AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and with the consent of the Reverend Edmund Henry Fisher, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarge of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, which is described in the the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of such district parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Kennington.'

"And with the like consents of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and of the said Edmund Henry Fisher (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, Kennington, being:—

"All that part of the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the present Incumbent of such district parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south-east partly by the parish of Saint Mary Newington, in the said county of Surrey, and in the diocese of London, on the north-west partly by the last-named parish, and partly by the new parish of Saint Philip, Lambeth, in the said county
