Albert Life Assurance Company Arbitration.
Notice to Creditors.

In the Matter of the Albert Life Assurance Company Arbitration Act, 1871.

ALL persons having policies or other contracts on which proof has not yet been admitted in this Arbitration are to take notice that an application is now pending in Parliament for an Act (notices having been duly published according to Standing Orders) under which all claims not brought in by an early day will be absolutely barred.

2. All persons having established claims in this Arbitration are to take notice that the said Act will also provide for the final closing on an early day of payments by the Liquidators of dividends and other money remaining in their hands unclaimed.

3. Therefore all persons who desire to participate in the distribution of the assets (so far as any assets will remain unallotted after payment of the dividends already declared) should at once bring in their claims to us.

4. And all persons to whom any dividend or other money is payable by us as Liquidators in this Arbitration should at once apply for the same. Dated this 30th day of April, 1874.

By order of the Arbitrator,
S. Lowell Price,
Jno. Young,

Joint Official Liquidator in the Albert Life Assurance Company Arbitration.
Thomas Preston, Secretary.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Proceedings for Liquidation by Arrangement or Composition with Creditors, instituted by Henry Wainwright, of 84 and 215, Whitechapel-road, in the county of Middlesex, Brush, Mat and Matting Manufacturer, and now or lately trading in partnership there with Charles Sawyer, under the firm of H. Wainwright and Co.

A MEETING of the Creditors of the said debtor will be held at the offices of Messrs. Barnard, Clarke, McLean, and Company, No. 3, Lothbury, in the city of London, on Friday, the 15th day of May, 1874, at three o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of considering the propriety of sanctioning the acceptance by the Trustees of a composition of twelve shillings in the pound in the manner and upon the terms hereinafter mentioned, or authorising the Trustees to assent to the following scheme of settlement of the affairs of the said debtor, namely:—The payment by the said debtor to his separate creditors (other than and except to William Wainwright, also a separate creditor, who is hereinafter referred to) of twelve shillings in the pound on their respective debts by the following instalments, namely, three shillings in the pound on such debts in cash to be paid by the said debtor within seven days after confirmation and registration of the resolutions to be passed at the meeting hereby convened; a further instalment of three shillings in the pound on the said debts to be paid by the said debtor three months from that time; a further instalment of three shillings in the pound on the said debts to be paid by the said debtor six months from the same time (such two last mentioned instalments respectively to be secured by the promissory notes of the said debtor); and a further or last instalment of three shillings in the pound on the said debts to be paid by the said debtor nine months from the time named, the payment of such further or last mentioned instalment to be guaranteed by the deposit by the friends of the said debtor with the Trustees of such a sum of money as shall be equal to the total of such further or last mentioned instalment, such deposit to be made and completed with the Trustees by the said debtor within one day after the passing of the resolutions come to and carried at the meeting hereby convened. That during the period the above instalments are running, being nine months, Mr. William Wainwright [above referred to] is to receive from the said debtor the sum of twenty pounds per month, secured by his promissory notes, the first payment of twenty pounds per month to commence and be made one month after confirmation and registration of the resolutions to be passed at the meeting hereby convened. And the said William Wainwright is also to receive and be paid by the said debtor the sum of two thousand two hundred pounds by twenty-two monthly instalments of one hundred pounds each, the same to be secured by the promissory notes of the said debtor. The first of such instalments to commence and be paid ten months after the confirmation and registration of the resolutions to be passed at the meeting hereby convened, the debtor being at liberty to arrange with the said William Wainwright, if necessary, for a renewal of fifty per cent. of such instalments, for a period not exceeding twelve months from the due date of any of such instalments, interest at ten pounds per centum per annum on such renewal or renewals being first paid in advance by the said debtor to the said William Wainwright. That all costs, charges and expenses whatsoever, whether relating to the presentation of the petition and of the Trustees and their Solicitor, inclusive of carrying out and completing the above offer of composition or scheme of settlement or incidental thereto, and the costs, charges and expenses incurred by the said William Wainwright shall be borne and paid by the said debtor. That on due payment and delivery by the said debtor to James Waddell, of Mansion House-chambers, 12, Queen Victoria-street, and Robert Allan McLean, of No. 3, Lothbury, both in the city of London, Public Accountants (as Trustees for distribution thereof amongst the creditors), of the first instalment of the said composition, and of the promissory notes of the debtor for the second, third, and fourth instalments thereof, and on deposit with them by the friends of the debtor of a sum equal to the amount of such fourth instalment and as a security for the due payment thereof, and on the said debtor delivering to the said Trustees his promissory notes, payable to William Wainwright, for the said several sums agreed to be paid to him, the same to be accepted in satisfaction of the creditors' debts; and on the Trustees certifying that such payment and delivery has been made to them, and that all costs, charges, and expenses of and connected with the liquidation proceedings, and the costs of the said William Wainwright as aforesaid, have been paid and discharged, the Petition for Liquidation shall be dismissed, and all proceedings thereunder annulled, and the debtor shall be entitled to be reinstated in his property. That the rights of the joint creditors of the said debtor (that is to say, the partnership creditors of Henry Wainwright and Charles Sawyer) shall not be prejudiced or affected by the acceptance of the said composition, or by any resolutions to be passed at the meeting hereby convened.—Dated this 2nd day of May, 1874.

J. WADDELL, Mansion House-chambers, 12, Queen Victoria-street;

ROBT. A. McLEAN, 3, Lothbury, both in the city of London, Public Accountants;
