NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 26th of April next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to

The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

(commonly called the O'Connor Don), greeting:

Whereas it has been represented unto Us that it is expedient that enquiry should be made into the several matters hereinafter mentioned: Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your ability and discretion, have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint you, the said Sir James Fergusson; Frederick Charles Cavendish, Esq. (commonly called Lord Frederick Charles Cavendish); Alexander Hugh, Baron Balfour, of Burley; Sir Charles Du Cane; Henry Robert Brand; Thomas Knowles; and Charles

Owen O'Connor (commonly called the O'Connor Don) to be Our Commissioners to inquire into the working of the Factory and Workshops Acts, with a view to their consolidation and amendment, and specially to consider whether they can be made more consistent and harmonious, and whether any of their provisions may properly be extended to other trades, industries, and occupations not included therein—and whether in the case of other trades, industries, and occupations other than those dealt with by the Act of 1874—any further provisions are requisite for the improvement of the health and education of young persons and children, and whether any further provision is needed for the due enforcing of such Acts, or, if not, in what way the existing provisions may be improved.

And for the better discovery of the truth in the premises, We do by these presents, give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power and authority to call before you, or any three or more of you, such persons as you shall judge necessary, by whom you may be the better informed of the truth in the premises, and to inquire of the premises and every part thereof by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever, and also to call for and examine all such books, documents, papers, and records, as you shall judge likely to afford you the fullest information on the subject of this Our Commission.

And Our further will and pleasure is, that you, Our said Commissioners do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, in writing, under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any five or more of you, your several proceedings under and by virtue of this Our Commission, together with what you shall find touching or concerning the premises.

And We further will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may, from time to time, proceed in the execution thereof and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment. And for your assistance in the due execution of this Our Commission, We do hereby authorize and empower you to appoint a Secretary to this Our Commission, to attend you, whose services and assistance We require you to use from time to time as occasion may require.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the thirty-eighth year of Our reign.
