THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

GREAT MASSINGHAM FAIRS.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 2nd day of August, 1875, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in the Petty Sessional Division of the hundred of Freebridge Lynn, in the county of Norfolk, that Fairs have been annually held on Maundy Thursday, and on the 8th day of November, respectively, in the parish of Great Massingham, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fairs should be abolished:

2. On the 11th day of September, 1875, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fairs.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, August 11, 1875.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

NOTTINGHAM (GOOSE) FAIR.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross,

No. 24236.

one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated 2nd August, 1875, a representation has been duly made to me by the Town Council of Nottingham, as owners, that a Fair has been annually held in that town for eight days, commencing on the 2nd day of October, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be held on a less number of days, and that such Fair should, in the year 1876 and thenceforth, be held on the first Tuesday in the month of October in each year, and on the four subsequent days, and no longer.

2. On the 11th day of September, 1875, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the proposed alteration in the time for the holding of the said Fair.

Richard Assheton Cross.

Whitehall, August 11, 1875.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

EAST GRINSTEAD FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the East Grinstead Petty Sessional Division of the county of Sussex, that a Fair has been annually held on the 11th and 12th days of December, in East Grinstead, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be held on or during a less number of days than those on which such Fair is used to be held, and that such Fair should be held instead on the 11th day of December in each year, and on that day only, except that when that day happens to be a Sunday the Fair should be held on the 12th day of December, and on that day only.

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for the holding of the said Fair should be altered as proposed:

And whereas it appears that there is no lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof.

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the the Fair which has been annually held on the 11th and 12th days of December in the parish of East Grinstead, in the East Grinstead Petty Sessional Division of the county of Sussex, shall, in future, be held on a less number of days than those on which such Fair has been used to be held, and that such Fair shall be held instead on the 11th day of December in each year, and on that day only, except that when that day happens to be on a Sunday the Fair shall be held on the 12th day of December, and on that day only.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 11th day of August, 1875.

Richard Assheton Cross.
