

or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Robert Lowe, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the modifications hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of December last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-eighth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parishes, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows; viz. :—

ANNESLEY.—Forthwith wholly in the church and churchyard.

OVING, SUSSEX.—Forthwith wholly in the church; and in the parish churchyard, except in now existing vaults and walled graves, in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed in stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, to be used only for the burial of widowers or widows of those already buried therein: and also, that in the additional churchyard burials be conducted according to the regulations for new burial-grounds.

ADLINGTON, LANCASHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the church; and in the churchyard after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, except in now existing family vaults and graves, not less than four feet deep, which can be buried in without baling out water.

LAUGHTON, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church and in the old part of the churchyard.

WARWICK, ST. NICHOLAS.—Forthwith wholly in the church, and in the churchyard except in now existing vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains.

GATESHEAD, ST. CUTHBERT, BENSHAM.—Forthwith wholly in the church, and in the churchyard except in now existing vaults and walled graves in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

DONISTHORPE, DERBYSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the church, and wholly in the churchyard, after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

LACEBY, LINCOLNSHIRE.—Forthwith wholly in the church; and, after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the churchyard, except for the burial of members of the families of those already buried therein in vaults or in graves, not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of undecayed bones.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE, ST. GEORGE'S, MOSSLEY.—After the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the churchyard and in the Methodist New Connexion Burial-ground in the same place, except in family vaults in which each coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in family graves not less than four feet deep which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of remains,—and that burial in the parish church, and in the Methodist New Connexion Chapel in the same parish, be forthwith wholly discontinued.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas an Order in Council has been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the
