Warsaw, Novemb. 12.

THE King of Poland is returned to Jawarow; and is expected here with the whole Court towards the end of this Month. The little Dyets have been assembled; but that which was held in this City broke up in great heat, without concluding any thing; And in several other Palatinates they have had no better Success; so that they must meet again to choose the Deputies they are to send to the General Dyet that is appointed to be held here the 27th of the next Month. The Forces of this Crown are in their Winter Quarters. We have not had this Week any News of the Tartars.

Vienna, Novemb. 28. The Emperor has resolved to send the Marquis d'Obizzi in the quality of his Envoy Extraordinary to divers Princes of Italy, to represent to them the present state of affairs in the Empire; and to exhort them to joyn their Forces with those of his Imperial Majesty and his Allies, for their common defence and security, against France. The Count de Graber, a Nobleman of Hungary, has undertaken to raise 3000 Hussars, and will begin this Levy so soon as he has received the 30000 Crowns, given him for this Service, which will be paid in few days, the Emperor being very desirous that these Troops may be raised, and in a condition to march towards the Rhine before the end of February: And there is a Discourse of raising 3000 Hussars more, to serve likewise in the Empire. The King of Sueden, has by his Minister here, assured the Emperor that he will act the next Spring with all his Forces against France. The States of the Hereditary Countries have begun their new Levies for the reinforcing the Imperial Army, and have promised to have them compleat in two Months. The Blockade of Canisa is by reason of the bad weather withdrawn to about 12 Miles distance from the place, but the Garison being in great want, and the Country thereabouts so ruined, that they cannot have much relief from thence, it's believed they will in a short time be forced to a Surrender. The Emperor has named the Baron Zieroleski to go his Envoy Extraordinary to Poland, to be present at the General Dyet which is to meet at Warsaw the 27th of the next Month. We hear from Br- spruoke, that the Duke of Lorraine recovers daily, not having had his Fever since the 11th instant. The Letters from Munick, do bring a farther Confirmation of the Electors of Bavaria being with Child, to the great Joy of this Court.

Vienna, Decemb. 2. The Imperial Regiments which are marching from Hungary towards the Empire, arrived on Saturday last in the Neighborhood of Neubausel, where they would refresh themselves for some days, and then continue their march through Moravia and Bohemia. Count Maximilian de Staremberg, late Governor of Philipsburg is come hither to inform the Emperor of the Reasons that obliged him to Surrender that place; which Matter will be examined at a Council of War. The Sieur Hop, Envoy Extraordinary from Holland, does endeavour to persuade this Court to make a Peace with the Turks. The new Levies are begun in Hungary; where 9 or 10000 Men will be raised for the War against France.

Frankfort, December 5. The Confederate Troops are marching to their Winter Quarters; And the Elector of Saxony and the Duke of Hanover are going home again. The Landgrave of Hesse Cassel continues in this City. Some of their Troops did yesterday possess themselves of Konigssten: And the French have thereupon reinforced the Garison of Risselbeym. The Elector of Mayence is at present at Steinbeimb, very much indisposed with the Gout.

Frankfort, Dec. 9. The Troops of Saxony have their Winter quarters in the Westermald; and those of Hanover in the Country of Eyffelt: They have put a Garison of 300 Men into Konigssteyn. They write from Germany, that a Neutrality had been offered by the French to the Elector of Saxony, to which he made no other answer, than that he had put the Letter that was written to him on that Subject, into the hands of the Imperial Minister, who was then with him. The Troops of Saxony and Hanover, are possessed of all that part of the Electorate of Mayence, that lies on the other side of the Rhine, except the Castle of Erfort, in which the Elector of Mentz has a Garison, and Cassel, situated over against the City of Mayence. They write from the Palatinate, That a Detachment of French Troops sent from Hailbron, had burnt a great many Villages in Franconia; but that in Conclusion they were beaten back by the Inhabitants of the small Town of Fotenburg.
