The Bankruptcy Act, 1861.

Notice of Dividend Meetings.

Meetings of the Creditors of the Bankrupts hereinafter named will be held, pursuant to the 174th section of the said Act, at the times and places hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:—

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, before Henry Philip Roche, Esq., a Registrar:

Charles James Nasmyth, of No. 32, Great St. Helen's, in the city of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, and there trading under the style or firm of C. J. Nasmyth and Co., adjudicated bankrupt on the 31st day of July, 1865. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 27th day of May next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the Court of Bankruptcy, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, before Philip Henry Pepys, Esq., a Registrar:

George Frederick Noad, of Wye, in the county of Kent, formerly of Reading, in the county of Berks, and previously thereto of Holybourne, in the county of Hants, Clerk in Holy Orders, adjudicated bankrupt on the 27th day of November, 1866. A Dividend Meeting will be held on the 26th day of May next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely.

At the said Meeting the Assignees will, in pursuance of the 174th section of the said Act, submit statements of the Bankrupts' estate recovered and outstanding, and of all receipts and of all payments made or to be made thereout; and the creditors at the said meeting will, in pursuance of the said section, declare whether any and what allowance shall be paid to the said bankrupts. Proofs of Debts will be received, and creditors who have not proved, or do not then prove, will be excluded the benefit of the Dividend. And all claims not proved will be disallowed.

ROBERT AUGUSTUS FISHER, Esq., the Judge of the County Court of Gloucestershire, holden at Bristol, and authorised to act under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 6th day of November, 1851, against Jacob Jenkins Nicholas, of Newport, in the county of Monmouth, Timber Merchant, will sit on the 24th day of May next, at twelve o'clock at noon precisely, at the said Court, in the city of Bristol, in order to make a Final Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, when and where the creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

In the County Court of Hertfordshire, holden at Hertford. In the Matter of Arthur Rhodes, of the Parsonage, Bishop's Stortford, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, a Bankrupt.

AN Order of Discharge was granted to Arthur Rhodes, of the Parsonage, Bishop's Stortford, in the county of Hertford, Esquire, who was adjudicated bankrupt on the 6th day of June, 1874.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Alexander Richardson, of 125, St. George's-road, Pimlico, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepys.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 31st day of March, 1875, reporting that no assets has come into his hands as such Trustee, and that there was now no probability of any ever coming into his hands belonging to this estate, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, the Court, being satisfied that no assets had come into the hands of the said Trustee, and that there was now no probability of any ever coming into his hands, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Alexander Richardson has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 20th day of April, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Joseph Bernadat, of No. 112, Leadenhall-street, in the city of London, Hair Dresser, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Pepys.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 14th day of January, 1875, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of his creditors, and has been found insufficient to meet the expenses of the said bankruptcy, and upon hearing Messrs. Ashurst, Morris, and Co., Solicitors for the said Trustee, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 20th April, 1875, the Court being satisfied that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Joseph Bernadat has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 20th day of April, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Barnley. In the Matter of Luke Fielden, of Gauxholme-place, Todmorden, in the county of Lancaster, Stone Mason, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of property of the bankrupt, dated the 12th day of October, 1874, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy had been realized, and that the amount received by him on the realization of such property was insufficient to defray the legal and other expenses incident to the working of the bankruptcy, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankruptcy as could be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and that the amount received by the Trustee on the realization of such property has not only been insufficient to pay a dividend, but also insufficient to defray the legal and other expenses incident to the working of the bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Luke Fielding has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 22nd day of April, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Berkshire, holden at Reading. In the Matter of Cornelius Vincent Carr, of No. 44, West-street, Reading, in the county of Berks, Confectioner, Baker, and Dealer in British Wines, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 31st day of March, 1875, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as could, according to the joint opinion of the Trustee and the Committee of Inspection thereunto annexed in writing under their hands, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy had been realized, as shown by the statement thereunto annexed, and that there was no estate out of which any dividend could have been paid to the creditors, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and that there is no estate out of which any dividend can be paid to the creditors, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Cornelius Vincent Carr has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 21st day of April, 1875.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Sussex, holden at Hastings. In the Matter of Charles Vincer Drury, formerly of the Bull Inn, Rolvenden, in the county of Kent, Licensed Victualler, but now of Hillgate Farm, Rolvenden aforesaid, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 13th day of April, 1875, reporting that the whole of the property of the bankrupt has been realized for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, and that dividends to the amount of eight shillings and one penny farthing in the pound have been paid, and the Court being satisfied that the said estate has been realized, and
