

"9. Except as herein provided, all lands, property, and emoluments (if any) to which the said Provost and College are entitled under and by virtue of the statutes passed in the reign of King Henry the Sixth, whereby the parish church and benefice of Eton aforesaid were appropriated to the said Provost and College, or otherwise in respect of the said benefice, shall remain vested in the said Provost and College for their own use and benefit.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Oxford.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 4th day of February, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Anne, situate within the limits of the new parish of Moseley, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anne, situate within the limits of the said new parish of Moseley.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Moseley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Anne, situate within the limits of such new parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Anne, Moseley.'

"And with the like consent of the said Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Worcester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Anne, Moseley, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of Moseley (in the southern suburbs of the town of Birmingham), in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, which is bounded on the north-west by the parish or parochial chapelry of Edgbaston, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Worcester aforesaid, on the north by the new parish of Balsall Heath, in the said county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the east, and on the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Balsall Heath from the new parish of Moseley aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the line of the Midland Railway; and extending thence, southward, for a distance of twenty-one chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said line of railway, to the centre of the bridge which carries Woodbridge-road over the same line of railway; and extending thence, westward, for a distance of eleven chains and a quarter, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road, to its junction with the Birmingham and Alcester Turnpike-road; and extending thence, northward, for a distance of four and a half chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said turnpike-road to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'M. St. A. D. C., 1875, No. 1,' and placed on the western side of the same turnpike-road; and extending thence, first westward, to such boundary stone, and continuing thence, for a distance of thirty-six chains, or thereabouts, first westward and then north-westward, in a direction parallel to and distant six chains to the south of the middle of Park Hill-road to a point distant six chains to the south of the junction of the same road with Edgbaston-lane, and continuing thence, still north-westward,
