Paris, Jan. 26. There is a Discourse of raising 50 new Troops of Dragoons, and of adding 200 Men to the Guards du Corps, and 20 to each Company in the Regiment of Guards. The Marechal de Lorge is going to Command in Guyenne, and the Marechal d'Estrees in Bruary. It's said that the 1300 Bales of Silk that were lately taken in the Dutch Merchant Ship, which came from Alexandria, do almost all belong to the Merchants of this City, Lyon and Tours.
 The Sieur Gabarit put to Sea the last Week with the Squadron under his Command, but the ill weather forced him into Port again.

St. James's, Jan. 21. The High Sheriff with all the considerable Gentlemen of Estates in the County of Cambridge, having unanimously enter'd into an Association, whereby they engage themselves solemnly to stand by His Highness the Prince of Orange, with their Lives and Fortunes, in his glorious Designs of redeeming these Kingdoms from Popery, and Slavery; Mr. Cotton of Madingley, was this Day to wait upon His Highness, and Presented it in the Name of the County; to which His Highness return'd a very gracious Answer.

Jan. 22. This day the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons assembled at Westminster.
 The Lord Marquis of Halifax executed the Place of Speaker in the House of Lords; And the Commons chose Henry Powle Esq; to be their Speaker; After which a Letter from his Highness the Prince of Orange was read in both Houses on the occasion of their Meeting; And the Lords and Commons unanimously resolved upon an Address to be presented to his Highness of Thanks for what He had done, and humbly to desire him to continue the Administration of Publick Affairs till farther Application be made by them to his Highness. It was likewise Ordered by the Lords and Commons that Thursday the 31 of January instant be appointed for a Day of Publick Thanksgiving to Almighty God in the Cities of London and Westminster, and Ten Miles distance, for having made his Highness the Prince of Orange the Glorious Instrument of the great Deliverance of this Kingdom from Popery and Arbitrary Power; And that Thursday the 14th of February next be appointed for a Publick Thanksgiving throughout the whole Kingdom for the same: And then the Lords and Commons went in a Body to St. James's to present the forementioned Address to his Highness.

We are now wanting 8 Mails from Holland, and
