PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, in the words and figure following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of the Holy Trinity, at Barnstaple, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, at Barnstaple, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in the Reverend Christopher Haggard, Clerk in Holy Orders, Rector of the parish of Filleigh, with the parish of East Buckland annexed, in the said county of Devon.

"And whereas the said Christopher Haggard is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, at Barnstaple, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Exeter.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Frederick, now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the bishoprick of Exeter, the said proposed transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which, by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, he, the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the endowment of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, at Barnstaple, is small and inadequate, and in order to increase the same, Emma Selina Loring, of 2, Sydney-place, in the city of Bath, Spinster, has paid to us, for the benefit of the same benefice, certain sums of money upon condition (amongst other things) that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, at Barnstaple, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed shall be made, and under these circumstances it appears to us that the same transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the particular district or new parish of the Holy Trinity, at Barnstaple, (being the new parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists).

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Christopher Haggard (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity, at Barnstaple, now vested in the said Christopher Haggard as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said Christopher Haggard, and from his heirs, to the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, as such bishop, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised by the said Frederick, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, and his successors, bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.
