

The London Gazette.

Numb. 2401

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 17. to Monday November 19. 1688.

THE following Addreffes have been Presented to the King, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty,

The sincere and humble Adreff of Your Majesties most Faithful and ever Loyal Subjects, now in Arms for Your Majesty in the Shire of Argyll.

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and most Dutiful Subjects, in Your Shire of Argyll, from the deep sense we have of our own Duty, and of the great Happiness and many Blessings we enjoy, (Great SIR!) under Your Auspicious Reign, do, in this juncture of Affairs, humbly offer our Lives and Fortunes to be sacrificed, where-ever Your Majesties Honour and Greatness may be concern'd, which is that true Holocaust, which all True-honest-hearted Scots-men will give to so Good, so Just, and so Great a Prince, And thus we declare to all the World, that we will maintain, to the last Period of our Lives and Fortunes, which we are ready, not only to subscribe with our Hands, but, on all Occasions, to seal with our Blood. We have entreated the Honourable Sir John Drummond of Machanic, Your Majesties Lieutenant for this Shire (under whose Conduct we are now in Arms ready to march, where-soever Your Majesty Commands,) to present to Your Majesty these our firm and unalterable Resolutions. In Testimony whereof we do, with all Cheerfulness, subscribe our Names hereto for our selves, Branches of our Families, and Followers, at Killmichell in Argyll, the Sixth day of November, 1688.

Having at this our Meeting been informed of a most unjust and unnatural Invasion, designed against Your Majesty and Your Kingdoms, we do find our selves concerned by our Allegiance and Gratitude, to assure Your Majesty, and let all Your other Subjects see, that the former Professions we have made of adhering to Your Royal Interest upon all Occasions, were not meer and empty Compliments, but that the same Sincerity, from which they proceeded, shall still animate us to hazard all for Your Majesty, his Royal Highness the Prince of Scotland, and the Royal Line; Being fully convinced, that whatever tends to shake the Throne, must necessarily overturn the Liberty and Property of all Your Subjects, notwithstanding of all the Masks and Pretensions that may be made use of by any Undertakers whatsoever.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty,

Your Majesties most Obedient, most Humble, most Dutiful, and most Loyal Subjects and Servants.

Edinburgh,
Nov. 8.
1688.

Signed in Presence, and by warrant of the particular Convention of Borrowers by our Præses; the particular Subscriptions of the whole Commissioners being Recorded in our Registers.

Magnus Prince, Præses.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Adreff of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgesies, of the Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, of this Your Ancient Corporation, do, with Hearts full of Gratitude and Joy, offer to Your Imperial Majesty our Lives and Fortunes, as the first Fruits of Your Majesties most Gracious Proclamation, containing a welcome Restitution unto us of all our Privileges and Immunities we ever had by Charters from any of Your Royal Progenitors, which being many and great, so needs must and shall our Loyalty and Service appear Constant and Eminent in Peace and War, to the utmost of our Power, in the Defence of Your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, not only against the now intended Invasion, but also upon all other Occasions as becometh all Your Natural Subjects, and every True English-man. To which we have hereunto set our Hands, and affixed the Common Seal of our Town at a General Guild held this Ninth day of November, Anno Dom. 1688.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

Prohibiting the Keeping of Exeter Fair, and other Fairs thereabouts, for some time.

JAMES R.

Whereas We are informed, that on or about the Sixth day of December, a Fair hath usually been holden and kept at and in Our City of Exeter; We in respect of the present Invasion upon this Our Kingdom by the Prince of Orange, (who with an Armed Force of Foreigners and Rebels hath possessed Our said City,) and considering also that divers evil-disposed Persons under pretence of going to the said Fair, may repair to Our Enemies, or hold Correspondence with them, have therefore thought fit, by Advice of Our Privy Council,

- John Macklean of Lochbuy.
- Robert Stewart of the Appin.
- John Stewart Tutor of Appin.
- Alexander Mackuchlan.
- Sir William Lauchlane Par. of Kilinartine.
- Evan Macklean Younger of Ardgour.
- Allan Macklean Peer of Ardgour.
- John Macklean of Tartart.
- Alex. Macklean of Knock.
- Macklean of Kingerloch.
- A. Macnaughton Laird Uncle to Macnaughton.
- D. Macklain of Craignes.
- C. Campbell of Inverao.
- A. Campbell.
- A. Macklochinnell.
- Sir Evan Cameron of Lochziel.
- A. Mackdonald of Largie.
- D. Mackneill of Tainish.
- J. Mackdowgall of Dunnollich.
- A. Macallaster of Tarbatlopp.
- J. Macnaughton Uncle to the Laird of Macnaughton.
- A. Maclean of Otrar.
- N. Campbell of Tonerduff.
- J. Macallaster Brother to Tarbat.
- H. Campbell of Kiprasie.
- J. Cameron of Glendicerie.
- J. Cameron younger of Lochziel.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty,

THE new Proof, we have had of Your Majesties Royal Favour to us in Your last Letter, relating to the Conversion; The Passer of the Admiralty, and the Entertainment of Prisoners, but especially the great Care Your Majesty expressed for repairing and augmenting our much decayed Trade, do oblige us to renew, to Your Sacred Majesty, our sincere and hearty Thanks for these, and for the Kindness Your Majesty was Graciously pleased to show to the Provost of Your good Town of Edinburgh, our Præses, who represented us; And all Your Majesty's Princely Favours bestow'd on us, since God was pleas'd to bring Your Majesty to the Throne of Your Royal Ancestors; And for which we hope our Successors, who are to find the Advantages thereof, as well as our selves, shall ever think it their true Interest to depend immediately upon the Monarchy, from which only they can find a true and solid Support.