TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1874.

Whitehall, June 1, 1874.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by Francis Robert, Earl of Rosslyn, Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the National Church of Scotland met in General Assembly, beg to tender our humble and hearty thanks for your gracious communication.

Your Majesty's expressed determination to uphold the forms of our Presbyterian worship, government, and discipline demands, as it secures, our most grateful acknowledgments, the zeal and prudence which your Majesty condescendingly ascribes to our deliberations only encourages us to deserve, in any measure, your Royal approbation, and under a yet higher motive, we shall strive so to regulate our proceedings as to spread a knowledge of spiritual things more and more among the people, and induce them more earnestly to attend to their highest interests, both for time and eternity.

Holding the constitution of every country bound to acknowledge and support that religion which enforces honour to the Sovereign and obedience to the laws, we rejoice that your Majesty not only recognises our Supreme Court, but that your Royal person is represented in its midst. This becoming homage to the King of Kings is paid in the person of a Scottish nobleman, well qualified to discharge the duties of Lord High Commissioner, and whose appointment we therefore hail as a renewed augury of your Majesty's interest in our venerable establishment.

Your Majesty's continued grant of two thousand pounds, for the spiritual enlightenment and progress of our Highlands and Islands, of which be pleased to accept our warmest recognition, shall be conscientiously devoted to the purposes of the generous donation.

That Almighty God, by whom kings reign, may preserve in health your gracious person, in peace your immortal soul, in stability your noble Throne, and in efficiency your Civil Government; that you may be enriched with every blessing here and in heavenly places, is the sincere wish, the ardent prayer of

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by Samuel Trail, D.D., Moderator.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

WOKINGHAM FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Corporation of Wokingham, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held on the 2nd and 3rd days of November, in the town of Wokingham, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871 :"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished :

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 2nd and 3rd days of November, in the town of Wokingham, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 28th day of May, 1874.

(Signed) Richard Assheton Cross.

Official Notice.

Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

I, SIR MICHAEL ROBERT SHAW STEWART, ART, of 11, Grosvenor-place, hereby give notice, that it is my intention to apply to the Board of Trade, under Section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect of my ship "Margherita," of Cowes, official number 67,590, of gross tonnage 312.44 tons, of register tonnage 182.77 tons, heretofore owned by Henri Bischoffsheim, of Bute House, South Andley-street, for permission to change her name to "Cavalier," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of Cowes, as owned by Sir M. R. Shaw Stewart.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at 11, Grosvenor-place, London, S.W., this 19th day of May, 1874.

M. R. Shaw Stewart.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Stacksteads Wesleyan Chapel, situate at Stacksteads, in the parish of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Haslingden, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 26th day of May, 1874, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 27th of May, 1874.

Thomas Woodcock, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, situated at Caroline-street, Stalybridge, in the parish of Stockport, in the county of Chester, in the district of Ashton-under-Lyne, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 27th day of May, 1874, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 28th of May, 1874.

Benjn. Seymour, Superintendent Registrar.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette, May 15, 1874.]

TO ALL PERSONS CONCERNED.

WHEREAS, by Lease dated the 19th day of May, 1794, the Honorable John Chaubre Brabazon (afterwards Earl of Meath) demised to Thomas Manning, his heirs and assigns, that part of the town and lands of Upper and Lower Aughrim, situate in the barony of Ballinacor, manor of Knockrath, and county of Wicklow, then in the occupation of the said Thomas Manning, containing eighty-seven acres and thirty-four perches, more or less, for three lives, with a covenant for the perpetual renewal thereof, on payment of the sum of twenty-five pounds as a renewal fine on the fall of each life : And whereas the last renewal of the said lease, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1843, was made by the said John Chambre, Earl of Meath, to Elizabeth Manning and Lucinda Manning, in whom the lessee's interest was then vested, for the lives of the said Elizabeth Manning and of William Manning and John Wolsley Fetherston-H., therein named : And whereas the said Elizabeth Manning died in or about the month of December, 1845, and the said Lucinda Manning left this country several years ago, and the said William Manning is believed to be dead : And whereas the reversion expectant on the said lease is now vested in me, William, Earl of Meath : And whereas large sums are due to me for renewal and septennial fines in respect of the premises comprised in the said lease, and I am unable to discover in what person or persons the Lessee's interest therein is now vested : Now, I hereby demand payment of all sums payable to me for renewal and septennial fines, by virtue of the said lease ; and I give notice to all persons concerned, that in case of the non-payment thereof within a reasonable time after the making of this demand, the right to a renewal of the said lease will be forfeited, and I shall refuse to execute a renewal or fee-farm grant thereof.

Dated this 18th day of April, 1874.

Meath.

A demand of the renewal and septennial fines claimed by the above notice, has been made on the lands from the occupiers of same.

Octavius O'Brien, Solicitor for William, Earl of Meath, 23, Kildare-street, Dublin.

Statistical Office. Custom House, London,
June 1, 1874.

S. SELDON,
Principal.

In the Matter of the Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850, and the Railway Companies Act, 1867, and of the South Essex Railway Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Board of Trade, by a warrant, bearing date the 9th day of May, 1874, and made in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," and "The Railway Companies Act, 1867," have ordered and declared that the railway by "The South Essex Railway Act, 1865," and the railway by "The South Essex Railway Act, 1866," authorised to be made, shall be abandoned by the South Essex Railway Company, that is to say:

The railway authorised by the said Act of 1865 therein described as:

No. 1. A railway commencing in the parish of Shenfield, by a junction with the Great Eastern Railway at a point about five-and-a-half chains eastward of the first bridge over that railway on the east or Chelmsford side of the Brentford Station thereon, and terminating in the parish of Southminster, at a point on the public road leading from Southminster to Burnham, about fifteen-and-a-half chains southward of Somer's Windmill, and about twenty-five chains northward of a house called and known as Ratsboro'.

No. 2. A railway commencing from and out of the intended Railway No. 1, in the parish of Woodham Ferris, otherwise Ferrers, at a point in a field or common known as the Fen, about thirty-eight chains from the Whalebone Inn, in a southerly direction on the public road leading from Battles Bridge and Wickford to Woodham Ferris and Southminster, and terminating in the parish of Heybridge, by a junction with the Maldon Branch of the Great Eastern Railway, at or near the bridge carrying that branch over the Chelmer Navigation, near to Maldon Railway Station.

No. 3. A railway commencing in the parish of Shenfield, by a junction with the said intended Railway No. 1, at or near its before-described commencement, and terminating in the parish of Great Warley by a junction with the Great Eastern Railway, at or near the east end of the up platform of the Brentwood Station of that railway.

All which railways will be situated within the county of Essex.

And the railway authorised by the said Act of 1866, and therein described as:

A railway five miles and three furlongs in length, commencing in the parish of Rettenden, by a junction with the authorised South Essex Railway, near the point where it crosses the public road leading from Battle Bridge to Rettenden, and terminating in the parish of Pitsea, by a junction with the London, Tilbury, and Southend Railway, at the north side of the Pitsea Station thereon.

And notice is further given, that all persons having any claims or demands upon the said South Essex Railway Company for compensation or otherwise, by reason of the abandonment of the hereinbefore mentioned railways, are hereby required to transmit the statement of such claims or demands to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, at his office, 13, Serjeants'-inn, Fleet-street, London, E.C., within four calendar months from the date of the said warrant.

Dated the 12th day of May, 1874.

Hargrove, Fowler, and Blunt, 3, Victoria-street, Westminster, Solicitors for William Webster.
