TUESDAY, MARCH 10, 1874.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 10, 1874.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 11th of March, and on Thursday, the 26th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 3, 1874.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing a Room at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 26th of March next, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room, it being a Collar-Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign Office, March 9, 1874.

HER Majesty's Ambassador at St. Petersburg has transmitted to the Foreign Office the following notice issued by the Russian Government, and published in the "Journal de St. Petersburg" of the 4th February last, providing for the expulsion from that capital of individuals not having Passports, or who may be provided with Passports of which the term has expired:—

La "Gazette de Police de St. Pétersbourg" publie le règlement provisoire suivant sur l'expulsion de St. Pétersbourg des individus n'ayant pas de passeport ou ayant un passeport périmé,—qui a été sanctionné par S. M. l'Empereur le 4 janvier:

1°. Lorsqu'il est constaté qu'un individu habitant St. Pétersbourg n'a pas de papiers ou a un passeport périmé, la police s'assure de son identité, prend des informations sur son genre de vie, sa profession et sa conduite, et recherche s'il n'a pas d'antécédents judiciaires.

2°. Si de ces informations il ressort que l'individu sans passeport, reconnu non dangereux par son genre de vie, a pris les mesures en son pouvoir pour obtenir ou renouveler son passeport, mais n'a pas reçu ce passeport, et que ce document ne lui a pas été refusé par l'administration compétente, la police lui délivre un permis temporaire, dont le terme est fixé par le préfet de la ville, sans toutefois pouvoir excéder six mois.

3°. Lorsqu'à l'expiration du permis mentionné à l'article précédent le passeport n'a pas été reçu ou qu'avant ce terme on reçoit avis d'un refus de délivrance du passeport, la police a le droit d'agir conformément aux dispositions de l'art. 1220 du code de procédure criminelle.

4°. Quand les renseignements recueillis par la police constatent que l'individu sans passeport n'a pas pris les mesures nécessaires pour obtenir ou renouveler ses papiers, mais ne présente pas par sa conduite de motif suffisant pour que la prolongation de son séjour dans la capitale soit considérée comme nuisible, la police agit conformément à l'art. 1220 du code de procédure criminelle et oblige ensuite le contrevenant à demander un passeport, en se réglant à son égard sur les dispositions des art. 2 et 3 du présent règlement.

5°. Si des informations recueillies par la police il résulte que l'individu sans passeport n'a pas de moyens d'existence, qu'il ne travaille pas, et en général a une mauvaise conduite, et qu'il a été condamné pour crimes ou délits contre le gouvernement, l'ordre ou la propriété, la police, sans recourir à une action judiciaire, présente au préfet de St. Pétersbourg un rapport motivé demandant que cet individu soit expulsé de la capitale avec défense d'y résider. En l'absence de l'ensemble des conditions sus-énoncées, la police agit conformément au code de procédure criminelle.

6°. Les rapports mentionnés à l'art. 5 sont examinés par un conseil établi à la préfecture, dont les décisions sont soumises à la sanction du préfet de la capitale dans le mode indiqué par l'art. 10 du règlement de la préfecture pour les affaires relatives à la mise en jugement de fonctionnaires.

7°. En prononçant l'expulsion et l'interdiction de séjour dans la capitale, le conseil détermine la durée de cette interdiction ainsi que le mode d'expulsion, en spécifiant s'il doit être abandonné à l'individu expulsé de quitter lui-même la ville dans un délai donné ou s'il faut recourir à des mesures coercitives; dans ce dernier cas il indique les motifs de l'emploi de ces mesures. Le terme de l'expulsion de la capitale ne doit pas dépasser quatre ans; les mesures coercitives d'expulsion doivent être conformes aux dispositions en vigueur à cet égard.

8°. La décision du conseil, sanctionnée par le préfet de St. Pétersbourg, est notifiée contre reçu à l'individu expulsé et communiquée pour mesures conformes à l'autorité dans le ressort de laquelle est placée l'institution de laquelle dépend la délivrance d'un passeport à cet individu.

9°. Le préfet de St. Pétersbourg présente chaque mois au ministère de l'intérieur la liste des individus expulsés de la capitale aux termes des art. 5-8 du présent règlement, en exposant en face de chaque nom les motifs de l'expulsion.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Batley appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the eleventh of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, numbered 275:

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Arthur Helps.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CCLXXV.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

Borough of Batley.

BYE-LAWS OF THE BATLEY SCHOOL BOARD.

Recital of Election of School Board.

WHEREAS in pursuance of a requisition sent by the Education Department to the Mayor of the borough of Batley, in the county of York, a School Board for the district of the said borough was duly elected on the 22nd day of January, 1871.

Now, at a meeting of the School Board of the said borough of Batley, held at the Board Room, in the said borough of Batley, on the 11th day of December, 1873, at which meeting a quorum of the members of such Board are present, the said Board do hereby, in pursuance of the powers given to them by the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and subject to the approval of the Education Department, make and ordain the following Bye-laws:—

BYE-LAWS.

Interpretation of Terms.

In these Bye-laws the term "Education Department" means the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education.

1. The term "Her Majesty's Inspectors" means the Inspectors of Schools appointed by Her Majesty on the recommendation of the Education Department.

The term "Borough of Batley" or "Borough" means the Municipal Borough of Batley, as enlarged and extended by the "Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," and includes any future enlargement or extension of such municipal borough.

The terms importing "Males" in these Bye-laws include females.

The term "School Board" or "Board" means the School Board of the district comprising the borough of Batley.

The term "School" or "Public Elementary School" means a Public Elementary School, as defined by the said Act, and includes a free school, but not an Industrial School.

The term "Parent" includes guardian, and every person who is liable to maintain, or has the actual custody of any child, but does not include the mother of a child when the father is living, and is residing within the said borough.

Requiring Parents to cause their Children to attend School.

1. The parent of every child residing within the borough of Batley, shall cause such child, being not less than five nor more than thirteen years old, to attend a Public Elementary School, unless there be some reasonable excuse.

Determining Time during which Children shall attend School. See Sec. 7 (Sub. Sec. 3).

3. The time during which each child shall attend school shall be the whole time for which the school shall be open for instruction; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child during the time or times in which any religious observance is practised, or instruction in religious subjects is given, and that no child shall be required—

(a.) To attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his or her parent belongs.

(b.) To attend school on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day set apart for a day of Public Fast or Thanksgiving, or on Saturday, after twelve o'clock at noon.

(c.) To attend school on any day fixed for the inspection of the school, or the examination of the scholars therein in respect of religious subjects.

(d.) To attend school, if such requirement would be contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

Defining reasonable Excuses for Non-attendance.

3. A child shall not be required to attend school—

(a.) If such child is under efficient instruction in some other manner,

(b.) If such child is prevented from attending school by sickness or any other unavoidable cause, or cause deemed by the Board, unavoidable.

(c.) If there is no Public Elementary School which such child can attend, within one and a half miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.

Proviso for Total or Partial Exemption from Attendance, if Child has reached a certain Standard.

4. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child having attained the age of ten years has reached the fifth standard of education mentioned in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department, made on the 7th day of February, 1871; such child shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school; and any such child who has been so certified to have attained the third standard of education, mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than one half the usual school time during the week.

Providing for Remission of School Fees in case of Poverty.

5. If the parent of any child shall satisfy the Board that the reason his or her child does not attend school is, that he or she is unable from poverty to pay the school fees of such child, the Board, in the case of a school provided by the Board shall remit, for a renewable period to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six calendar months, the whole or such part of the fees as in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay.

Penalty for Breach of Bye-laws.

6. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding five shillings with costs; provided that all breaches of these Bye-Laws by a parent in one and the same week shall be deemed one offence.

7. The Bye-Laws passed by the Board on the 9th February, 1872, and sanctioned by Her Majesty in council on the 25th of June, 1872, are hereby wholly revoked, except as regards breaches of such Bye-Laws already committed, and provided that all matters and things already done in pursuance of such Bye-Laws shall be and remain valid as though such Bye-Laws were not revoked.

Date on which Bye-Laws shall come into operation.

8. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Order in Council.

John Jubb, Chairman.

Joseph Dobson Good, Clerk to the said Board.

Offices of the Board,
Hanover-street, Batley.

At the Court at Windsor, the 2nd day of March, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the School Board of Ratby, appointed under "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," have, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the seventy-fourth section of that Act, with the approval of the Education Department, made certain Bye-laws, bearing date the twentieth of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, numbered 276 :

And whereas all the conditions in regard to the said Bye-laws, which are required to be fulfilled by the said Act, have been fulfilled, and the said Bye-laws have been submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council : now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Bye-laws (copy whereof is hereunto annexed) into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, and doth hereby declare, Her sanction of the same.

Arthur Helps.

Bye-laws referred to in the foregoing Order.

No. CCLXXVI.

THE ELEMENTARY EDUCATION ACT,
1870.

Parish of Ratby.

BYE-LAWS OF THE RATBY SCHOOL BOARD.

AT a Meeting of the School Board for the parish of Ratby, held at the School-room, in the said parish, on the 20th day of October, 1873, the said Board, in pursuance of the powers of "The Elementary Education Act, 1870," and subject to the approval of the Education Department, hereby make and ordain the following Bye-laws :—

1. The parent of every child, not less than five years of age, nor more than thirteen years of age, residing within the district of the said parish, shall cause such child to attend school unless there be a reasonable excuse for non-attendance.

2. The following shall be deemed such reasonable excuses :—

- (a.) Sickness or other unavoidable cause.
- (b.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.
- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend within three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child.
- (d.) If sickness in the family or other urgent reason shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Board, to exist.

3. Subject to the provisions of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and of these Bye-Laws, the time during which a child is required to attend school is the whole time for which the school selected shall be opened for the instruction of children, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall be construed as contrary to anything contained in any Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.

4. In case one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools shall certify that any child between ten and thirteen years of age has reached the fourth standard of education mentioned in the New Code of Regulations of the Education Department, 1872, such child shall be totally exempt from the obligation to attend school; and any such child who has been so certified to have reached the third standard of education mentioned in the said Code, shall be exempt from the obligation to attend school more than ten hours in any one week.

5. If the parent of any child residing in the school district satisfies the School Board that he or she is unable, from poverty, to pay the school fees of such child, the School Board will remit at schools provided by the Board, or pay at other Public Elementary Schools the whole, or such part of the school fees as, in the opinion of the Board, the parent is unable to pay, for a renewable period, to be fixed by the Board, not exceeding six months, provided that the amount of fees to be paid or remitted shall not exceed the ordinary payment at the school selected by the parent.

6. Any person committing a breach of these Bye-laws, or any of them, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, provided that all breaches of these Bye-laws by a parent in one and the same week shall be deemed one offence, and that no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-laws shall exceed such a sum as, with the costs, amounts to five shillings for each offence.

7. These Bye-laws shall take effect from and after the day on which the same shall be sanctioned by Order in Council.
