

of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester aforesaid, on the west partly by the district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the last-named county and diocese, and on all the remaining sides, that is to say: on the remaining part of the west, on the south-west, and on the remaining part of the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Mary, Lambeth, from the district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington aforesaid, at the point at Kennington-cross where Upper Kennington-lane joins Kennington-road; and extending thence, first southward, and then south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction at the Horns Tavern with Kennington Park-road; and extending thence, north-eastward, for a distance of nine chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road, to the boundary at or near to the northern extremity of Kennington Park, which boundary divides the said district parish of Saint Mark, Kennington, from the parish of Saint Mary, Newington aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of his Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Cuthbert, situate at Hebburn, in the parish of Jarrow, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Cuthbert, situate at Hebburn as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right

Reverend Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Jarrow, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Cuthbert, situate at Hebburn as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Cuthbert, Hebburn.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Durham (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Cuthbert, situate at Hebburn as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend George Albert Ormsby, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Jarrow, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Cuthbert, situate at Hebburn as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said George Albert Ormsby; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in, or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Cuthbert, Hebburn, being:

"All that part of the parish of Jarrow, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south and south-west by the parochial chapelry and township of Heworth, in the said parish of Jarrow; on the west and on the north by the county of Northumberland, that is, by the River Tyne; and on the east by the new parish of Jarrow Grange, in the said county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham aforesaid; and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the boundary-stone inscribed 'J. G. D., 1868, No. 2,' and placed near the western end of the bridge or culvert which carries the line of the Pontop and Jarrow Railway over the stream called or known as Bede's Burn, at or near to which boundary-stone the boundary dividing the said new parish of Jarrow Grange from the parish of Jarrow aforesaid meets the boundary which divides the hamlet of Jarrow, in the said parish of Jarrow, from the hamlet of Monkton, in the same parish; and extending thence, generally south-westward, for a distance of about one mile and a
