

containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas by an indenture, bearing date on or about the fifteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and made or expressed to be made between John Coke Fowler, of West Knoll, in the county of Glamorgan, Esquire, and Thomas Boone Nelson, of Lawrence Pountney-lane, in the city of London, Gentleman, of the first part, Clara Thomas, of Llwyn Madoc, in the county of Brecon aforesaid, Spinster, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery), the said John Coke Fowler and Thomas Boone Nelson, by the direction of and in conjunction with the said Clara Thomas, have granted and confirmed unto the incumbent of the district hereinafter proposed to be constituted, so soon as he shall have been appointed and licensed to the said intended district, and to his successors, incumbents thereof for the time being, a yearly rent-charge of one hundred pounds issuing out of certain messuages or tenements, lands, and hereditaments which are situate in the said parish of Llanvihangel Abergwessin and which are more particularly specified in the schedule which forms part of and is referred to in the said deed.

“And whereas the said yearly rent-charge has been so granted and secured as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein-named Act to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said district, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein-before secondly-mentioned Act, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas we have undertaken and agreed to make the said grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Connop, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Llangammarch, of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Llanlleonvel, of the said parish of Llanafanfawr, and of the said parish of Llanvihangel Abergwessin, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Eglwys Oen Daw.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Clara Thomas, her heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference :—

“The District of Eglwys Oen Daw, being :—

“All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Llangammarch, of the parish or parochial chapelry of Llanlleonvel, of the parish of Llanafanfawr, and of the parish of Llanvihangel Abergwessin, all in the county of Brecon, and in the diocese of Saint David's, which said portions of such parishes are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Llangammarch from the parish or parochial chapelry of Llanlleonvel aforesaid, at the point a little to the west of the house called or known as Llwyn-Cys, where the River Cammarch is joined by the stream called or known as Nant-Cwm-yr-efel; and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of about half a mile along the middle of the said stream to its source on the western side of the old road leading from Garth to Beulah; and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line to a point in the middle of the said road; and extending thence northward along the middle of the same road for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Cefn Cryn gwyn to Simniai llwyd, at or near to which point of junction a boundary stone, inscribed ‘E.O.D.D., 1873, No. 1,’ has been placed; and extending thence for a distance of fifty-six chains, or thereabouts, first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-described road to the boundary in the middle of the stream called or known as Llynwyn, which flows from Pen-y-rhiw Trefan into the River Dulas, which boundary divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Llanlleonvel from the parish of Llanafanfawr aforesaid; and extending thence for a distance of sixty-eight chains and a half, or thereabouts, first south-eastward along the last-described boundary (thereby following the course of the stream called or known as Llynwyn aforesaid), and then eastward along the same boundary (thereby leaving the stream called or known as Llynwyn aforesaid) to a point in the middle of the River Dulas aforesaid; and extending thence generally northward for a distance of nearly three and a half miles along the middle of the said river to its junction near Tyn-y-Llwyn with Bran Brook; and extending thence westward for a distance of fifty-six chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said brook, to the fence above Tyn-y-clyn, which divides the close numbered 176 upon the tithe commutation map of the said parish of Llanafanfawr, and upon the map hereunto annexed, from the common or unenclosed lands in the same parish; and extending thence for a distance of nearly four and a half miles, first southward to and along such fence, and then generally south-westward along the line of fences dividing the closes numbered respectively 175,
