TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 1874.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 3, 1874.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Wednesday, the 25th of March next, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room, it being a Collar-Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card, with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

It is not expected that Gentleman will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force, for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

HERTFORD,

Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 13, 1874.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Thursday, the 26th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

HERTFORD,
Lord Chamberlain.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

CHILMARK FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, 1, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 18th day of June, 1873, a representation has been duly made to the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, then one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by the Justices acting in the Hindon Petty

Sessional Division of the county of Wilts, that a Fair has been annually held on the 30th day of July, in the parish of Chilmark, in the said Division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 21st day of April, 1874, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

In the Matter of the Estate of Joseph Henry White and others, in the Hamlet of Mile End Old Town, in the county of Middlesex.

TAKE Notice, that in pursuance of the fiat of Sir Henry James, Knight, Her Majesty's late Attorney-General, a writ directed to the Sheriff of Middlesex has been issued in the words following, that is to say—

“Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to the Sheriff of Middlesex greeting, we command you that by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, you diligently inquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or any other, if we should grant to Joseph Henry White, of Springfield, near Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, Gentleman, Henry Rose, of Chesham, in the county of Buckingham, Brush Manufacturer, and John Rose, of the same place, Brush Manufacturer, their heirs and assigns, license that they may stop up and destroy a certain footway being a footway leading from and out of a street called Johnson-street, at the distance of 102 feet or thereabouts from the north side of Emmott-street, at its junction with Johnson-street, proceeding thence in a north-easterly direction into Skidmore-street, at the distance of 18 feet or thereabouts from the east end of the said street, at its junction with Emmott-street; the land across which the footpath runs is bounded on the north by a certain street called Skidmore-street, on the south by the premises of the Commercial Gas Company, on the east by the Regent's Canal, and on the west by the said street called Johnson-street, the said footway being up to that point altogether of the length of 620 feet or thereabouts, and the same being in the hamlet of Mile End Old Town, in the said county of Middlesex, so as instead of the same footway they may make other ways as convenient for passengers through the same, and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of us or any other, then to what damage or to what prejudice of us, and to what damage or to what prejudice of any other, and of whom, and how, and what manner. And that you return the inquisition thereof distinctly and plainly made without delay into our Chancery, under your seal and the seals of those by whom it shall be taken, together with this writ.—Witness ourself at Westminster, the 25th day of February, in the 37th year of our Reign.

Jessel.

Murray.

And further take notice, that in pursuance of the said writ, the above inquisition will be held at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, on Monday, the 30th day of March, 1874, at the Royal Hotel, Mile End-road (near the Canal Bridge), in the said county of Middlesex.

Dated 11th day of March, 1874.
