NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 117.)—MEDITERRANEAN—ADRIATIC—ITALY.

Intended Light at Port Cervia.

THE Italian Government has given notice, that a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse now being constructed on the site of that which formerly existed at Port Cervia.

The light will be a fixed white light, elevated 49 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 3 miles.

The illuminating apparatus will be of the fourth order.

Position, lat. 44° 16' N., long. 12° 21' 9" E.

A temporary white light is exhibited at the extremity of the palisade, to mark the entrance of the port for small vessels, and will continue to be exhibited until the new lighthouse is completed.

Also, that further particulars will be given as to the position and character of the new light.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.
