PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and to regulate the quotas of the Militia," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the Militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the Militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, anything contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia to the contrary notwithstanding."

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of June, 1875.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled an Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales, it was declared and enacted that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden, and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit, and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit; and further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county.

And whereas the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business held in and for the county of Glamorgan, are usually holden at Swansea, in the said county, in the spring of each year, and at Cardiff, in the said county, in the summer of each year.

And whereas it is desirable and convenient that henceforth the assizes and sessions in and for the said county, should be holden at Cardiff aforesaid, in the spring of each year, and at Swansea aforesaid, in the summer of each year.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in Her under and by virtue of the said Act, and of every other power in that behalf, doth hereby order and direct that henceforth the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be held in and for the said county of Glamorgan, at Cardiff aforesaid, in the said county, instead of at Swansea, in the spring of each year, and at Swansea aforesaid, in the said county, instead of at Cardiff, in the summer of each year.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.
