Notice of Dividend Meetings.

Meetings of the Creditors of the Bankrupts hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the times and places hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, before Philip Henry Pepys, Esq., Registrar:

Henry Southgate, of No. 143, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, and of No. 3, Weymouth-terrace, Devonshire-road, Forest Hill, in the county of Kent, Auctioneer, trading as Southgate and Company, adjudicated bankrupt on the 16th day of December, 1868. A first and final Dividend Meeting will be held on the 30th day of June instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Liverpool, at the Court-house, 80, Lime-street, Liverpool, before a Registrar:

Henry Redding, formerly of 6, Camden-terrace, Leeds, in the county of York, Book-keeper and Salesman, now of Menai Bridge, in the county of Anglesea, out of business, adjudicated bankrupt on the 2nd day of April, 1867. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 30th day of June instant, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignees will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupts' estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupts. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

A DIVIDEND Meeting of the Creditors of Louis Otto Runtz Rees, of No. 30, Great Saint Helen's, in the city of London, Merchant, who was adjudicated bankrupt on the 25th day of November, 1864, will be held pursuant to the Bankruptcy Act, 1861, section 174, before William Powell Murray, Esq., Registrar at the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall street, in the city of London, on the 23rd day of June, 1874, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, when the Assignee will submit a statement of the estate of the bankrupt recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and payments thereout made and to be made, and the creditors present will declare whether any and what dividend shall be made, and whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the bankrupt, and when certain special resolutions will be submitted for the approval of the creditors in the following terms, or to the like effect, that is to say:—1. That the creditors do sanction and approve of the rescission by the Court of a certain order of the Court, dated the 29th day of May, 1869, whereby the Court gave certain special directions to the Assignees as to the distribution of the assets amongst the creditors; 2. That certain resolutions passed at a meeting of the creditors of the said bankrupt holden on the 4th day of July, 1870, whereby, after resolving that the balance of the funds in the hands of the Official Assignee and Creditors' Assignee should be divided rateably among all the creditors of the above-named bankrupt who have proved or claimed any debt under this estate, did further resolve that the dividends payable to the said creditors, pursuant to the now reciting resolution, should be respectively calculated and paid in conformity with the order of Court made in this matter on the 29th day of May, 1869, be varied by striking out and omitting the concluding paragraph of the said lastly recited resolution, so that the dividend thereby declared may proceed in the regular course. Proofs of debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded from the benefit of the dividend, and all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

In the County Court of Cheshire, holden at Nantwich and Crewe.

In the Matter of Luke Jackson, of Middlewich, in the county of Chester, Bookseller, Stationer, and Printer, a Bankrupt.

AN Order of Discharge was granted to Luke Jackson, of Middlewich, in the county of Chester, Bookseller, Stationer, and Printer, who was adjudicated bankrupt on the 8th day of November, 1870.—Dated this 9th day of June, 1874.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Surrey, holden at Wandsworth. In the Matter of John William Etherington, of 14, George-street, Richmond, in the county of Surrey, Hairdresser and Stationer, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 21st day of May, 1874, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized, as shown by the statement hereunto annexed, and the reason of there not having been a dividend paid to the creditors is that the estate did not realize a sufficient sum to pay the taxed costs of the bankruptcy, and that in the joint opinion of myself and the Committee of Inspection, it is desirable to close the bankruptcy, and upon hearing Mr. H. E. Knight for the Trustee, and reading his affidavit, sworn the 22nd day of May, 1874, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized, as shown by the statement hereunto annexed, and the reason of there not having been a dividend paid to the creditors is that the estate did not realize a sufficient sum to pay the taxed costs of the bankruptcy, and that in the joint opinion of the Trustee and the Committee of Inspection, it is desirable to close the bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John William Etherington has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 9th day of June, 1874.
