

Littleton, Farmer, in the said parish of Minsterworth, in the said county, for inspection for the period of fourteen days from the date hereof.

H. Pyne,

By order of the Board.

London, 3, St. James's-square,
June 4, 1874.

[Extract from the Dublin Gazette, May 15, 1874.]

TO ALL PERSONS CONCERNED.

WHEREAS, by Lease dated the 19th day of May, 1794, the Honorable John Chambre Brabazon (afterwards Earl of Meath) demised to Thomas Manning, his heirs and assigns, that part of the town and lands of Upper and Lower Aughrim, situate in the barony of Ballinacor, manor of Knockrath, and county of Wicklow, then in the occupation of the said Thomas Manning, containing eighty-seven acres and thirty-four perches, more or less, for three lives, with a covenant for the perpetual renewal thereof, on payment of the sum of twenty-five pounds as a renewal fine on the fall of each life: And whereas the last renewal of the said lease, bearing date the 12th day of August, 1843, was made by the said John Chambre, Earl of Meath, to Elizabeth Manning and Lucinda Manning, in whom the lessee's interest was then vested, for the lives of the said Elizabeth Manning and of William Manning and John Wolsley Fetherstou-H., therein named: And whereas the said Elizabeth Manning died in or about the month of December, 1845, and the said Lucinda Manning left this country several years ago, and the said William Manning is believed to be dead: And whereas the reversion expectant on the said lease is now vested in me, William, Earl of Meath: And whereas large sums are due to me for renewal and septennial fines in respect of the premises comprised in the said lease, and I am unable to discover in what person or persons the Lessee's interest therein is now vested: Now, I hereby demand payment of all sums payable to me for renewal and septennial fines, by virtue of the said lease; and I give notice to all persons concerned, that in case of the non-payment thereof within a reasonable time after the making of this demand, the right to a renewal of the said lease will be forfeited, and I shall refuse to execute a renewal or fee-farm grant thereof.

Dated this 18th day of April, 1874.

Meath.

A demand of the renewal and septennial fines claimed by the above notice, has been made on the lands from the occupiers of same.

Octavius O'Brien, Solicitor for William, Earl of Meath, 23, Kildare-street, Dublin.
