

likewise pleased to direct that, from and after the date of the present Order, the toll heretofore paid in respect of the "Goodwin" and "Gull Stream" Light Vessels taken together, shall cease to be so paid, and, in lieu thereof, there shall be paid in respect of each of the said "Goodwin" and "Gull Stream" Light Vessels respectively, for every such ship as aforesaid, whether British or foreign, which may pass or derive benefit from such light vessel, the toll of four-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burthen of every such ship as aforesaid, for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on an oversea voyage, and three pence for every such ship for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage :

Provided, that all the aforesaid tolls shall be levied upon the condition that whenever any ship as aforesaid, whether on an oversea or coasting voyage, shall be liable to pay tolls in respect of the "Goodwin" and "Gull Stream" Light Vessels, she shall not be liable in respect of the "East Goodwin" Light Vessel, and whenever any ship as aforesaid shall be liable to pay tolls in respect of the "Goodwin" and "East Goodwin," Light Vessels, she shall not be liable in respect of the "Gull Stream" Light Vessel ; and provided also, that no vessel shall be liable for either the "Gull Stream" or the "East Goodwin" toll which has not heretofore been liable for the toll on the "Goodwin" and "Gull Stream" taken together.

And the said tolls shall be levied, subject to the regulations and exceptions contained in the new Consolidated Table of Light Dues, sanctioned by Orders in Council, dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in an Order in Council, dated the ninth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of fifty-five per centum mentioned in the last-named Order in Council.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 26th day of January, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things, enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall enquire into the circumstances of the case ; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement, in writing, of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion ; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately, on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same : Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent, in writing, of the patron or patrons thereof."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of St. Asaph has drawn up, together with a scheme, a representation in writing, bearing date the fourth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and has transmitted the same, together with the consents thereto attached, to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, in the words and figures following (that is to say) :—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I, The Right Reverend Joshua, Lord Bishop of St. Asaph, do hereby represent to your Grace that to the vicarage and parish church of Llanynys, otherwise Llanynis, in the county of Denbigh, and my diocese of St. Asaph, belongs an ancient parochial chapelry, known by the name of Cyfylliog, otherwise Gyfylliog, the limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That according to the last census the population of Llanynys, otherwise Llanynis, is six hundred and seventy-one, and of Cyfylliog, otherwise Gyfylliog, five hundred and fifty-one.

"That there is in Cyfylliog, otherwise Gyfylliog, a church or chapel, distant from the
