

And whereas the patrons and incumbent of the said vicarage of the new parish of the Trinity, Margate, have made certain objections to the said scheme or representation.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has notwithstanding such objections, been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 20th day of October, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the parish of Erith, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the said parish of Erith.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Erith, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Erith.'

"And with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at the said church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the said parish of Erith, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Robert Long, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Erith shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church called Christ Church, situate within the limits of the said parish of Erith, as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Robert Long; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference:—

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Erith, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Erith, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the county boundary in the middle of the River Thames, on the east and on the south by the parish of Crayford, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the parish of Erith aforesaid, at the point near Fossett Lodge, on Northumberland Heath, where Colyer's-lane joins Bexley-road; and extending thence, first north-eastward, and then eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction on the eastern side of the North Kent Line of the South-Eastern Railway with Pier-road; and continuing thence, eastward, along the middle of the last-named road, and along the middle of Upper Randall-street, and along the middle of Lower Randall-street, to the junction of the last-named street with the street or road which leads, in continuation of Avenue-road, to the Erith Pier; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-described street or road, and along the middle of the said pier, to its north-eastern extremity; and continuing thence, in the same direction, and in a straight line, to the county boundary in the middle of the River Thames aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when
