

tants were so disinay'd, that they obliged the Bassa to capitulate, who, the next day, sent out Hostages, and the Agreement was quickly made. That they should have Liberty to march out with what they could carry, except Arms, and that the Bassa, and principal of the Inhabitants, should be allowed 30 Horses for Carriage. On the 15th there accordingly went out of the place, about 4000 Persons, of which 500 were fit to bear Arms; There was very little Ammunition or Artillery found in the place, but a great Quantity of Grain, and all sorts of Provisions, which was left for the Subsistence of 5 Companies, which Prince Louis put into Garison there. This Town is of great Importance, for that it not only covers the former Conquests in Bohemia, but likewise Subjects a new and large Territory to our Contributions.

Strasbourg, Novemb. 17. On Saturday last Te Deum was sung here for the taking of Manheim; And we have since advice, that Frankendall is likewise surrendered; And that the Dauphin is returning to Paris, having put good Garisons into the places beforementioned, as also into Philipsbourg, Heydelberg, and Offenburg; The rest of the Troops are to winter in Alsace. The Count de Nassau Sarbrucke, Colonel Quadr, Colonel Rosenburg, and Colonel Montefaux, have received Commissions from France to raise four new Regiments.

Brussels, Novemb. 23. The last Letters from Vienna tell us, that the Emperor had resolved to have a considerable Army on the Rhine the next Spring: And at the same time to continue the War against the Turks. That the Count de Kaunitz was going in the Quality of the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary to the Swiss Cantons, to Negotiate a Levy of 12000 Men. And that the Recruits and new Levies his Imperial Majesty had ordered to be made, will amount to above 30000. The German Letters give an Account of the Surrender of Frankendall. The French have put into Manheim a Garison of 3000 Men.

Falmouth, Nov. 15. Yesterday there was seen plying off of the Lizard about 25 Sail of great Ships, supposed to be part of the Dutch Fleet.

Exeter, Novemb. 17. The Prince of Orange has appointed the Lord Wilshire, Mr Herbord, and Mr. Rou, Commissioners for the managing His Majesties Revenue here, who yesterday Collected the Monthly Duty of Excise for this City. And our Magistrates are Suspended for not complying with him. It's said the Prince of Orange will march from hence some time the next week; And in the mean time Parties are sent out to take all the Horses they meet with; Some have been as far as Bridgewater, where they took 20 Horses from the Market-people.

Portsmouth, Nov. 18. Yesterday His Majesties Fleet under the command of the Lord Dartmouth passed by here to the Westward, the Wind at E.S.E. The Mountague, Jersey, Nonsuch, and Constance Warwick came to Spurhead, and this day intend to follow the Fleet. The Wind blows now very hard at S, and most of the Tenders are coming into this Harbor.

Salisbury, Novemb. 19. This Evening about Four of the Clock the Duke of Berwick, the Earl of Pembroke, Sir John Fenwick, and several other Officers on Horseback, met His Majesty about a Mile from hence, and attended him to the Gates of the City, where His Majesty was met by the Mayor and Aldermen in their Gowns, who waited upon His Majesty at the Bishop's Palace, which is appointed for his Lodging; The People in a very great Multitude following His Majesties Coach from His Entrance into the City quite to the Doors of the Palace, with Huzzas and Demonstrations of Joy and Satisfaction, the Bells Ringing all the while.

Whitehall, Nov. 21. We have an account that on Friday last the Lord De la Mere came to Manchester at the head of 50 Horses, and that the next day he went to Bodon Downs, where he had with him about 150, declaring his Design was to join with the Prince of Orange.

There are Letters from Exeter of the 19th instant, which say, That the Prince of Orange does every day go out to view the Country with the Marechal de Schomberg, and last Saturday he went to Aury 12 miles from thence, and returned thither at night; And that it was reported the Prince of Orange would go from thence on Tuesday, part of the Army being already advanced 20 miles from Exeter, intending to leave there only a Guard of 200 Foot and 200 Horse. The Prince of Orange had forbid Praying for the King, who is now left out both by Churchmen and Dissenters in their Prayers. The New Prayers made on the Occasion of this Invasion are laid aside, and Burnet's Prayer for the Prince of Orange is used by some.
