."

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said scheme be carried into effect.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of August, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

ANNESLEY, NOTTINGHAMSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the church of Annesley, in the county of Nottingham, and in the parts of the churchyard which are to the south and west of the church, and in the rest of the churchyard, except in earthen graves to be used only for the burial of the widowers, widows, parents, brothers, sisters, and unmarried children of those already buried in the churchyard, and except in existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.
