

Worcester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Matthias, Birmingham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, situate within the limits of such new parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Birmingham.'

"And with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the forgoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Birmingham, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Saint Matthias, Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester, which is bounded on the north, partly by the particular district of Saint Silas, Lozells, in the same county and diocese, and partly by the new parish of Saint Michael, Handsworth, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, or, in other words, by Hockley Brook, on the south-west, by the parish of All Saints, Birmingham, in the said county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester aforesaid, or, in other words, by the streets called or known respectively as Soho Hill, and as Hockley Hill, on the south-east, in part by the parish of Saint George, Birmingham, in the last-named county and diocese, or, in other words, by a portion of Great King-street, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the remaining part of the south-east, and on the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named parish from the new parish of Saint Matthias, Birmingham aforesaid, at the point where Unett-street is intersected by Great King-street aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Burbury-street; and extending thence, northward, along the middle of the last-named street, to the boundary at the centre of the bridge which carries the said last-named street over Hockley Brook aforesaid, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Matthias, Birmingham, from the particular district of Saint Silas, Lozells aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of November, 1874.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Margaret, situate at Castletown, within the limits of the township of North Hylton, in the parish of Southwick, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Margaret, situate at Castletown as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Southwick, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Margaret, situate at Castletown as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Margaret, Castletown, North Hylton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the
