

sions of the said Acts, shall extend equally to all the Colonial Certificates at the time possessed by the person in respect of whom the decision is made, as well as to all certificates granted to him under any of the Acts relating to Merchant Shipping, and whether such certificates be specified in such decision or not.

Certificates believed to be fraudulent may be demanded.

9. Any officer of the Board of Trade, or the Registrar-General of Seamen, or any of his Officers, or a Superintendent of a Mercantile Marine Office, or a Consular Officer, or duly appointed Shipping Officer in a British possession, may demand the delivery to him of any such Colonial Certificate of Competency which he has reason to believe has been improperly issued, or is forged, altered, cancelled, or suspended, or to which the person using it is not justly entitled, and may detain such certificate for a reasonable period for the purpose of making inquiries respecting such issue, forgery, alteration, cancellation, suspension, or possession, and any person who, without reasonable cause, neglects or refuses to comply with such demand, shall incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, which shall be recoverable in the same manner as penalties imposed by the Acts relating to Merchant Shipping are thereby made recoverable.

Suspended Certificates to be re-issued only by Colony by which originally granted.

10. Any such Colonial Certificate of Competency which has from any cause been cancelled or suspended, whether by a tribunal in New South Wales or elsewhere, shall be renewed or re-issued only by the Marine Board of New South Wales.

This Order shall take effect in the said possession of New South Wales from and after the date hereof, and shall be deemed to apply to and take effect with respect to all such Colonial Certificates of Competency as shall have been granted as aforesaid since the eighteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in which the regulation No. 5 above has been complied with.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 30th day of August, 1873.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent, out of the district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, and out of the new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, all in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent, of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, which said portions are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas Michael Thomas Bass, of Rangemore House, Burton-upon-Trent, Esquire, has transferred into our name in the books of the Midland Railway Company a sum of three thousand pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of such Company, to be held in trust by us as and for a permanent endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and for the maintenance of the minister thereof for the time being, upon the understanding that the amount of the annual interest and dividends to accrue due on account of the said sum of stock shall be receivable by the said incumbent for the time being when duly licensed, in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly-mentioned Act, and upon the understanding that we should also make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein named Act to the minister for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed as before mentioned, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument, to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burton-upon-Trent, of the said district parish of the Holy Trinity, Burton-upon-Trent, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Burton-upon-Trent, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Burton-upon-Trent.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister thereof, shall, without any
