AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of January, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled an Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales, it was declared and enacted that His Majesty by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council should have power from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden, and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit, and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit; and further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, to be holden at any one or more places in any such county.

And whereas the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business held in and for the county of Montgomery, are usually holden at Welshpool, in the said county, in the spring of each year, and at Newtown, in the said county, in the summer of each year.

And whereas it is desirable and convenient that the holding of the next spring assizes and sessions in and for the said county, should be holden at Newtown aforesaid.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in Her under and by virtue of the said Act, and of every other power in that behalf, doth hereby order and direct that the next spring assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be held in and for the said county of Montgomery, at Newtown aforesaid, in the said county, instead of at Welshpool.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of January, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, among other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties, and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands, under the said Act, in each of such districts; and, from time to time, to alter such districts, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name, and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, and in the thirty-first years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it has been represented that it would be of advantage to the public, if the County
