

said church of Saint Botolph, situate within the limits of the said ancient or reputed parish of Heene as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Botolph, Heene.'

"And with the like consent of the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eleventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the parish of Alton, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the parish of Alton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Alton, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Saints, Alton.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Saints, situate within the limits of the said parish of Alton and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend William Durst, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Alton, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of All Saints, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said William Durst; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Saints, Alton, being:—

All that part of the parish of Alton, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, which is bounded on the south-west partly by the parish of Chawton, in the said county and diocese; on the west partly by the last-named parish, and partly by the parish of Faringdon, in the same county and diocese; on the south-east by the parish of Hartley Mauditt, in the same county and diocese; on the east partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of West Worldham, and partly by the parish of East Worldham, both in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon all other sides, that is to say, on the north, and on the remaining part of the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides a certain detached portion of the said parish or parochial chapelry of West Worldham from the parish of Alton aforesaid, at a point at the centre of Great Caker Bridge, which carries the road leading from East Worldham to Turk-street, in
