

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the Vicarage of Alconbury-cum-Weston, in the county of Huntingdon, and in the diocese of Ely, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us; to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the third day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing thirty-six perches, or thereabouts, situate at Alconbury, in the county of Huntingdon, and adjoining the parsonage of Alconbury aforesaid, and which said piece or parcel of land is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured red.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of the Holy Trinity, West Marsh, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us; to have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

All that piece or parcel of land, containing one acre, or thereabouts, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, West Marsh, within the ancient limits of the parish of Ash, in the county of Kent, being part of a field called Down Field, numbered 915 on the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Ash, bounded on the north by the high-road leading from the West Marsh high-road to Ware, on the east by a roadway leading from the said West Marsh high-road to Knell, on the west by property belonging to the trustees of Mrs. Gryll, and on the south by other part of the said Down Field, belonging to Richard Harrison, of Sandwich, in the said county of Kent, Esquire, and which said piece or parcel of land is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of five hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Codsall, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Codsall, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fifth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of three hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of the Holy Trinity, Milton-next-Gravesend, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of the Holy Trinity, Milton-next-Gravesend, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of three hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of the Holy Trinity, Milton-next-Gravesend.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.
